Verdict in Favor of the Pr. vident Savings Company.

A decision in favor of the defendant has been given in the Federal court in the case of Mrs. Susie R. Carter against the Provident Savings Life Assurance society of New York. The suit was over policy held by Mrs. Carter's husband, the late Capt. Melvin E. Carter, the amount involved, including interest, being about $12,000. It is probable that an appeal will be taken. It was claimed by the defense that the policy had lapsed because of non-payment of premiums.

The case of W. W. Patton against the Southern Railway company is now being tried. The plaintiff sues for $10,000 damages for the loss of a leg in a wreck on Saluda mountain in 1895. George F. Bason, Charles Price and Col. Henderson, prominent Southern railway attorneys, are here in the interest of their company.

Out of Court to War.

Criminal court proceedings were made interesting today by the effort of Jesse R. Starnes to secure the release of 10 negroes who had cases in court and who wanted to join the volunteer army. Mr. Starnes cleared five, and they will go to Fort Macon to join Capt. Leatherwood's Maceo Volunteers. They are James Reed, George Carson Clanton, George Parker, Elisha Parker and William McDowell. The court agreed that the remainder of the prisoners could go if the costs could be arranged with the solicitor.

KEY WEST, July 27.-News reached here today of an attempted landing on the Cuban shore of a large expedition of men and arms by the steamer Wanderer which left Key West a week ago The town of Banes, west of Havana, was the point selected for debarking. But on arriving there the expedition was confronted by a body of cavalry numbering a thousand, and a sharp engagement ensued. The Wanderer was to be met by Cubans who evidently had been dispersed by the Spanish forces before the arrival of the steamer. The Wanderer had a portion of her sup plies landed when the sudden attack was made by the cavalry. The sharpshooters returned the fire and enabled the Wanderer's boat to get off, but no
