Sorrows of Wealth.

I have a little sapphire and diamond "lace" brooch which cost quite a respectable sum. My third husband possesses one of sapphire stones, which might be his twin sister. In the shop windows are yards of lace marked "Two and something more" of the identical design of the nearly priceless brooches put away to adorn some day a certain small daughter's wedding gown. The expensive fur toque I bought last winter had its duplicate in a dyed rabbit skin on the head of my landlady's daughter, Lady K. in London Throne.

The Boss.

A Chinese philosopher has been found in the kitchen of one of our western college presidents, who makes this distinction between the orient and the occident: "In China the men boss the women. In America the women boss the men." "Do I boss President Blank?" inquired Miss President. "No, you no boss him," rejoined the astute Chinaman, "but he do what you anz." - Exchanges.

Smallest Wild Cattle.

Celebes, an island in the Malay archipelago, has the distinction of being the home of the smallest living representative of the wild cattle. An idea of the extremely diminutive proportions of the animal, as the animal in question, which has some of the characteristics of the buffalo, is called, may be gained when it is stated that its height at the shoulder is only three feet and four inches.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by Dr. J. C. Cheney and Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is the best remedy for Catarrh, being directly upon the blood and the mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is sold in bottles and made in Toledo, Ohio, by Dr. J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by druggists. Price, 50c per bottle.

How He Knew.

One Sunday morning recently the pastor of a church in a town of western Massachusetts remarked to his wife upon returning from service:

"Mary, there's a stranger at service this morning."

"What did he look like?" asked the wife.

"I don't know," was the answer, "for I didn't see him."

"Then how do you know he was a stranger?"

"Because I found a dollar in the contribution box," replied the pastor. - Harper's Weekly.
