JUDGE COUNCIL AGAIN TAKEN ILL

Forced to Adjourn Court This Morning, But Will Try to Continue

Judge Council, who is holding the present fall term of Superior court here, was forced to leave his bench about noon today on account of illness. Judge Council will be absent for a few days, but will return to his home on a few days' vacation. "This," he said this afternoon, "is a citizen reporter at his hotel, Berkeley, and I do not wish to do, if possible, I appreciate the congested condition of the court docket and in justice to the lawyers interested I want to continue court if I am well enough to do so. I expect to try and reconvene court in the morning at the usual hour."

The case of J. P. Moran and wife against J. B. Bostic and others is still on trial and will probably consume several days yet. This is an action to subject certain lands that the defendant Bostic sold to the Carolina Coal company, the plaintiff alleging that Bostic was indebted to him and that the sale to the Carolina Coal company was made for the purpose of avoiding the payment of the debt claimed, and the plaintiff is now seeking to have the Carolina Coal company declared a trustee for his benefit. Messrs. Tucker and Murphy appear for the plaintiff, T. H. Cobb for Bostic, and Frank Carter for the Carolina Coal company.

A motion to set aside the verdict rendered by the jury in the case of Fisher and others against the Western Carolina bank was heard by the court yesterday and the motion was overruled, but the court decided to grant the prayer of the plaintiffs asking for a trial on the merits of the case. The plaintiffs' suit before the appointment of a receiver, to set aside the deed of assignment made by the bank.

SEVENTY PER CENT STATES COTTON CROP (Special to The Citizen.) Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 17.—The cotton crop in the Southern States is estimated to be seventy per cent of the present condition of cotton in North Carolina.

Fire Chiefs Meet New York, Sept. 15.—The thirtieth annual convention of the Fire Chiefs of the country, organized under the name of the International Association of Fire Engineers, began this morning. Fire chiefs were present from many parts of the country and from Europe. Mayor Law welcomed the visitors and praised the New York department. Commissioner Straits of the New York department, in his address, said that the fire department in New York is the best in the world. He also spoke of the fire department in New York as the best in the world.

Dawn of a New Year for the Jews of the Country at Hand

Rosh-Hoshannah, Most Important Religious Event in Life of Hebrews Approaches, it Being the Beginning of the Year 5663

Rosh-Hoshannah, the Jewish New Year, draws near, and handsome Jewish holiday cards are being displayed at a number of the Jew stores throughout the city. The occasion will be appropriately observed by the Jewish people of Asheville, as well as throughout the world. For strictly orthodox Jews it will commence on Monday, September 15, at sunset and last through Thursday, October 2. The Asheville Jewish synagogue only observes this one day. "This," he said this afternoon, "is a citizen reporter at his hotel, Berkeley, and I do not wish to do, if possible, I appreciate the congested condition of the court docket and in justice to the lawyers interested I want to continue court if I am well enough to do so. A WILD FIGHT OVER THE ENDORSING OF ROOSEVELT

Alabama Republican Convention Met by a Decided Split When Declaration Favoring Him Was Made

There Was Also Opposition to Condemning Child Labor--Roosevelt's Dismissal of Vaughan Said to Be Cause

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 17.—When the Republican state convention reassembled it was evident there would be a fight on that part of the platform as reported by the committee, endorsing Roosevelt for renomination. This opposition is understood to have had its origin in the recent action of the President in removing William Vaughan, the Republican state chairman from the office of district attorney for North Alabama, for alleged neglect of duty. There was also feeling of opposition to the clause in the platform condemning child labor in the cotton mills. When the resolutions were read, that part endorsing Roosevelt for the nomination in 1904 brought out loud cries of "No, no!"

The platform as reported reaffirms the Philadelphia platform, favors child law legislation relating to work in cotton mills, urges the extension of education in the state, condemns the spirit which seeks to arouse the prejudice of people against the railroads, advocates the enactment of laws so regulating railroads as adequately to protect the interests of the people, but opposes any drastic measures which may deter investment of capital in railroads and industries in Alabama. The platform then says: "We endorse the wisdom of the Dingley tariff law and urge a continuance of that policy. The members of the Democratic party of Alabama go before the people asking further suffrage without a single issue or promise on any subject whatever. We have a better alternative. We are given power, we shall enact laws as will carry into effect the Republican policies we advocate, which will bring the greatest good to the greatest number; we express faith in Roosevelt's thoroughly American patriotic ideas, and believe his leadership establishes confidence in the Republican principle and the prosperity and progress of the country. We therefore favor his renomination to the great office he fills with patriotism and ability."

