A man can be a good Democrat and hold whatever views he pleases on the currency question.

THE PEOPLE OF CRIPPLE CREEK, COLO., ARE BRAVE HEARTED. They lost nearly one million dollars by fire Saturday, but have declined outside financial assistance.

JOHN HENDERSON, ex-Congressman from the Seventh district confers to the Charlotte Observer: "Nobody is trying to drive the 'free silver' men out of the party."

GEN. WELLES' offer of pardon to all insurgents who will surrender within 20 days partakes of the best features of a Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera.

EVERY London Times has begun to discredit Premier Salisbury for his inaction in the Venezuela matter.

THE knowledge that he has before him a treaty of arbitration and refuses to declare his intentions regarding it, has brought the English people to a point where they would willingly see the premier resign.

THE United States is taken as simply an exhibition of obsequy, and it is realized that if the government of Great Britain is to be conducted in this spirit, war between the two countries may too easily become a very probable contingency.

THE people of Great Britain will not countenance under the present provocation and with hundreds of her leading men declaring that the Venezuela dispute is eminently for arbitration.

A BAD ROAD. Complaint comes to THE CITIZEN concerning the deplorable condition of the county roads from Smith's bridge, over the French Broad, for three or four miles out toward Brevard and also towards Hominy.

AS these roads are extensively used by visitors in making drives about the city suburbs, it is believed that the county commissioners should keep them in good condition.

THE attention of the County Commissioners is urgently called to this matter.

NOT REDIFYING. The Columbia State says: "In a scurrilous article in the Columbia Register yesterday, George R. Koester, editor of that paper—in addition to making charges which need no other treatment than a reference to the public memory of past events—stated, as an impediment to his resuming an editorial in the State of Saturday, the possibility of such action impeding innocent people's lives."

THE editor of the State simply invited the editor of the Register out to fight a duel—an encounter that would be nothing whatever, which would not be honorable, and which would be breaking the law.

THE Register editor was right and the editor of the State wrong. These are civilized times and this a civilized country. If the two editors named are not civilized enough to keep out of a quarrel that can only be settled in a barbarian way, they are out of sympathy with the progress of the age, and should attend some night school in morals till they rise to the full stature of rational beings.

TWO FACES. The Chattanooga Times puts forth a long and labored explanation of the change of front in Secretary Carlisle since the time when he denounced the demonization of silver.

of the act of 1873 accomplishing the demonization of silver. Carlisle reminds one of nothing else so much as the dancer in the minstrel show. He comes out with a very expressive face and dances for a few minutes before the audience. Suddenly he turns half around, continuing the dance, and the spectators are startled to see another face looking at them, a face as real, to all appearances, as the first one, but in the place where the back of the head should be. Now, one of the faces is a mask ingeniously fastened on with intent to bewilder—but which one is it? So it is with Carlisle; did we see the mask years ago, or has that side of him towards us now? Which was the real thing?

JACKSON DEMOCRATS Details of Their Convention—For Free Silver and Meritism. WENDELL N. C., April 27.—The convention for the Democratic party for the county of Jackson assembled at the court house in Webster last Saturday and was called to order by Hon. D. L. Love, chairman of the County Executive Committee. On motion Henry G. Robertson was requested to act as temporary secretary, and on motion of Walter B. Moore, req., the temporary organization was made permanent.

On motion all Democrats in good standing from the townships having no regular delegation were admitted as delegates. Gen. E. R. Hampton presented the following resolutions, to-wit: "Whereas, The Democrats of Jackson county in convention assembled believe that the financial question is one of paramount importance to the masses of the people in the approaching campaign and that genuine prosperity cannot be restored to this country under the financial policy established by the Republican party in 1873 and rigorously adhered to and enforced by the present administration, but can only be brought about by restoring to silver its primary functions as a legal tender money; therefore be it

Resolved, 1st: That we declare our selves in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 without discrimination against either at the mint, with full and equal delivery and purchasing power to both alike, by the government of the United States, independent of the action of any other government or nation.

Resolved, 2d: That the delegates appointed by this convention to attend the Congressional and State conventions be instructed to cast their votes in said conventions for delegates to the national Democratic convention at Chicago on the 7th of July, proximo, only for such delegates as will favor and vote for the free and equal coinage of both silver and gold in the national platform, and for candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States.

Resolved, 3rd: That we approve the position of the Hon. Jas. H. Merrimon on the financial question as recently expressed by him in his public utterances, and we hereby instruct our delegates to the Congressional convention which assemblies at Asheville on the 14th of May to cast the vote of Jackson county as a unit for him as the nominee of the Democratic party for Congress in this the Ninth Congressional district of North Carolina.

These resolutions were unanimously adopted. Delegates to the Congressional convention were instructed to cast the vote of Jackson county for Hon. Walter E. Thomas, D. Rogers, Jas. W. Sherrill, and Prof. R. L. Madison. As alternates—J. J. Hooker, C. A. Bird, S. W. Cooper, J. W. Watkins, P. A. Luck, Thos. J. Love, Felix Alley, Thos. R. Zuchary, O. B. Coward and R. H. Brown.

To the Congressional convention—C. A. Bird, E. H. Hampton, S. C. Allison, G. W. Spake, W. E. Moore, E. D. Davis, F. H. Leatherwood, Wm. Buchanan, M. Buchanan, S. H. Bryson, T. G. Bryson, R. L. Bryson and Dr. J. H. Wolf.

