

SOCIETY

Miss Elsie Alexander gave one of the prettiest parties of the season last evening at the Battery Park hotel. The evening began with a dinner, and the children presented a most charming picture as they sat around the table with their pin-stitched lights overhead and reflected from the candles, each wearing a circularly shaped paper hat that came from the interior of a favor or "snap dragon." In the center of the table were several large pies with paper crust, and from each plate by the pie ran a ribbon, which when pulled was attached to a "snap dragon." At each place was a valentine. After dinner the children played games in the drawing room, which were suggested by Mrs. Davis, the "mistress of ceremonies." Pennies in silver cases were won by the boys and a gold branch by the girls. The guests were: Mary Loring, Carrie Bowles, Helen Loomis, Emily Bourne, Bruce Webb, Diana Alexander, McKenzie Bourne, Mary Wiley, Mary Webster, Gerald Cowan, Elsie Hyde, Edith Honess, Lyndall Alexander, Louise Arhoad, Miriam Reynolds, Sarah Given, Wayne Wrightman, Wilbur Carter, Kathleen Olive, Louise Jackson, Helen Phillips, Stephen McCready, John McCready, Elsie Alexander, Clifford Arhoad, Alma Hawthorne Elsie Brown, Wynne Schretholt, Emily McCready, Dowsy Hunt and Carl Messler.

A heart party was given last evening at Ravenscroft by Mr. and Mrs. William Tyack. The invitations were cleverly gotten up and read as follows: In the words heartily a heart was drawn, a diamond before jubilee, a black club before sandwiches and a spade and hearts. "You are heartily invited to attend the diamond jubilee of St. Valentine on Saturday evening, February 13th, at Ravenscroft. Club sandwiches will be served on a spade by the joker, and the game will be hearts." The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Cummings, Miss McCracken, Mrs. Moody, Miss Tyack, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Gest, Mrs. Klink, Miss Neeshouse, Miss Shaw, Mr. Jennings, Mr. Robert Jennings and Mr. Washoff.

Dr. Gilbert T. Howe will address the vespers service this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Henrietta on South Main street.

The Strollers will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Auditorium.

The Bingham German club will give an informal dance tomorrow afternoon at the Battery Park hotel, which will be largely attended by the younger dancing set.

The Cumberland avenue basketball team defeated the Y. M. C. A. Juniors yesterday afternoon in a game played at the Y. M. C. A. with a score of 16-2. The line-up was Reeves; Rutledge, center; Pierce Gregg, forward; Edward Allen, forward; Allen Williamson, guard; Girard Titch, guard. The star players were Pierce Gregg and Girard Titch. The Y. M. C. A. star player was Cameron Murray.

Mrs. R. J. Tighe entertained informally yesterday afternoon with a five hundred party at her residence on Orange street. The house was attractively decorated with jonquills and ferns. Mrs. Tighe's guests were: Mrs. J. A. Campbell, Mrs. Thomas Rollins, Mrs. J. A. Nichola, Mrs. Park, Mrs. J. T. Sevier, Miss Elizabeth Bernard, Miss Grace Jones, Miss Ralnes, Miss Curtis, Mrs. Frank Weaver, Miss Kate Nichola, Miss Williamson and the Misses Rollins.

A heart party was given yesterday morning by Misses Bertha Tilson and Elizabeth Robinson at 201 Chestnut street. The house was prettily decorated with hearts, which were suspended from the chandeliers and table. The lights were shaded with red, and red and white carnations were used. A salad course and fruit punch was served. The guests were: Misses Margaret Reynolds, Dorothy Snider, Alice Lambertson, Elizabeth Moore, Helen Moore, Julia Bate, Helen Nichols, Mary Carter, Masters Harold Sedberry, Bennett Randolph, Claude Lee George Shuford, Melvin Tilson, Clarence English, Farrar Parker, Horace Robertson, Charles West and George Lambertson.

