FORECAST till 8 p. m. Tuesday—Fair with probably killing frost tonight; fair Tuesday.
The board of managers of the Lindley Training school will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.
The second quarterly conference for North Asheville Methodist church will be held this evening at 7:30.
The J. E. Bostic company today sold to Hugh T. Brown two lots on Ralph street, near the Glen Rock hotel.
The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. will take place this afternoon at 6:15.
The work of grading Haywood street preparatory to paving was recommenced near the postoffice this morning.
E. P. McKissick will give a dance Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock at the German club. All members of the Battery Park and other young men of the social set are invited.
The State Sunday school convention will meet in Charlotte, March 14, 15 and 16. Ten delegates are invited from each county. Entertainment is free and special rates are given by the railroads.
Notice has been received from Judge McNeill that the exceptions filed in the case of the state against A. H. Bryson were overruled and the former decision is confirmed. It was agreed that Judge McNeill should give decision out of court.
An operation for appendicitis was performed Saturday morning by Dr. Master Caleb Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter. The lad has steadily improved since and the prospects now are very good for his complete recovery.
There was a large attendance at the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting yesterday afternoon, when J. H. Tucker, esq., delivered an address on "Moral Courage." The address was an instructive and helpful one, and was listened to with great interest.
The first and second baseball teams of Higham school played this morning. The score was 5 to 2 in favor of the second team. The first team showed that it was the stronger team, but it is stated on account of two balls blocked by outsiders the score was changed.
The following has been received from Capt. W. C. Corpening, of Fort Tuesday to work on a contract on the extension of the O. R. & C. railroad: "Chestnut, Tenn. I arrived here Tuesday night with 42 men. Camp is four miles above here. We got to camp on dump carts, the bridges were washed out some time ago. Can work all the men who want to come."

AT THE GRAND.
"Joshua Simpkins" drew a fair audience at matinee Saturday afternoon and a better one in the evening. It was the intent and purpose of each member of the cast, excepting the villain, to be funny, and the audience, being good natured, took their cue from the director. The piece is a conventional rural farce-comedy, in which a realist, a dreamer, a miser, a miser's son, a miser's daughter and a heavy downpour of snare drum rain is the principal feature. The musical specialties were dignified, and the company carries one fine piece of scenery—a moonlight view of Washington city and the Potomac.

GREETING.
To my friends and the public in general: I have opened business at 34 South Main street, and while I do not claim to have the largest or best stock of liquors in Asheville, I do claim to have the best. There are "none better." My own experience in the liquor business enables me to select the best. I can satisfactorily execute all orders for wine and liquor usually kept in a first-class house, but will make a special feature of bottling of whiskey under the following brands: American College Club, Blue Belle, and my old popular brand, Frank O'Donnell's Private Stock. I will be glad to see all my old friends and receive their orders and guarantee careful and prompt attention to all orders. Very respectfully,
FRANK O'DONNELL.
Telephone 433.
