

TEN THOUSAND PEOPLE
Read the Citizen every day.
Your announcements in this paper will bring results.

VOL. XVIII, NO. 112

POLITICIANS APPEAL TO OPERATORS TO SETTLE STRIKE BEFORE ELECTION

But Their Appeal is in Vain and the Strike Now Seems as Far From a Settlement as It Ever Was

The Conference That Has Been in Progress in New York For Two Days Has Proven Futile and No Settlement is in Sight

Another effort to bring about a settlement of the anthracite coal strike has proven futile, according to statements of those who attended the conference. The conference was held in New York city, and was attended by Senators Quays and Borah, and Senators Platt and Wright of New York, and President Platt of the National Coal Operators' Association. The conference was held from October 9 to 11, and was conducted by Senator Wright.

Senator Wright stated that the conference was held in New York city, and was attended by Senators Quays and Borah, and Senators Platt and Wright of New York, and President Platt of the National Coal Operators' Association. The conference was held from October 9 to 11, and was conducted by Senator Wright.

FOR RENT - FURNISHED
12 room house, central, furnace heat, $250 12 room house, central, furnace heat, $200
Board for two people, $20 7 room house, furnace heat, $140
2 room house, furnace heat, $140 2 room cottage, central, furnace heat, $135 2 room house, central, furnace heat, $135

UNFURNISHED
7 room house, East St., $112 2 room house, Woodfin at $150 2 room house, Haywood St., $121 2 room house, College St., $122 2 room house, See St., $130

SUBURBAN
6 room house, Woodley, $115 6 room house, 5 acres, Woodley, $145 6 room house, 15 acres, near Bingham, $115
6 room house, 15 acres, near Bingham, $115
6 room house, 15 acres, near Bingham, $120

J. H. WEAVER CO.
Real Estate Brokers,
15 South Main St., Asheville, N. C.

The Eye
Needs
Great
Care

A little strain may not annoy you today, but it will make your eyes sore and weary. Properly adjusted, the proper strain will help you keep your eyes clear and young.
Examine your eyes today.

S. L. MCKEE, THE OPTICIAN, 15 South Main St., Asheville, N. C.

Cool
Weather
SUGGESTS THE NEED OF Wraps
We have them in all styles and at all prices.
One lot in Fine Kersey, blacks and tans, at $5.98
One lot in Kersey and Monte-car, black and tan, at $7.98
One lot in Fine Kersey and beviot, black and tan, at $10.98
VELVET FLANNEL WAISTS are now on sale, $3.50 to $5.00
M. V. Moore
The
OUTFITTER
"We do Merchant Tailoring"

continuation of the strike for two weeks would imperil the success of the Republican party in the two great states of Pennsylvania and New York. The operators, however, were not moved by this presentation, and they reiterated that politics could not enter into business. Following this statement of their position by the coal men, the politicians attempted very briefly to discuss the way to legislation harmful to the coal operators' interests. In fact, according to one of the coal operators present, the latter statement was made in order to avoid the question of legislation, and that they regarded it as a threat.

Another phase was injected into the discussion later by making public the statements of Senator Wright, who demanded that the Federal government pressure against the miners organization, and that the operators prevent interference.

Another phase was injected into the discussion later by making public the
statements of Senator Wright, who
demanded that the Federal government
pressure against the miners organization, and that the operators prevent interference.

WANTS MINERS PROSECUTED
BY THE GOVERNMENT
New York, Oct. 10.—William Wilcox, president of the National Coal Operators' Association, today demanded that the Federal government prosecute the miners.

WANTS MINERS PROSECUTED
BY THE GOVERNMENT
New York, Oct. 10.—William Wilcox,
president of the National Coal Operators' Association, today demanded that the Federal government prosecute the
miners.

WANTS MINERS PROSECUTED
BY THE GOVERNMENT
New York, Oct. 10.—William Wilcox,
president of the National Coal Operators' Association, today demanded that the Federal government prosecute the
miners.

WANTS MINERS PROSECUTED
BY THE GOVERNMENT
New York, Oct. 10.—William Wilcox,
president of the National Coal Operators' Association, today demanded that the Federal government prosecute the
miners.

WANTS MINERS PROSECUTED
BY THE GOVERNMENT
New York, Oct. 10.—William Wilcox,
president of the National Coal Operators' Association, today demanded that the Federal government prosecute the
miners.

