KENTUCKY'S WAR FLATTENED AGAIN

But Leaders Express Fears as to the Outcome

Powers and Davis Attempt to Escape in Disguise.

BOTH HOUSES OF LEGISLATURE ALLOWED TO MEET WITHOUT INTERFERENCE FROM STATE TROOP S.

Frankfort, Ky., March 12.—Secretary of State Caleb H. Powers and Captain Davis, for whom warrants were issued Saturday charging complicity in the murder of Governor Goebel, left town in disguise Saturday night. They slipped aboard a Chesapeake & Ohio train at 8 o'clock and sped toward Lexington. A squad of soldiers, coming from the governor's mansion at double-quick, caught the train just before it pulled out. With them were Powers and Davis, dressed in soldiers' uniforms, and before the guard of deputy sheriffs became aware of what was going on, the train left.

On the arrival of the train at Lexington Powers and Davis and Lieutenant Peak were arrested by the Lexington police and the sheriff and deputies. There was a wild scene when the officers broke into the car and revolvers were drawn by all, but the small squad of soldiers were greatly outnumbered by the police force and the large force of deputies with the sheriff, and the arrest was effected without difficulty.

On entering the coach, the soldiers found that it contained about 27 soldiers with rifles and pistols. The soldiers being under command apparently of Lieutenant Peak, Peak sprang to his feet at once and commanded the soldiers to clear the car. In an instant 20 revolvers were drawn by the officers and they all leveled at Peak, who gamely tried to put his own rifle to use, but as he drew it from the scabbard a policeman smashed him across the hand with his club and prevented what would have undoubtedly resulted in a tragedy.

Davis and Powers were disguised. Both wore the regular soldier uniforms, complete, even as to the leggings. Davis had shaved off his mustache and goatee. He had $125 in money on his person and a revolver. There was found a pardon from Governor W. S. Taylor for Davis and sealed.

BECKHAM'S STATE GUARD.

The first move on the part of Governor Beckham's followers toward the formation of a state guard under his administration was taken Sunday. City Clerk Ben Marshall circulated a paper and enlisted the requisite number of men who are to compose a new company. The guns for this company have been provided by citizens here, most of them being either needle guns or Winchester.

Governor Taylor's soldiers who are on guard at the state house were reinforced Sunday by the arrival of the Barboursville company of 71 men, all of whom are fully armed and equipped.

Governor Beckham appointed Col. David R. Murray of Clover Point assistant adjutant general with rank of colonel, and he was sworn in. The official announcement was made that this appointment is only temporary. This was regarded as significant, it being understood that Colonel Murray accepted the appointment on account of the gravity of the present situation and with the understanding that he could resign when the conditions in the state became more quiet.

MORE ARRESTS EXPECTED.

Today it seemed that the war scare here has again apparently flattened, though the leaders on both sides express fears as to the outcome. The belief among Republicans that attempts would be made to arrest Republican legislators in connection with the assassination of Governor Goebel resulted in several members leaving town. Democratic officials refuse to either confirm or deny that such warrants have been issued, though admitting that more arrests will take place in a few days.

It is asserted that Governor Taylor is being urged to resign the executive offices to London, where he will be safe from possible arrest, but that so far he has refused to entertain the suggestion.

Both houses of the legislature met this morning. In anticipation of a possible attempt by state troops to prevent the meeting quite a crowd gathered around the state house square at the hour of meeting, but the members of the legislature were allowed to meet without molestation.

COLLIER ARRIVES.

Adjutant General Collier arrived here from Louisville and immediately held a short conference with Taylor. Collier said Taylor had no intention of leaving Frankfort or of bringing any more troops here at present.

Adjutant General Castleman arrived here and has been in conference with Governor Beckham and other leaders since that hour. The organization of a new state guard under Beckham and Castleman is proceeding. Several companies in the state guard, as originally constituted, have gone over to Beckham. It is understood that the new company organized here yesterday and the companies enlisted at Louisville and other points in the state will be mustered in at once.

The plans for the organization of the state guard are being perfected in anticipation of the passage of the "Erie" resolution in the house tomorrow authorizing General Castleman to arm and equip the militia, recognizing Beckham as governor, and carrying a special appropriation of $100,000 to put it into effect.

TAKEN TO LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., March 12.—Secretary of State Powers and Captain Davis were brought here from Lexington this morning and placed in the county jail. The prisoners were driven to Lexington to Lawrenceburg, where they took the Louisville Southern train for this city.

STABBED TO DEATH AT PONCE DE LEON

TROUBLE BETWEEN NEGROES SUNDAY MORNING HAS A FATAL TERMINATION.

Yesterday morning between 3 and 4 o'clock, William Norman, colored, was fatally stabbed by William Henry Moore, also colored, at the "Ponce de Leon," a resort at Sycamore and Valley streets.