National Committeeman J. W. Dimmick and State Chairman William Vaughan endorsed the administration of party affairs in the State. After reading the platform J. H. W. Smith of Birmingham offered a substitute the same as the original report except that it omitted all reference to the endorsement of Roosevelt for renomination. The substitute was vigorously debated and the convention was thrown into turmoil. Dozens of men were on the floor at the same time demanding recognition. Some speakers upheld the substitute declaring it was too early to give out on the campaign of 1904, while others charged that an effort was being made to knife the Republican president. Finally the roll was called and the substitute defeated by a vote of 153 to 146. The resolution was adopted by a large vote.

MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATS AT IT

Kansas City Platform Adherents Declare They Will Make a Big Fight

Boston, Sept. 17.—That faction in the Massachusetts Democracy, supporting the principles adopted by the national convention at Kansas City, advocated by Bryan, and the element which is opposed to the Nebraska and his doctrine, were at odds this morning over the construction of the platform for presentation to the delegates of the state convention. The Kansas City platform adherents, headed by George Fryd Williams, were defeated by a vote of 14 to 7. When the convention was called to order it looked as if a long struggle was in prospect before the convention would make a statement in which he said he was only just beginning to fight. He said he had been told by a friend that Colonel William A. Gaston, who will be nominated for governor, would not go back on the Kansas City platform, else he would not have supported him in the primaries. Congressman Henry F. Napen was made permanent chairman of the convention.

BARLOW BROTHERS HAVE A GOOD SHOW Barlow Bros. were seen at the Grand Hotel evening in old-time mistletoe. It was a bright, sparkling performance throughout and didn't fail to please. Barlow has a better aggregation of talent than any other showman in the city. The scenic effects also surpass all previous attempts and some very pretty stage settings were shown. The acrobatic work was a wonderful exhibition of athletic achievement. The acrobats were the Kates Brothers, who stand highly prominent in their profession. The work of Carl Charles as hand balancer and equilibrist was also phenomenal, showing remarkable physical strength. Jennings and Renfrow, eccentric comedians, proved themselves to be "monarchs of mirth" and woeen shoe dancers. Coburn and Baldwin, musical innovators, and Baldwin and Strong, black and white comedians, were easily favored and kept the large audience in a constant state of merriment. Camerton and Toledo, in an operatic and pantomime extravaganza, entitled "The Enchanted Grotto," were also favorites. Selections from Faust were given with vocal electrical effects, and Mephistopheles proved himself to be a good comedian, and performed some remarkable feats. The jokes weren't half bad and it's a good show. The reviews have put out this season.

RESISTED ARREST, SHOT BY OFFICER. "This Hall a negro man about 40 years of age, was shot this morning by Special Deputy Sheriff Lyda while resisting an officer. The affair occurred about two miles from Asheville, on the river road leading to Alexander. Hall was shot in his right shoulder. The wound is not regarded as being of a serious nature. Mr. Lyda when seen by a Citizen reporter explained the shooting by saying that he was about to overtake a man who was resisting him. "Hall would have undoubtedly overpowered me and made his escape." Hall was wanted for larceny. Mr. Lyda received news by phone this morning as to the negro's whereabouts. It was brought to town, the bullet extracted by Dr. Eugene B. Glenn, after which he was placed in the county jail.

A Drug Store

Cannot be popular if it fails to serve its customers what they want and in a manner to please them! After all customers are the very best test! If they keep coming, as they do here, and keep bringing in their friends with them as they do here, that is the best sign that the drug store is giving good service! You are invited to come and see Smith's Drug Store on Monument Square, where prescriptions are filled and where the large drug store business is done that you have heard so much talk about!

It would be a good fall start for you to begin trading here regularly so you will be in the procession. Everybody likes to trade where satisfaction is given.
