

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S MESSAGE

$664,000,000, their outstanding circulation based on the security amounts to only about $390,000,000.

"The banks already existing, if they desired to avail themselves of the provisions of law thus modified, could issue circulation in addition to that already outstanding, amounting to $478,000,000 which would nearly or quite equal the currency proposed to be cancelled.

"It is neither unfair nor unjust to charge a large share of our present financial perplexities and dangers to the operation of the laws of 1878 and 1890 compelling the purchase of silver by the government, which not only furnished a treasury obligation upon which the gold could be withdrawn, but also increased the fear of an overwhelming flood of silver and a forced decline to silver payments than even the repeal of these laws did not entirely cure of their existence."

"The free coinage of silver, at a differing widely from actual relative values, would be the signal for the complete departure of gold from circulation, the immediate and large contraction of our circulating medium, and a shrinkage in the real value and monetary efficiency of all other forms of currency as they settled to the level of silver metalism."

"I will not believe that the American people will yield to the false allurements of cheap money, when the realize that it must result in the weakening of that financial integrity and rectitude which, thus far in our history, has been so devoutly cherished as one of the traits of true Americanism."

"I noticed in your paper a few days ago an item copied, I think, from the Levain Tour, giving the names of five brothers who went through the Confederate army, and are all living."

AROUND TOWN.

Washington, Dec. 3.—Forecast till 8 p. m. Wednesday: Fair weather; cold, early winds; cooler Wednesday morning. Weather signals are displayed daily on the Citizen buildings.

Mavor Davidson has gone to Raleigh on professional business.

P. L. Welles, superintendent of the third division of the South, is here today in his private car.

For a change, Asheville had a flying snow last night and today, with a below freezing wave.

Fred Moore, ex-governor, and bride returned from Murphy yesterday and are at Justice A. T. Sumner's on Haywood street.

Now the fountain's stopped a-squirtin'. Hit ain't such a party sight.

Why not hit lookin' fusion? Let the painter paint hit white.

Newton Stockton, who is wanted in Charlotte on a misdemeanor charge, was arrested here last night and is being held awaiting the arrival of the sheriff of Mecklenburg.

Civ. Hall Janitor Hall has availed himself of his leave of absence, going to the "old moonshine district" in the upper edge of South Carolina, where he once lived, and where he will spend a week hunting.

F. Sikelkather, J. J. Mackey and J. C. Curtis returned yesterday afternoon from R. Hillsville, where they had been attending the sixtieth session of the Western North Carolina conference of the M. E. church, South. They say the entertainment of the visitors by the R. Hillsville people was of the very best.

"TIS A GOOD WAY OFF. But to the "rank" Baseball Talk is Good Food Any Time.

Because in this day of reigning football one hears continually stories of "tushes" and "tackles" and "fumbles," and of how "Smith kicked goal," it is not to be presumed that baseball is dead.

The great American game is only sleeping, and when the springtime comes again and old mother earth pokes forth from her wintry shroud her benumbed fingers that will once more "tear the world come talk of "doubles," "singles," "cookers" and "lous." Then will the baseball season be on.

And then—well, maybe Asheville will have a team to draw the cranks out to Allendale, to pay their money and shout themselves hoarse. Knoxville will evidently be in for the war again, according to the Tribune, which devotes considerable space to the telling of how the old members of the Reds will place them selves for the coming season.

Frank Moffett is again to manage the team and cultivate the garden. Crawley ("Algie," he of the yellow trousers) will come to Asheville, according to the Tribune, to play with John Lobe, "who is the best pitcher in the country."

The paper adds that Crawley and Lobe would be drawing cards when the Ashevilleites went to Knoxville.

The Tribune thinks there will be no Southern League, which will put Atlanta, Chattanooga, Nashville and Memphis on the eligible list, and ought to make the baseball sport self-edged. Jack Grimm, the Red's superior batsman, is signed with the Kansas City team in the Western association.

"Farmer" Davis has signed with Cincinnati, but it is possible that he will change his mind and plow in the old hills before getting into stumpy new ground.

