EWART GOES BACK TO THE CAPITAL

THE JUDGE IS SURE SENATOR PRITCHARD WILL NOT ALLOW HIM TO BE DEFEATED.

MEETING OF HIGH LIGHTS IN THE FUSION CAMP AT RALPH—EASTERN JUDGESHIP.

Raleigh, N. C., March 29.—The event of the day here was the trial of Tom Jones, the negro "exhorter," the worst murderer this state has ever known. It required nearly two hours to get a jury. The court room was packed, interest was intense. When Jones, diminutive and animal-like, stood up before the jury with uplifted hand he was a target of execration, noisiness but none the less felt. His hand nervousness closed and unclosed. The chief witness against him was the seven years old daughter of the woman Ella Jones, one of the victims. Her testimony was, as given before the coroner's jury, unimpaired. There was also plain proof that the murderer's footprints were those found at the house. There were three white witnesses for the state who lived near the scene, and several colored. Jones was brought to the court room from the jail on the "bridge of Sighs." He was at all times eagerly watched. His conviction was not a surprise to the fusionists. George C. Round of Manassas, Va., writes to the state authorities asking leave to use the name of the capital as a point of view of the total solar eclipse in May. He says that in April, 1908, he was in charge of the United States signal station on the dome. Judge Ewart was here last night and left for Washington this morning. He is sure Senator Pritchard will not permit him to be defeated and says he is now entirely ready for the fight.

The fusion machine men got together last night at the harbor. Republican chairman Ewart was rather more communicative than usual, and said he had issued his first campaign circular. It deals with what he terms the democratic platform against the fusion matter. He expresses his pleasure that his headquarters are not at Raleigh, where newspaper men would water him by asking questions. "It was quite funny to talk with Republican and Populist machine men and find out what they did. A Populist said: 'The Republicans defer to us. They are asking no questions. They want us. When I came here I found Cy. Thompson, the bluest man I ever saw, bluer than indigo. Somebody had talked about him for governor. He had declared he wouldn't accept the nomination for any consideration. After he heard the reports from the east and the west last night he has changed his mind. Those reports have put a different aspect on affairs. He is the best man we can put up because nobody can say anything against him'."

A Populist state committeeman said, "I assure you we didn't do a single thing except talk. We didn't agree on anyone for governor." On the contrary another Populist said: "We talked but little about the amendment. I will tell you that our main business was to find out who was the best man to be put up for governor."

Revenue Collector Duncan, who of course was present, said he believed there was an outlook for the defeat of the amendment and the election of the fusion ticket.

Some of the fusionists tried to make a case of the amendment in the east, as averse to the amendment and said not a few Democrats opposed it. Others admitted that they could see no sign of activity in the east. One of them added that the "state" would of course be made up at Washington and that some of the fusionists would be there. It seems that not long ago Butler for governor and Spencer Blackburn for lieutenant-governor were thought to be on the list. A Republican made the prediction today.

Cleaning Silver
 Instead of scouring and rubbing each piece of silver separately, the whole service can be as effectively cleaned in a few minutes. After each meal the silver should be put into a pan (kept especially for the purpose) and covered with lukewarm water, to which a teaspoonful of

Gold Dust Washing Powder
 is added; set the pan on the range until the water gets to boiling point, then lift out each piece with a spoon and lay on a soft lined cloth, wiping quickly with clean skin. The pieces so cleaned will be highly polished and look like new.

WINE OF CARDUI
Woman Knows Woman.

ZURICH, KAN., Jan. 31.—I used Wine of Cardui for nervousness and weakness in the womb. After taking one bottle I was well again. I am a midwife, and always recommend Wine of Cardui to my lady friends during pregnancy and after birth as a tonic. Every lady who takes it finds that it does even more than is claimed for it.

MRS. V. M. BOISVERT.

Nobody knows woman like woman. Men go to medical colleges, study books and listen to lectures. They learn indirectly of the diseases of women, but they are men and can never fully understand the ailments, the sufferings, the agonies of mothers, wives and sisters. A woman knows. Mrs. Boisvert knows. She has passed through the trials and tribulations of her sex. She has been near by when her sisters suffered. She has seen them relieved and cured with Wine of Cardui. Is it any wonder she recommends it? Is it any wonder that thousands of other women recommend it? They know. They have actual experience to prompt them. They spread the tidings from mouth to mouth, telling how Wine of Cardui helps young girls, helps the weak of all ages, helps and cures all womanly ills.
