GOVERNOR SETS DATE FOR HEARING REPORT OF INVESTIGATION

Charges Against Supt. of the State Hospital to Have Another Airing.

MANY CHARGES ARE MADE

(Special to The Citizen.) RALEIGH, March 30.—Governor Glenn has set April 15 as the date for hearing exceptions to the report of the state board of international improvements to the government on its investigation of the charges made against Supt. I. McK. Goodwin of the state hospital for the insane at Morganton. The charges included mismanagement, the application of funds to purposes other than those specified, partially, use of resources of the institution in maintaining the family of the superintendent and a variety of others. The report of Chairman McKewen for the board of international improvement acquitted Superintendent Goodwin of any intentional wrong doing but recommended a number of changes that should be made in the administration of the affairs of the institution. It has been thought since the filing of this report that there was an end of the matter but now comes this application for the filing of exceptions to the findings of the board, these to be heard April 15.

SINCLAIR'S UTOPIAN DREAM SHATTERED

Grace McGowan Cooke, novelist and later a member of the colony founded by Upton Sinclair near Edgewood, N. J., is quoted as saying that the dream of the author of "The Jungle" does not seem practical. Since the destruction by fire of Helicon Hall, where the colonists lived, a great deal of gossip has filtered out into the common world from that center of philosophy and highbrow thinkers. Mrs. Cooke is reported to have said that the various theories of socialistic life held by the thinkers were so conflicting that had not the Hall been destroyed as it was there is every reason to believe that the colony would soon have dissolved.