WANTS MINERS PROSECUTED
BY THE GOVERNMENT
New York, Oct. 10.—William Wilcox,
president of the National Coal Operators' Association, today demanded that the Federal government prosecute the
miners.

WANTS MINERS PROSECUTED
BY THE GOVERNMENT
New York, Oct. 10.—William Wilcox,
president of the National Coal Operators' Association, today demanded that the Federal government prosecute the
miners.

WANTS MINERS PROSECUTED
BY THE GOVERNMENT
New York, Oct. 10.—William Wilcox,
president of the National Coal Operators' Association, today demanded that the Federal government prosecute the
miners.

WANTS MINERS PROSECUTED
BY THE GOVERNMENT
New York, Oct. 10.—William Wilcox,
president of the National Coal Operators' Association, today demanded that the Federal government prosecute the
miners.

WANTS MINERS PROSECUTED
BY THE GOVERNMENT
New York, Oct. 10.—William Wilcox,
president of the National Coal Operators' Association, today demanded that the Federal government prosecute the
miners.

WANTS MINERS PROSECUTED
BY THE GOVERNMENT
New York, Oct. 10.—William Wilcox,
president of the National Coal Operators' Association, today demanded that the Federal government prosecute the
miners.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within the country until it so permits. This combination, therefore, not merely restrains but destroys an interstate commerce of the general public interests and importance. No more effective or radical restraint of interstate commerce could be imagined. The Delaware and Hudson company was chartered by the State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has been for the time being in a great part destroyed. Obviously a combination which has this direct effect upon an establishment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate com-
merce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of
Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate com-
merce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of
Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate commerce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate commerce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate commerce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate commerce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate commerce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate commerce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate commerce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate commerce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate commerce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate commerce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate commerce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

coal shall be shipped anywhere within
the country until it so permits. This
combination, therefore, not merely re-
strains but destroys an interstate com-
merce of the general public interests
and importance. No more effective or
radical restraint of interstate commerce
could be imagined. The Delaware and
Hudson company was chartered by the
State of New York on April 23, 1823, for
the purpose, expressed in its charter,
of furnishing to the State of New York
a supply of coal found in the State of Pennsylvania. This combination has
been for the time being in a great part
destroyed. Obviously a combination which
has this direct effect upon an establish-
ment of interstate business is in every sense
a restraint thereon.

The Asheville Citizen.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 10, 1902.

CIRCULATION BOOKS ARE ALWAYS OPEN TO ADVER-TISERS.

PRICE 2 Cents

PREPARING FOR THE LAST ROUND

THE COTTON MILL TRUST IS AT LAST A FACT

Committee Now in Greensboro Considering Options on Seven Mills and Preparing Plans for Their Purchase and Operation

(Special to The Citizen.)
Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 10.—In conformity with the following clause of an agreement signed by the 70 cotton mill proprietors in North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee, no later than the 15th of this month, a committee shall be organized to purchase the organization of the new company except with the written unanimous approval, as to the desirability of the purchase and as to the proprietor:

CANDIDATES FOR SOLICITOR BEGIN THEIR JOINT CANVASS

(Special to The Citizen.)
Tokaway, N. C., Oct. 10.—A fair-sized audience heard here yesterday the debate between Wm. J. Cooke and Mark W. Brown, candidates for solicitor of this district. The crowd was in the main Democratic, although this is a Republican township. It is generally remarked here since the debate that the Republican majority will this year be decreased. The people here, after hearing the speakers regard Mr. Brown as a very nice young man who is capable of making possibly a register of deeds or clerk of the court, but in all respects lacking in those qualities which go to make a vigorous prosecuting attorney. His efforts fell flat before the powerful and eloquent effort of his opponent, who opened the debate.

Mr. Cooke led off in a speech of forty minutes. He said that Mr. Brown would not meet him in but six of the forty townships of the district and that he thought the man who was for any cause afraid to meet his competitor on the stump, was not the man to defend the interests of the state in the prosecution of criminals. The speaker asked Mr. Brown if he would meet him in Asheville and other places in joint debate. Mr. Brown remained as dumb as an oyster.

Mr. Cooke took up the tariff and trust questions and in a most convincing manner explained their workings. After a few minutes' discussion of the Philippine war question, Mr. Cooke put the question: "Those in favor of the policy of the Republicans in that far-off archipelago hold up your hands"—not a hand was up.

