SEVERAL PERSONS INJURED IN STREET CAR ACCIDENT

Infant Child of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Logan Badly Hurt, and Young Lady Thrown to Pavement Unconscious

Heavily Loaded Car Run by a Conductor Smashed Into Another on Haywood Street, with Painful Result to Several

A collision of street cars occurred this afternoon about 3:15 on Haywood street, which resulted in serious hurt to the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Logan and bruises to several persons on both cars.

HYPNOTIST WITH A NUMBER OF WIVES

(Special to The Citizen.)
Washington, N. C., June 23.—The Baltimore American prints today a sensational story of Guy Carlton Hassel, who hypnotized a girl from Martin county and married her in Norfolk.

Married in Knoxville

Yesterday's Knoxville Journal and Tribune contain an account of the marriage of an Asheville couple—Miss Ora Alexander and William A. Rector, both of whom are well and favorably known here.

Had a Wild Time

(Special to The Citizen.)
Charlotte, N. C., June 23.—J. R. Jordan, a white man living in the southern part of this city, while drunk and crazy, broke the clock, pens and all dishes at home, threw them out of doors, and also attempted to cut his sons' throats, but missed his mark. He was arrested at noon.

Appreciated the Courtesy

Messrs. Branch & Young of the Swannanoa hotel have received a letter from W. T. Halliwell, grand keeper of records and seals of the Knights of Pythias of North Carolina, in which he thanked them for the courteous treatment accorded to the delegates to the convention recently held here.

Bar Association Meeting

In pursuance of a call issued by Chairman Murphy a general meeting of the local bar association will meet this afternoon and arrange for the entertainment of the state bar association which meets here next month.
