

TALE OF DEEDS TOLD BY MISS DEGRIS

Lashed With Leather Strap in Hands of Captain Allagood Because She Would Not Barter Her Honor.

Afterwards Forced to Work in Fields Under Burning Sun.—Allagood Denies Charges.—"Punishment was Mild," He Says.

Milledgeville, Ga., August 11.—In the investigation here today by the prison commission of the charges of excessive cruelty against Warden Allagood, Miss Mamie De Cris declared that it was not because she had been impertinent to the wife of the warden that she was whipped last June, but because the warden had made indecent proposals to her, which she had indignantly refused.

LIEUT.-COMMANDER TO BE REPRIMANDED

Washington, Aug. 11.—By order of the President, a letter of reprimand will be sent to Lieut.-Commander Fidelio Carter, U. S. N., for negligence in navigation in failing to have casts of the "bad" taken frequently while under way on soundings. Carter was tried by general court-martial on the Asiatic station last winter on five charges in connection with the grounding of the United States tug Piscataqua December 28 last, near Subig Bay, Philippine Islands.

WORLD'S FAIR TO OPEN NEXT MAY

Washington, Aug. 11.—Mr. John Schroers, director of the St. Louis world's exposition, at a conference with Secretary Shaw, today assured the secretary that the exposition would be opened to all visitors in May, 1904, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

Hurricane From Santo Domingo May Come This Way

Washington, Aug. 11.—The hurricane which yesterday passed over Santo Domingo, and Martinique probably is approaching the South Cuban coast, with indications of recurring but at what stage the weather bureau officials are unable to state. A report from Havana at 7 o'clock tonight said that the wind was blowing 36 miles an hour and was going northeast. The hurricane probably will continue in its course northward somewhere close to the Florida

SECRETARY ROOT WILL RETIRE

REASON FOR RESIGNATION IS SAID TO BE OF A PERSONAL NATURE.

Secretary Feels That He Has Accomplished the Work He Was Called On to Do.

Washington, Aug. 11.—A dispatch from London announces that Secretary of War Root will retire from office. It has been known for some time that Secretary Root intended to retire, but he did not wish to leave the department until the general staff bill was in operation and other matters pertaining to the department were well under way. It is understood that the matter of his successor has been decided and while nothing official can be obtained, it is believed that the position will be tendered to Governor Taft.

JURY MAY GET THE CASE TODAY

Cynthiana, Ky., Aug. 11.—In the Jett and White trial today Byrd closely followed the evidence and summed up his case in a masterly way, at the close demanding the acquittal of the defendants. He begged the jury in the name of the children of James B. Marcum and the widow now living alone in Breathitt county to affix the death penalty. He begged not to turn the assassin's head into a wooden man's death to the witnesses who had come here to testify against the assassins. Byrd spoke for thirty five minutes this morning and the whole of the afternoon session, consuming in all about four hours a thirty-five minutes.

INQUIRING ABOUT 'PHONE MERGER

Several people inquired yesterday if the action of the citizens meeting on the telephone question finally decided that the Bell was to have a franchise and that the "merger" matter was settled. The mayor and several of the aldermen said, when asked their views on this, that the situation was just as it was after the meeting and that they favored the merger and it was for the aldermen to decide what should be done. They said that they wished to do the best they could for the interests of the city and would be glad to hear any offers from responsible people to operate here at low rates, and would give any such proposition careful consideration. If the merger plan should meet favor the terms are yet to be arranged.

POPE PIUS X FAINTS AT MASS

Over Exertion Causes Collapse of Pontiff

FALLS UNCONSCIOUS IN SISTENE CHAPEL

His Holiness Soon Revives After Receiving Attention

DOCTORS DECLARE THAT POPE CAN'T LIVE SHUT UP IN VATICAN.

Rome, Aug. 11.—Pope Pius X. had a fainting fit this morning while celebrating mass. His holiness soon revived. The Pope has been over-exerting himself to such an extent that his naturally strong constitution was unable to bear the strain put upon it by the coronation ceremonies. Such has been the effect upon his nerves that he has been unable to sleep for whole nights, while numerous receptions yesterday made matters worse. Last night his holiness was much agitated, still he insisted upon being admitted this morning to attend the coronation. They numbered about 300, when the mass began in the Pauline chapel, and the air was vitiated with the temperature above 90 degrees.

LAND BILL UP TO COMMONS

London, Aug. 11.—Prior to the third reading of the land bill the Duke of Devonshire said that while he was unable to forecast the action of the house of commons on the landlord's amendments adopted by the house of lords, he was confident that the bill would be passed in the lower house would not be altogether irreconcilable.

SWELL POOL ROOM RAIDED

New York, Aug. 11.—The alleged pool room conducted by "The Alien," in Sixth avenue, was raided tonight for the eighty-eighth time, according to the count kept by the police. Four hundred men, whites and negroes, were caught in the place, but only four men were placed under arrest. The place was heavily fortified with iron bars at all the doors and windows, but a squad of detectives succeeded in catching the "lookouts" off their guard and dashed through the front door when it was left a trifle open.

MONEY MAKING OPPORTUNITIES WHICH ARE OVERLOOKED

"In answer to an inquiry as to whether or not the agricultural resources of this section of the country were being fully developed, a well known commission merchant of this city stated yesterday afternoon that the people of Western North Carolina are not fully alive to the excellent money-making opportunities offered in the line of agriculture. It is a fact worthy of notice," he said, "that other sections of the state are shipping out large quantities of produce yearly while we are under the necessity of having it shipped to us. We will cite for instance the lamentable fact that during the past season $5,000 worth of beans were shipped here from Michigan to our firm and no one will attempt to deny the statement

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR.