Then the speaker went into the question of state politics. In this part of his speech Mr. Cooke was most convincing. He showed that the Democrats had at all times been the majority of the prop-

CRAIG - PRITCHARD DEBATE TODAY AT HICKORY

The Speakers Greeted by Immense Crowd—Craig Given an Ovation

(Special to The Citizen.)
Hickory, N. C., Oct. 10.—A tremendous crowd greeted Craig and Pritchard here today. The Democrats were in a large majority. The speakers were met by the train by their respective committees and escorted to the hotel. The Southern Symphony band, a mounted escort of ladies and gentlemen and the student body of Lenoir college escorted Mr. Craig to the opera house. He was heartily cheered by the crowd all the way. Owing to the size of the crowd there was some confusion as Mr. Pritchard began speaking, but it soon subsided. He is now (3:30 p. m.) speaking, and receiving close attention but little applause. He is attacking the national administration under Cleveland. Joel Mouser, esq., introduced him.

GREAT CROWD HEARD THEM AT CHARLOTTE

(Special to The Citizen.)
Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 10.—For over three hours last night one of the largest political audiences ever gathered here listened with close attention to two masterful speeches by Hon. J. C. Pritchard, Mr. Craig led off in the debate. He discussed for an hour the twin issues of tariff and trusts, showing how the South was made to spend millions of dollars which went into the pockets of the Northern manufacturer. The item on cotton mill machinery alone amounting to ten million dollars in North Carolina. Mr. Craig wanted to know how Senator Pritchard could go about talking prosperity and at the same time allege that 30,000 white men in North Carolina would be disfranchised for non-payment of a small poll tax of two dollars when they had been given two years' notice and had eight months to wait after the tax became due.

Mr. Craig's argument was followed closely by his audience and heartily applauded. Senator Pritchard spoke one hour and twenty minutes. He began with a complimentary reference to Mr. Craig, who he said, was in his opinion the strongest senatorial candidate in the Democratic party. The Senator argued at length to prove some benefits of the tariff to the Southern people. He denied that the tariff was the father of the trusts, and said that in free England there is a trust to every square inch of ground. Senator Pritchard created some excitement by his opponent's challenge, addressing his opponent as a "young man" and "a man who will not give me a single instance in which the Democratic administration of 1882 paid a debt with borrowed money contracted by the retiring Republican administration as you speak. Mr. Craig will get the platform and vote the Democratic ticket."

In his rejoinder Mr. Craig said he did not want the Senator to vote the Democratic ticket unless he completely altered his tactics. Both speakers received numerous bouquets and were loudly applauded. A special invitation is extended to the ladies to be present. The debate is expected to be one of the greatest events in a political way that has been held in Asheville in years, and the house will doubtless be filled to overflowing. Not only will there be a large attendance from the city, but large numbers from the surrounding towns are expected. Everywhere the speakers have been they have attracted great interest, and as this is the concluding speech of the series it is the only remaining opportunity to hear these distinguished speakers.

A BLOODY TRAGEDY.
Knocked in the head, throat cut and found hanging before day in Goodlake & Boom market, the finest and fattest beef seen on the market. Phone 744.

LEES' COLOGNE—
Like a breath from the fountains of spring at Carmichael's.

WHY DON'T YOU?
Come to us and see what we can do in the way of saving you money. Vinegar best, per gal. 50c; oil, kerosene, best, per gal. 12c; Arbuckle's coffee, per lb. 1c; sugar, standard granulated, 18 lbs. for $1.00. We are the only house in the city that can offer you an entire line of tin and enamelware and prices lower than elsewhere.

The I. X. L. Department Store 32 PATTON AVENUE.
Phone 107

CRAZED BOY KILLS HIS MOTHER AND SISTER

He Also Fatally Wounds Three Other Sisters While They Slept

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 10.—A boy named Charlie Cawley, aged 17 years, of Homestead, Pa., killed his mother and one sister this morning at 3 o'clock with an axe. He also lacerated four other sisters so badly that they will die. He attacked his sister, Belle, but she escaped off his head and his brother awoke. He jumped out of the bed and as he saw there would be a heavy knocking him down with a chair. He then took him to the police station.

Cawley was laboring under a mental aberration, the result of a strain of mind in perfecting an appliance for an air brake which is pending in Washington, D. C.

