RECOMMENDATIONS. The meeting then proceeded to the onsideration of the recommendations

f the Home board. They were as fol-

1. That the Church Buliding and Loan und he continued as a special feature the work of the union.

2. That the women be directed trayer and effort in behalf of the serices of women working under the ausces of our board.

3. We would remind the societies that otwithstanding the love and genuine ympathy shown by sending boxes, hey cannot be counted on salaries, and rge that this good work shall be ad-

The increasing value of the special ek in March of prayer and effort for me missions is apparent and its coninuance is requested.

6. While possibly not so apparent as sults from other efforts, we are coninced that no work of the women is tore valuable than the formation o ocieties and bands to train the child en, and we most heartily commend to he women this noble foundation work Mrs. Willingham of Missouri moved that the recommendations be adopted Mrs. Eagle of Arkansas spoke in disussion of the recommendations. Mrs lambrell of Texas spoke. The recommendations were adopted.

HOME DEPARTMENT. The informal discussion of methods work was taken up. The first division was in regard to the home department. Mrs. Easterlyn of Georgia spoke of the wonderful results of the Home epartment in her home. Mrs. Grego-y of Maryland spoke. "We have found to be exceptionally effectual," she said.
