SEEDS!
For lawns, pasture and hay. You sow seeds expecting good results. Your expectations will not be realized unless good seeds are sown.
We have just received a car load of carefully selected red, sapling, alaska, and white clover, timothy, red top, orchard grass and fancy blue grass. All to be sold at lowest market price.
We have some lines of clothing, men's underwear and dress goods that are closing out at a sacrifice.

T. S. Morrison & Co.,
29 N. MAIN ST., ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Stylish Wool Dress Goods.
In blacks and colors—the new weaves for '38—the kind that critical buyers are demanding—a large variety commencing about 19c, and ranging upward to about $2 per yard. Many of these are well below today's prices, our contracts having been made early.
Silks, Satins, Liberty Silks, Chiffons, Drapery Nets, Gauzes, Mousselines de Soie, Shirred Silks, etc.
Choice styles in Ribbons, Embroideries and Laces. In Percales, Dress Ginghams, Chevots, Denims, Outing Cloths, Batistes, Bicycle Suitings, etc. we are doing quite a business. Many of the crack styles are not to be found elsewhere.
Butterick Patterns.
We omit mentioning Fine Clothing only because most buyers take for granted that our usual superb stock awaits their convenience in calling.

PAST THE THOUSAND MARK
ZEB VANCE CLUB CONTINUES TO GROW.
More Than 100 Names Added to the Roll Last Evening, Making the Total Membership 1039.
The weekly meeting of Zeb Vance Democratic club was well attended last evening about 250 members and visitors being present. President Luther read a letter from R. L. Leatherwood of Bryson City, stating that it was impossible for him to attend, but that he hoped to address the club later.
The volunteers on the membership committee reported 106 new names, and with the addition of four more applicants for membership in the club rooms it raised the total membership to 1039.
Speeches were called for from several visitors, among them Mr. Anderson of Hancock county, Mr. Redmond of Buncombe, ex-Sheriff Shelton of Haywood, Herbert Ferguson, mayor of Waynesville, Judge Patton of Swain, and Mr. Cuddeback of Lower Hainey.
Locke Craig, esq., addressed the club at some length, being followed by W. J. Cooke and W. H. Young, who also gave interesting talks. Most of the speeches urged thorough organization of forces for the coming election.
John Y. Jordan, after stating that in the coming election the Democrats would nominate Dillon M. Luther for mayor, and would elect him by a large majority, suggested that the time had come to get down to work and that after the club adjourned he wanted to have a meeting of those from his ward to consult about more systematic work. This was followed by representatives of several other precincts of the city, and as soon as the club adjourned these ward meetings were held in the hall and systematic work was begun in earnest.
President Luther stated that Zeb Vance club was the largest political organization south of Mason and Dixon's line. There is a club in New Orleans, the largest, that boasted of 800 or 900 members, and that he was going to write the president of that body that Zeb Vance club has crossed the 1000 line and is still growing.

THE MOVING THROG.

Miss Miller and Miss Goodwin of Hendersonville have returned to their home after a visit to Miss Flora Fain, Montford avenue.

CENTRAL LEAGUE.
Papers on John Wesley and His Contemporaries.
At the literary meeting of Central Elphinstone League last evening, a paper which there was a good attendance, Marcus Erwin, esq., read a strong paper on "The College Life of John Wesley." Mr. Erwin showed that it was not the wonderful talent, Wesley, but such a mark upon the 18th century but that by setting such high value on the power of the gospel he prepared for and formulated what has crystallized into modern Methodism.
George L. Hackney followed with an interesting paper on "Contemporaries of John Wesley," notably Whitfield, Fletcher and Huntington, from whom the universal church has inherited a legacy of rich blessings.
Remarks were made by Rev. Dr. Chas. W. Byrd and made by Rev. E. L. Hahn. The meeting throughout was a most interesting and profitable one.

Judge Armfield Cannot Come.
President George S. Powell of the Vance Monument association has received a letter from Hon. R. F. Armfield of Statesville in reply to an invitation sent him to be one of the orators on the occasion of the dedication of the Vance monument May 10. Judge Armfield is compelled to decline the invitation because of ill health.
No Algebras.
Editor The Citizen:—A room 18x14 and 10 feet high is standing north of south. What is the shortest path a fly can travel (by walls, ceiling or floor) from the northwest upper corner to the southeast lower corner? Please give route, as well as the distance in feet. No algebra.

