NEW STYLE OF GIRL UNKNOWN TO THE LAST GEN-

ERATION.

Thought of a Mouse Has Gone Forever Iron Nerved.

om the Chicago Chronicle. borizon. It is the athletic girl, the perb figure and healthy body. Ten ars ago the athletic type of woman as hardly known. If a woman went for any kind of out-of-door sports he did it in gloves and veil-with one spoiled and the other on the hands at were not to be roughened. But it rested and placed in confinement, but not take very long to convert her sport for sport's sake. The gloves nd veil were abandoned, the complexand hands would have to take care wimming were too good fun to be talked with veils and gloves. The woman's colleges began to turn out hunreds of girl athletics every year who cere not such a long way behind their wothers, even in such a manly art as hammer throwing. In a word, athletics secame a fad with the fashionable orld and it made the new figure. With the advent of the new healthy tone resping into the feminine mind. girls who go in for all sorts of exercse are not afraid to acknowledge good healthy appetites and normal sentiments. Who could be othtwise than healthy-minded who proudly owns to a good appetite and a inch waist? The modern girl would almost as soon acknowledge false teeth r a fulse braid as nerves or ill health. it's the thing to be sound and healthy and have a big waist that knows not the steely caress of a corset and sturdy mbs that know not the meaning of

The modern woman must be a creature of iron nerves. She must even be able to stand without flinching the supreme test of seeing a mouse run icross the floor. And as for fainting, that piece de resistance of the heroine of 25 years ago would be asolutely fatal to the modern tactics of femining wurfare.

A Four O'clock.

Ah, happy day, refuse to go! Hang in the heavens forever so! Forever in mid-afternoon, Ah, happy day of happy June! Pour out thy sunshine on the hill, The piny wood with perfume fill, And breathe across the singing sea Land-scented breezes, that shall be Sweet as the gardens that they pass, Where children tumble in the grass!

Ah, happy day, refuse to go! Hang in the heavens forever so! And long not for thy blushing rest In the soft bosom of the West. But bid gray Evening get her back With all the stars upon her track! Forget the dark, forget the dew, mystery of the midnight blue and only spread thy wide warm wings While Summer her enchantment flings:

Ah, happy day, refuse to go! Hang in the heavens forever so! Forever let thy tender mist Lie like dissolving amethyst Deep in the distant dales, and shed They mellow glory overhead! Yet will thou wander-call the thrush And have the wilds and waters hush To hear his passion-broken tune, Ah, happy day of happy June -Harriet Prescott Spofford.

Never Gives Up Its Dead.

From the Minneapolis Tribune. Lake Superior never gives up its dead Whoever encounters terrible disasterhappily infrequent in the tourist sea son-and goes down with the angry blue water, never comes up again. From those earliest days when the daring French voyagers in their trim birch bark canoes skirted the picturesque shores of their noble but reientless lake own to this present moment, those who have met their deaths in mid-Superior still lie at the stone-paved botom. It may be that, so very cold is have been preserved through the centumetimes, not far from the shore the bodies of people who have wrecked from fishing smacks or from pleasure boats overtaken by a cruel squall have been recovered, but only after the most heroic efforts with drag net or by diver.