The Girls' Friendly society will give a valentine social Tuesday evening at the parish house in Atlanta. There will be a fortune telling booth, small zation will be sold, also many varieties and novelties valentine picture puzzles and other made candies. The proceeds will be used by the society for their benevolent work. There is no admission charged, and the public is most cordially invited to attend.

An informal dance was given at the Glenloch hotel Friday evening by Mr. H. J. Peters. There were twenty-five guests. The dances will be given every two weeks.

Late Miss Sarah Grimes gave a delightful party to a number of her young friends at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Grimes, Cumberland avenue, yesterday afternoon. Each little guest received an appropriate valentine from the hostess. After games on the lawn refreshments were served.

Miss Pearl Williams entertained about thirty young people of the Bethel church Epworth league Friday night at a valentine party. "Post-office," "Wheel of Fortune" and other games were the entertainment. The color scheme of the decorations was pink and white.

The announcement of the approaching marriage of Mrs. Maxie Garvey will be of interest to her many friends in Asheville, where she has resided for several years. The wedding invitations are issued by Mr. and Mrs. W. Clyde Hawkins, the sister and brother of the bride, who will be married to Mr. Jack R. Rogers Thursday evening, February 18th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins, 2529 Thirty-second avenue, North Birmingham. Mrs. Garvey was for a time superintendent of the Woman's Exchange and is well known in the city.

The colonial dame in the window of Mrs. Cruise's shop on Haywood street attracted much attention and offered many becoming suggestions for the colonial ball. The waxen figure gives an excellent idea of the way the hair and costume in the worn. The coiffure is powdered and puffed with a few long curls and across the pompadour is a half wreath of roses. The black patches, or beauty spots, are cut in crescent and heart shapes.

The organ recital at All Souls' church this afternoon by Mr. F. F. Harker will be of unusual interest, as the entire program is devoted to Mendelssohn, ending with the well known Wedding March. The program is as follows:

1. Sonata in F Minor, No. 1.... Mendelssohn
 2. Spring Song..... Mendelssohn
 3. Wedding March..... Mendelssohn
- The mixed foursome golf tournament was continued yesterday afternoon at the Country club. There are but two more tournaments to be played before the cup is won. Yesterday's scores were as follows: Dr. Paul H. Ringer and Miss Rita Rees, 67; handicap 12, net 55; Mr. J. A. Birkel and Miss Barker, 74; handicap 14, net 62; Dr. J. H. Lambert and Miss Nan Meade, 71; handicap 8, net 63. The standing to date is: Ladies, Mrs. Charles S. Jordan, 104; Miss Meade, 9; Miss Eleanor Morrison, 2; Mrs. Thompson Fraser, 5; Miss Barker, 4; Miss Hamilton, 3; Mrs. Phillip S. Henry, 3; Mrs. Jamie Sawyer, 2; Mrs. J. A. Birkel, 10; Mr. J. F. THE NEW DRESS COTTONS FOR SPRING

A season of color is coming this year—of color so soft and delicate and beautiful that one marvels at the perfection of the art which has printed the tints on such sheer, floating stuffs.

There is much that is new in them—new attributes of weave and design that big mills have spent a fortune in perfecting. You will be pleased with the new art and cunning which have crept in the manipulation—which make this year's cotton fabrics the prettiest we have ever shown.

February and March are growing to be the Summer dress-making months of the year. Women who love exclusive rare designs of coffons, know they are shown then.

White goods form no small part of the collection and here too, one sees new patterns. Textures varying from light weight muslin and batista to heavy linen suitings.

Light suitings in all colors, double width in heavy weight for tailor made suits. The single width in light weight, in solid colors and in stripes of contrasting colors with heavy shot threads running through.

Solid self color linen, ranging in width from 25 to 35 inches.

French Zeppera, 32 inches wide, in patterns that will resist abrasion.

Scotch Madras for men's and women's shirts, a large number of novel designs.

French Organdy in flower patterns, delicate and effective.

Scotch and French Ginghams 27 to 32 inches wide.

Silk and Cotton Fabrics galore, in heavy and light weight effects.