Immediately after receiving the wound Norman fled from the house, and after he had his body was found lying in the street, about 75 yards away.

An inquest was held yesterday and the coroner's jury found that death resulted from the wound inflicted by Moore, the latter's knife having entered the posterior part of the right shoulder, severing a large vein and artery.

Moore stated that he was at his home in bed yesterday about 10 a. m., when told of Norman's death and that he immediately ate his breakfast and went to the house of Chief of Police Lyerly to surrender.

On going home to breakfast Chief Lyerly found Moore awaiting him and took him in custody.

Moore stated that a row arose between him and Norman while they were engaged in a game of cards, and that the latter drew a teacup and was in the act of throwing it. He confessed he then stabbed him. He will be given a preliminary hearing this afternoon, and will be represented by Messrs. Brown and Carter.

Norman was about 24 years old, and Moore who is a barber, is about the same age.

The "Ponce de Leon" is a notorious resort, kept by Isaiah Johnson. The place was crowded during Saturday night by a riotous crowd of negroes. Justice Brown today ordered the premises vacated and a number of members of its frequenters for gambling.

FIFTEEN BURNED IN A TENEMENT

The Majority of the Dead Were Italian Children.

Crazed Men and Women Hunting for the Incendiary.

THE BUILDING WAS A FIRETRAP. AND THE TENANTS HAD ONLY THE SLIGHTEST CHANCE OF ESCAPE.

Newark, N. J., March 12.—Fifteen persons, the majority of whom were children, were burned to death in a tenement house at Morris and Fourth-teenth avenues about 5 this morning. Thirteen bodies were recovered from the ruins within three hours after the fire, forming a veritable firetrap.

The building was a three-story frame structure, formerly used as a church, but had been transformed into a tenement with small rooms, scarcely 8x10 feet, opening into a narrow hallway on both the second and third floors, forming a veritable firetrap.

This is the heart of the Italian district and the greatest excitement prevailed. This feeling has been greatly intensified since 7 o'clock, when it first became known that the fire was of incendiary origin, and within 15 minutes of the time when this report was first circulated, men and women well nigh crazed by grief, ran tearing around the streets looking for the man who is responsible for the frightful tragedy and three or four sorts of dire vengeance.

Three or four minutes after the fire was discovered, but long before the fire apparatus reached the scene the incendiary had fled. The building was peopled with wild Italians running hither and thither, unable to find a means of escape.

Every room emptied its occupants into the narrow little halls, and there was a mad race for the fire escape. It is believed that the fire was started by a man who was peopled with wild Italians running hither and thither, unable to find a means of escape.

THINKS HE IS DREYFUS.

Swimming the River to Enter the Vanderbilt Estate.

Michael M. Benson, a resident of Victoria, and a former employe of the Vanderbilt estate, became insane last week, and his insanity caused him to be afflicted with a curious hallucination, and to perform some curious acts. Saturday evening he succeeded in securing entrance to Biltmore House. He did this by swimming the swanman river and first securing entrance to the estate in this way.

He went to the rear of the mansion and entered through the kitchen. He was put out by the watchman. Yesterday he made three more attempts to enter the estate, and was unsuccessful, being stopped at the entrance gate. The third time he succeeded in getting in.

Benson labors under the hallucination that he is Captain Dreyfus. He thinks his enemies are pursuing him all the time. He believes they have succeeded in charging him with electricity, and consequently he is very careful not to step on car rails or any place where he thinks the contact might injure him.

Application will be made to have Benson adjudged insane and placed in the state hospital. However, he will probably have to remain in jail here, as the hospital is already filled.

BOBS SOON TO BE AT BLOEMFONTEIN

London Expects Him to Reach There Wednesday.

No Doubt He Will Accomplish His Objective.

RUMORS OF THE RELIEF OF MAKING CONTINUE TO CIRCULATE, BUT THEY FAIL OF CONFIRMATION.

London, March 12.—At the present rate of progress Lord Roberts should be at Bloemfontein Wednesday, though all calculations may be upset by the development of more serious resistance than the Boers have so far attempted. The distance between Lord Roberts and the Free State capital is now so small, only about 25 miles, that it is not surprising that the Boers' attempts to make a determined stand on the outskirts of the town, or, for strategic reasons best known to themselves, allowing Lord Roberts to occupy it after merely harassing his advance.

The numerical superiority of the British troops leaves no doubt in the minds of critics here that Lord Roberts will accomplish his immediate objective, the occupation of Bloemfontein. The commander in chief's latest dispatch announcing that General Gatacre is at Bethulle bridge and special saying that Gatacre commands the bridge approaches, put the Boers in that vicinity between two British forces. However, there is a large plain between them, and the main body of the Boers now confronting Lord Roberts with its ceaseless activity may be quite sufficient to prevent the British from once confronting Gatacre.