The Cawleys live in a six-room house on Sixth avenue in Homestead, and last night all the members retired early. Mrs. Cawley and Belle, the eldest daughter, occupied one bed, while the four little children were in cribs in the same room. Charles, the murderer, and his brothers, James, aged 26, and Harry, aged 14, occupied the front room on the second floor, adjoining the mother's room.

Early this morning Charles quietly arose, and dressing himself, crept down to the cellar and secured an axe. Coming up stairs he went into his mother's room, where the victims were all sleeping. After turning out the light he attacked each of the victims singly. His brother James was awakened by groans in his mother's room and as he started there would be a heavy knocking chair over him and turned him over to the police.

When physicians reached the house Mrs. Cawley and Belle were dead. The others are living, but the doctors pronounced that they could not live through the day.

REGISTER TOMORROW!
To the Democrats of Asheville:
I earnestly request that you see that your name is placed upon the registration books tomorrow. The registrars will be at the voting places from 9 a. m. to 12 m. The responsibility of seeing that every Democrat is registered is upon the executive committee, and you will lessen this responsibility by attending to this duty at once. Respectfully, Chairman Executive Committee.

The places of registration are as follows:
First precinct, Court House (sheriff's office).
Second precinct—Oates' livery stable, College street.
Third precinct, F. M. Foster's store, North Main street.
Fourth precinct, Hill's livery stable, near of Berkeley hotel.
Fifth precinct, Treadway's store, near Patton Mills in West Asheville.
Sixth precinct, Bolling's store, corner Patton avenue and Bailey street.

DON'T
Imagine that all flours are alike. There is a difference, a big difference, in quality and nutrition of flour that the subject is worthy of your careful investigation and consideration.
You will be better satisfied in selecting "Clifton Flour" a fact that everybody who knows anything about flour will tell you. In purity, whiteness and quality "Clifton" flour excels all other brands.
DON'T
Imagine that because "Clifton" is a high grade flour that the price is high, because the price is low, in reach of all housekeepers. Cheap flour is dear at any price, while "Clifton" is the least expensive and is the very best that you can buy.
BRANSFORD MILLS,
Owensboro, Ky.

Call and See
Our new stock of Horse Blankets and Lap Robes

T. S. Morrison's Carriage Warehouse
17 South Main Street.
SPECIAL FOR MONDAY
AND TUESDAY
$8,000
To loan on improved City Property.
In sums of $2000 to $4000, at 6 per cent.

Aston Rawls Real Estate Agts 181-2 S. Main St.
Green River 90 Cents
Bottle....
JOHN O'DONNELL
Corner Lexington Ave. and College St.

I Get Better
Values...
Because I buy for cash. I give more for the money because I sell for cash. Don't buy your fall hat, furnishings, underwear and shoes until you have looked at my new line.

The Toggery Shop
Phone 261. 18 Patton Avenue.
Suits Made to Order.

Our Aim!

Is to serve each transient customer so satisfactorily that he will become a regular customer of our Drug Store!

And serve our regular customers so satisfactorily that they will not think of trying anywhere else!

we are sure every one will be pleased with our methods of business and the service rendered at Dr. Smith's Drug Store, Monument Square!

Ladies' Short Under-Skirts of most excellent material and big value, at 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Chiffon Boas
Black, White and Tan, very desirable and extra quality, for $2.50 to $5.00.

Outing Night Robes...

Just the thing for comfort at this season of the year, 75, 75, 85 and $1.00.
Inflatable Cashmere Hose in white, black, light blue, pink and red, 25 cents.

BON MARCHÉ

The Dry Goods Shop,
15 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

Toilet Soaps

We have just received a big stock of 4711 White Rose glycerine Soap which we are selling at 20 CENTS PER CAKE or 50 CENTS PER BOX.

Pfafflin's Drug Store

Cor. Patton Ave. and Church St.

Grand Sale of Embroideries at the Palais Royal

17 South Main Street.
SPECIAL FOR MONDAY AND TUESDAY
2500 yards of Embroideries will be placed on sale for the above days at the popular price of 10 CENTS YARD These goods consist of Cambric, Nainsook and Swisses and Insertions to match. They run from 38 inches to the very widest. Patterns of 12 inches worth from 20 to 50c yd., remember, at the popular price of 10 Cents Yard. Watch for our Cloak and Jacket sale for Wednesday and Thursday.