AROUND TOWN.
FORECAST till 8 p. m. Wednesday—Fair except light showers tonight; fair and slightly warmer Wednesday.
Mrs. T. B. Long of Woolsey is ill with the grip.
D. Gross will open a delicatessen and fruit store at 22 northeast Court Place.
Rev. Dr. R. G. Pearson will begin a union meeting at San Antonio, Tex., on the 20th of March.
Patrolman J. J. Nolan is a candidate for the nomination for the office of water superintendent.
A week of prayer and self denial is being observed by the congregation of the First Baptist church.
The drawing at Chas. G. Lee's cigar store for a $5 pair of shoes will take place this evening at 8:30.
W. E. Hand will in a few days take charge of the publication of the Black Mountain Eagle, Hartselleville.
Charles G. Lee, dealer in fruits, candies and cigars, has removed his north-east Court Place stock to his Fourth Main street store.
At a meeting last evening of Hose company No. 1, the members decided to arrange for representation at the Charlotte 20th of May celebration.
The ejection case of Z. B. Jarrett and others vs. J. Z. T. Rogers continues to engage the time of the Superior court and the end is not in sight.
In the March number of the North Carolina Journal of Education there is an article by Mrs. Fanny C. Faribout of Asheville on "How We Studied the Rhine."
The Tasteless Quinine company has arranged for a removal of its place of business from 48 to 44 South Main street. Additional accommodations were gained by the removal.
N. Brock, formerly of Newbern, has removed his family to Asheville. Mr. Brock has taken the photograph gallery now occupied by Harry Sharple, who will leave Asheville in a few days.
A. H. Ishell of Shooting Creek, Clay county, was here yesterday. He will go to New York next week in the interest of the new company which is to put in machinery at Shooting Creek for the working of corundum. The company's mill will be the largest in the South.
M. D. Cooper, the veteran liverman of Brevard, was in Asheville yesterday. Mr. Cooper was in the lively business for about 45 years, but for the past year he has just re-entered the business for the accommodation of residents and visitors at Brevard.
The first of a series of entertainments for the benefit of the Mission hospital and Lindley Training school will soon be given at the Battery Park Hotel. The entertainment will be a cake walk by colored artists, and other typical southern scenes. The date is Thursday evening of this week.
Register Beachboard has received the following letter from Dr. W. W. Clarke now of Old Fort, but formerly of Buncombe: "Replying to your demand for physician's special tax, wish to say for your southern scenes. The date is in McDowell county, which, according to statute, is out of your Radical jurisdiction."
S. T. Pearson of Morganton was here today on business connected with the noted Scaife land suit. The bill of exceptions has been signed by Judge Farnell and P. S. Court Clerk Moore says the case will go at once to the Circuit court of Appeals. Judge Farnell has also signed the bill of exceptions in the case of the National Bank of Asheville vs. the Fidelity and Casualty company, and this case will also go immediately.

"Drumtoochy Fouk."
Miss Katharine E. Oliver, who has gained an international reputation by her monologue recitals, will give an interpretation of Scottish character at the Asheville college hall Thursday evening at 8:30. The program "Drumtoochy Fouk" is arranged for Ian MacLaren's "Bonnie Briar Bush" and "The Days of Auld Lang Syne." The admission price is 50 cents. S. E. Crockett wrote to Miss Oliver: "I much enjoyed your interpretation of the 'Gossip' scene in my play. Indeed, so good was it that I read 'The Play Actress' through for the first time in four years."
Two New Summer Cars.
The Asheville Street Railroad company has begun preparations for taking care of the summer travel on its lines, by additions to its rolling stock. Receiver J. E. Rankin yesterday placed an order for two new open cars, and they are expected to be here in about six weeks. The cars are to be duplicates of those purchased last year, and are made by the Jackson-Sharpe company of Wilmington, Del.

EASTER OPENING.
Monday Evening and Tuesday, March 21 and 22, at 47 Patton Ave.
Miss LaBarbe will have her Easter opening of fine millinery Monday evening from 8 to 10, and Tuesday. She has taken great pains in selecting her stock this year, and does not hesitate to say that it is superior to any she has had in the past five years. She has just returned from the Eastern markets from selecting this stock of fine pattern hats and millinery, both foreign and domestic.
Miss Smith, her former trimmer, who has spent the last six weeks with some establishments in the country is with her this season and will be delighted to see all the ladies who desire to know anything of the spring styles. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend this display and see the goods for themselves.
Sawyer's Carpet House and the Asheville Cycle Co. (same building) will also have a display on the above date.

SPRING ORDERS
Winter to get out and take all his belongings. That means that all the remainder of our winter suits, overcoats, ulsters, etc., must be cleared out at once. To do that quickly and thoroughly we have pared down prices until almost nothing remains. The profit is decidedly on the wrong side. Quality, however, remains the same, as well as fit and workmanship. Only price has depreciated. This is your opportunity to get stylish clothing, which will be found reasonable for months yet, at about half the usual price.
A few high grade overcoats and ulsters, worth $15 to $18.50, closing at $10 and $11. $10.50 and $15 suits at $7, $11 and $12.50.