Once the British are in possession of the railroad from Bethulle to Bloemfontein, the Junction at the Free State capital of General Gatacre and Roberts will be a matter of a very few days.

Rumors of the relief of Mafeking continue to circulate, but fail of confirmation.

From Natal, which Buller so prominently declared was free of Boers, and from Cape Colony, where General Buller's stern hand is upon the rebellion, there is no news of any importance.

ADDITIONAL CASUALTIES.

The war office this morning issued the following dispatch from Aasevogel camp under today's date:

"We were engaged during the march yesterday. The officers I left at the last camp to record the list of casualties were not yet arrived. The following additional casualties are known: Killed, Lieutenants Pansons and Coddington of the Essex Regiment; wounded, Lieutenants Berkeley and Raleigh.

General Gatacre reports that he was within a mile of Bethulle railway bridge yesterday. The bridge is partially destroyed and the enemy is holding the opposite bank."

HORSELESS CARRIAGE MAKES ITS APPEARANCE

IT IS AN ADVERTISER, AND CUTS THE WIND AT FORTY MILES AN HOUR GAIT.

The newest steed turned up in Asheville this morning. It doesn't shy at trolly cars, and it stands anywhere without hitching. As a mover none of the famous kings or queens of the turf can touch it. It is a locomobile—the first seen in Asheville and the second brought to North Carolina. Asheville people usually first in everything new in the line of horseless carriages, and this one is no exception. It is a motor car, and it is so that the new steed's appearance attracted attention like unto that won by one of the swarms of "funny farmer bands" we have had here lately.

The loco was brought here by W. S. Durr, who is advertising the new style in advertising Colgate & Co.'s Toilet Soap. The first Asheville man to take a trip in the new loco was Clarence Sawyer. The trip was over Patton avenue, and when the steed arrived at a 20 mile an hour clip, Mr. Sawyer held on to his hat and wanted to yell, but refrained through fear of a fine.

The loco was then driven to the Citizen office, where one of the force was coaxed into the seat, and the first Asheville man to ride in the loco was Durr. He had been blindfolded. Mr. Durr turned the loco's nose down South a week, advertising the loco. The loco was then driven to the station, where it was used for the following moments made the unbroken excursionist wonder whether he would be dumped into the swanman river, plumed being through Hendersonville.

But neither was on the program. People lined up on the sidewalk as the English people did on the occasion of the queen's recent visit to London, but if there were any delirious about the excursionist doesn't recall them. One colored woman carrying a market basket came near unjoining her neck in the loco. The excursionist had to wait, and some drivers dismounted to hold their horses as the steed of steel sped by. The loco is a "clank," "whizz" and a horseless vehicle have been seen in the street as if somebody's life depended on it.

The trip was made beautifully, and the excursionist returned to the shop a happy man. The loco is a "clank," "whizz" and a horseless vehicle have been seen in the street as if somebody's life depended on it.

JUDGE GILLIS' DEATH

The End Came Saturday Afternoon at His Home in This City.

Judge Calvin Gillis died late Saturday afternoon at his residence, 167 North Main street, after an illness of several months. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the house. The services were conducted by Dr. R. F. Campbell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a member.

At the request of the deceased the funeral was private and a simple one, and no crepe or other insignia of mourning was used. Only the members of the family, the minister, and the pallbearers were present. The pallbearers were J. D. Murphy, Dr. B. R. Fakes, F. A. Sondley, L. A. Farinholt, M. Campbell and A. M. Ballard. The interment was at Riverside.

Judge Gillis was born in Moore county, N. C., April 30, 1829. He moved to Asheville in 1858, where he was admitted to the bar, and practiced law a number of years. Afterwards he moved to Florida, and spent a larger part of his life in Jacksonville and Palatka. In this state he was judge of the Superior court and a member of three legislatures.

He married Miss Eliza DeVall in 1868, and to them were born three children, David, Calvin and Miss DeVall Gillis. One other daughter, by a previous marriage, Mrs. Mary DeVall, survives and lives at Sanford, Fla.

Judge Gillis had been a ruling elder in the Presbyterian church for 30 years.

The $5 seats for Asheville's great Music Festival went on sale this morning at the Paragon, and for some time before 9 o'clock people were in line waiting a chance to get choice seats.

Many of the $5 seats have already been sold, and newcomers who wanted the $5 seats today bought the $7.50 seats in order to get choice. Chairman J. A. Nicholas of the festival committee was an interested watcher as the sale proceeded, and he, as well as the other gentlemen who have worked to give Asheville the big attraction, has good reason for being gratified by today's sales.