This report was adopted and on motion of Hon. L. J. Smith, the chairman, Hon. Dillard L. Love, and the secretary, Henry G. Robertson, were added to both the Congressional and State delegations. On motion of Gen. E. R. Hampton the delegates to the State convention were instructed to cast the vote of Jackson county for the Hon. Locke Craig of State at large.

It was resolved that the proceedings of this convention be furnished the TACKSSEE Democrat and THE ASHEVILLE CITIZEN for publication, with the request that other Democratic papers in the state copy the same.

Her Choice. From the New York Sun A pretty Southern girl who is attending a fashionable school in the city has been entertaining an older sister for a week or two.

"How long will your sister remain?" asked a friend of the old day. "Well, Miss, I really don't know."

"Has she decided yet?" "No—she hasn't made up her mind whether to stay two weeks longer with me or buy a hat!"

A few days after this conversation the friend met the Southern girl again. "Is your sister still here?" she asked. "No; she bought the hat!"

The George Junior Republic, a remarkable successful attempt to organize a self-governing community of boys and girls in a sort of summer camp in New York state, is described by Dr. Albert Shaw in the May Review of Reviews. The account of this interesting experiment is published thus early in the season in the hope that like efforts may be made in other parts of the country for the poorer boys and girls of the towns and cities.

THE TATTLER. Now and then a week now and the first political battle of 1896 will be waged and won. It is a political battle, and there is no need of anyone trying to disguise the fact. The Democrats are open and sincere about it. They have gone in to win on a straight fight, with candidates who have the confidence of the people. They know that Asheville's affair can be administered as wisely by Democrats as by "non-partisans."

They know that the record made by the present administration is as bad as any "non-partisan" administration might be proud to point to as its own. They know that the Republican pretension of "non-partisanship" is a sham, a suit put on for dress parade in the hope of catching an undecided voter. They know that the Republicans would give anything to win in the local contest, for the effect it would have in the fall campaign. And knowing these things, they have individually decided to vote that the shower of ballots next Monday shall drown the sizzling-partisan hopes of the Republicans. "Non-partisan"! Ugh!

There is a Cincinnati policeman who has shaved off his mustache because a colored woman, whose goods he was removing, rubbed limburger cheese over his face. The officer would have been justified in doing so. In fact there should be a law allowing a man to change his name if it ever became intimately acquainted with this article, which 'tis not and yet is of sufficient strength to defy anything but a Coxey's army.

COL. VERACIOUS'S SPEECHMAKER LUKK has been endorsed for Vice-President and for Governor. While the Colonel would make a desperate try, it is impossible for him to attend to the duties of both offices. So the dear people would be glad to know which one he is going to accept. Not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Who can say what emotions surged through the bosom of H. A. Gudgeon when he stepped upon the stage of the Grand opera house today and stood before the footlights to announce formally his entry into the Radical's camp? and why? In 32 chapters. And the 32d chapter is like unto the first.

How long will it be before we shall see this sight: CARTER & GUDGER, (Late of the Democratic Party) PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS. Also Authors of the famous book "How to Make the Root Book Young in the Faith."

It seems a little singular that all the papers that are espousing the cause of the "non-partisan" ticket should be printed in one office, and that office a "rat" shop, employing "cab" labor—the public, meanwhile, being asked to believe that the non-partisan ticket is all right for the laboring man. It is surprising if the union organizations of the city don't put the stamp of their disapproval on the whole thing.

The State Reporter, generally regarded as a church paper, is now using the interchangeable "non-partisan" editorial matter. This probably makes the composition cost less. So the way to

The Press. The Rev. Dr. Jacobs of Clinton, S. C. For my part I am not only a newspaper man by practice, I am one as in faith. I believe in the press, and whether in one line or another, with rare exceptions, I have found the grandest ally of the church for the redemption of mankind from ignorance and error to be the newspaper, be it either the great and far-reaching daily or the humble country born and bred paper outside.

Not Enough to Hurt. Sam Jones at Atlanta. You all have some fairly good men here I'll admit. There's Brother Patterson and Brother Bob Hemphill and Brother Palmer. I suppose they are pretty good samples. They've got some religion, but they've got it in a mild form. (Laughter)

No Place to Spend Eternity. From Brooklyn Life. Taxpayer—I can't for the life of me imagine why bicyclists want a return path from Coney Island; they'll want the earth yet.

His Wife (timidly)—But, dearie, how can they get back unless they have a return path? Happy Man! From the New York Sun "Did you ever hear of Ananias and Sapphira and their fate?" asked counsel for the complainant.

"I have not time to bother about the fate of other people," said Mr. Halliester, with dignity. "I never heard of them."

A SUIT TO BE GIVEN AWAY. Anyone buying a suit of clothes from L. J. Foller, the tailor, 28 Patton avenue, between this date, April 25, 1896, till Sept. 15, 1896, will entitle them to a chance for a nice suit of clothes or overcoat free of charge, and anyone leaving a pants order will have the same chance to get a pair of pants. I have a nice line of goods for spring and summer, and a trial order is respectfully solicited. J. J. Foller, the tailor, 28 Patton avenue.

There is always an endless surprise of good things to be found in Littell's Living Age, and recent numbers have been no exception to the rule. P. L. bated weekly, each issue brings just what you need—scientific, biographical and historical essays, sketches and reviews, to say nothing of the choice fiction and poetry which are equally features of this admirable periodical. The price, formerly $8 a year, is now but $6. Published weekly by Littell & Co., Boston.