Willie Hill, whose arm was good for only one hit here, will work the catapult for Louisville, in the big league. Albe Lutz is "throwing coins at the bell cow" of a Chattanooga street car, and will probably not be with the Reds. Leahy goes back to Lynchburg, while Billings of the camp, third for the Detroiters in the Western association. But with all these gone, the team promises to be up to date with the new material among whom Johnny Hillman of the Marysville is expected to be numbered. Then, if Asheville gets in the push, the season of '96 will be one of rosy-tinted joyousness.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING. Marriage of Miss Susan E. Reynolds and Geo. A. Parker in Woolsey.

A pretty home wedding occurred at 7 o'clock this morning at the home of Mrs. Siss in A. Reynolds in Woolsey, when her daughter, Miss Susan E. Reynolds, was married to George A. Parker of Blacksburg, S. C. The ceremony was solemnized in the parlor in the presence of members of the family, the couple entering the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Dottie Suter, Rev. H. D. Boone of New York, N. J., pronounced the words, making the couple husband and wife. They were the recipients of a number of handsome presents.

Directly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Parker left on the 8:10 train for a trip to the Atlanta exposition, whence they will go to their home at Blacksburg. They were accompanied to Atlanta by Miss Annie Lee Reynolds, a sister of the bride.

Mr. Parker is a prominent merchant in Blacksburg. He is one time lived in Asheville, and was the builder of the mills of the Asheville Milling company. The bride is a most estimable lady, with very many friends in this city.

"RESCUE MUST GO HEAD." Eight Brothers Who Served in the Confederate Army Still Living.

Once more Buncombe county goes ahead, as is shown by facts given in a letter to THE CITIZEN from N. A. Penland of Buena Vista, N. C., dated November 29. In his letter Mr. Penland says:

"I noticed in your paper a few days ago an item copied, I think, from the Levain Tour, giving the names of five brothers who went through the Confederate army, and are all living."

Comrades, 65, 90c., $1, $1.25, $1.50, $2 and $2.50 each; excellent value. Blankets, 70c., $1, $1.25, $1.50, $2, in white and gray. Also $3.50, $4 and $6 in all wool. G. A. Mears & Sons.

Tell us not with lengthened faces "Advertising does not pay;" One your eyes and see its traces In the solid wealth today.

Remember the poor, but don't forget that charity begins at home, and gladden your wife's heart by filling your coal house to the roof with Jellico Lump, Anthracite or Coke, Carolina Coal Co.

Those who travel now have a two-fold reason to take the Rand-McNally Guide First, it is the standard; second, it insures you without charge for $1000. 4c cents per copy, $3 per year. On sale every where. Send subscriptions to 166 Adams street, Chicago.

How the ruddy glow from that bright, clean fire enhances the charm of your chimney corner. Be thankful that you bought your Jellico Lump from the Carolina Coal Co.

BULLET AT MILLS RIVER.

The Remains of Mrs. Fulton Taken to Henderson Yesterday.

The remains of Mrs. Mary Fulton, who died at her home on North Main street Saturday, were taken to Mills River, Henderson county, yesterday.

Funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian church there by Rev. Dr. R. F. Campbell, of the First Presbyterian church of Asheville, and the interment was in the cemetery at Mills River academy.

The remains were accompanied here by A. P. King and family, Rev. Dr. Campbell, B. Parker, Mrs. Dean, Miss Lucinda Barker, H. N. Lockwood, F. M. Foster and B. M. Lee.

Mrs. Fulton, nee King, was born April 26, 1811, in what was then Buncombe but now Henderson, near King's Bridge. She was married January 1, 1828, to Wm. H. Fulton of Laurens county, S. C., who died July 24, 1870.

After her husband's death Mrs. Fulton spent several years in Missouri with relatives, returning thence to Asheville, where she had lived ever since. Her only relatives living in Asheville are A. P. King and Mrs. Daniel Kay, of whom she was the great aunt.

Mrs. Fulton owned property between North Main and Chestnut streets the value of which is estimated at $8000 or $10,000. It has been understood that the bulk of this would be bequeathed to the First Presbyterian church, of which she was a devoted member.

Therefore, be ye thankful for many things, among others, that the Carolina Coal Co. exists to furnish Asheville with the world-famed Jellico Coal.

He that believes in the truth of what he is writing can convey that conviction to his readers. It is good advertising that has built up big businesses in this country.

Read your copy of the Woman's Edition while waiting your toes before an open fire made of Jellico Lump. Carolina Coal Co.

If you cannot think of anything new to say in your ad., or a new way of saying it, have the ad. reset. That will show that you do not neglect it.
