Miss Lillian Weaver entertains this week with a violet luncheon given in honor of Miss Willella Ranier who is visiting Mrs. LaJage Gates.

The Yachting club gave a stag theatre party last evening at the Grand opera house to see "The Blue Mouse." The stars included Mr. Heath Carrier, Mr. Jerry Cobb, Mr. E. J. Bernard, Mr. Jean Sawyer, Mr. Joseph Robertson, Mr. Vonno Gudger, Mr. D. K. Millard, Mr. Kendall Northrup, Mr. W. G. Borne, Mr. Nicholas Beaudin, Mr. Walter Taylor, Mr. Charles Folsom, Mr. Theodore Horton, Capt. Jeffrey, Mr. W. A. Baker, and Mr. Redwood.

The Young Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. J. H. Wood, 84 Bartlett street, Monday February 22, at four o'clock.

Mrs. Charles L. Minor entertains with a tea Tuesday afternoon at her avenue.

The program of the organ recital given this afternoon at All Souls' Church, Biltmore, by Mr. F. F. Harkness, will include three well known works of Charles Guonod. The program is as follows:

1. March Solfenelle.....Guonod.
2. Berceuse (Serenade).....Guonod.
3. March Romaine.....Guonod.

It is rumored that a dance will be given during the week by the Yachting club at the club rooms on Pack square.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Rogers arrived yesterday and are spending several days at the Hotel Berkeley. Mrs. Rogers, whose marriage to Mr. Rogers occurred several days ago in Birmingham, Ala., was Mrs. Maxie Garvey and resided in Asheville for several years, where she has many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers leave the middle of the week for Washington, D. C. where they will remain until after the inauguration of President Taft.

The golf tournament, mixed foursome, was continued yesterday afternoon at the country club. Next Saturday afternoon the last tournament will be played in the big tournament, which lasted for a number of weeks and much interest is displayed in the outcome. The scores yesterday were: Dr. G. H. Lambert and Miss Rita Ross, 71—handicap 6—not 65; Dr. and Mrs. Charles S. Jordan, 71—handicap 14—not 65; Mr. J. J. McCloskey and Mrs. Thompson Frazer, 67—handicap 9—not 67.

At Central Methodist church this morning Mr. Burnett Jordan will sing "It Is Enough," from Elsie's. The Anthem "Lift Up Your Heads, O Ye Gates," will also be sung. Mrs. James G. Bickelmeier will sing at the evening service.

Miss Minnie Farris was married to Mr. Wesley Mayfield, in Louisville, Ky., last week, and the announcement of the wedding will be of interest to many friends made by the bride during her several visits to Asheville.

Miss Charlotte Smith gave an informal bridge party for her house guest, Miss Virginia Meyer, of New Orleans, Friday afternoon, at Rosebank cottage.

Mrs. Julius C. Martin gave a small tea the latter part of the week at her home on Liberty street. Mrs. Martin's guests were: Mrs. George J. Hackney, Mrs. S. L. Robertson, Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., Mrs. Eberman, Mrs. J. Walker Moore, Mrs. Marion Wiggins, Owen Smith and Miss Marion Wiggins.

The musical tea which will be given by the members of the Altar Guild of All Souls' church, at Miss Annie Williams' residence, 55 Haywood street, Tuesday afternoon, will be an interesting event of the week, and will undoubtedly be attended by many people. A silver offering will be asked at the door, and the public is most cordially invited to attend. The hours are from four until half past six o'clock. The program will be from four until five, and while tea is being served after that hour, a Victor phonograph concert will be given by Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Swope, Mrs. C. D. Beadles and Miss Annie Williams will receive, and tea and chocolate will be served by Miss Hovee and Miss Anne Martin. The program will include a number of well known people. Those taking part are: Mrs. F. P. Harkey, Mrs. James G. Bickelmeier, Miss May Kimberly, Mrs. J. Vaughn Merriman, Miss May Thayer, Miss Minnie Westfall, Miss Ida Hamilton, Dr. Paul Ringer and Mr. Burnette Jordan.

The appearance of Mrs. Ellen Beach Yaw at the Auditorium next Tuesday evening will be one of the chief topics of interest during the week. Mrs. Yaw's remarkable voice has gained the singer fame in many lands and even the unusual marvel at the piccolo notes almost an octave higher than any living singer, and even several tones higher than the only singer, an Italian of the nineteenth century, who has come down in the history of music. The forthcoming concert has aroused unusual interest among music lovers of Asheville, and a good sized audience is expected according to the lists.

At the Woman's Exchange, the latter part of the week, an informal tea party was given by nineteen of the teachers of the Normal Collegiate.

The Wranglers meet tomorrow evening at the Manor. After the usual dinner, Mr. John H. Hunter will read a paper entitled, "Are We Facing National Disolution?" The respondent will be Mr. George Wright.

Mrs. Robert S. Carroll entertains informally, Monday afternoon.

The Thursday Bridge Club met this week at the residence of Mrs. George Calvert.

The Strollers meeting is postponed until a later date, which will be announced duly.

Miss Staley will lead the services this afternoon at the Henrietta on South Main street. The services begin at four o'clock.

The ladies' singles golf tournament, which has been played for several weeks at the Country club will not be finished, Miss Ethel Reeves having won sufficient number of points to place her too far ahead of the contestants for the others to catch up. The silver violet case offered by Mr. Tench Cox, goes to Miss Reeves. A second trophy will be presented by Dr. G. H. Lambert. At the mixed foursome tournament yesterday afternoon, Mrs. J. B. Penton served tea, and a great number of members were present.

The colonial ball tomorrow evening at the Battery Park hotel will be one of the most picturesque and important social affairs of the winter. The ball room will be draped with the national emblem, and the picture of George and Martha Washington will be seen in the place of honor at the end of the room. The colonial dames and damsels in their handsome gowns and powdered coiffure will dance the Virginia reel at ten o'clock, at the end of which the small half mask will be removed. Miss Willella Ranier, of Union Springs, Ala., and Robt. E. Reynolds will lead the Virginia reel. Miss Ranier is the guest of Miss Lalage Oates, and is one of the most popular belles of Alabama. The reel will be led from each end by the second leaders to be selected by Miss Ranier and Mr. Reynolds. Maryland Dixie, a number of old fashioned airs ending with the Star Spangled Banner, will be sung while the masks are removed. The dance begins at nine o'clock. The orchestra will furnish the music. Mr. J. L. Alexander of the Battery Park hotel, received a great many requests yesterday for cards of admission, by visitors who are desirous of visiting the ball.

The meeting of the Woman's Club will not be held Monday afternoon as planned, but will be postponed until March 8. The place to be announced later.

An interesting musical was given at the Methodist Protestant cottage Thursday evening, by Miss Jessie Rowe Williams. Miss Williams' guests were: Misses Simpson of Statesville, Anderson, Carter, Eller, Camp, Byson, Hackney, Young, Pugh Gibbs, Staples, Swain, Dellinger, Vinton and Jessie Stephens, Whallon, Blake and Roberts, Messrs. Bridges, Carter, Swain, Austin, Norman, Anderson, Weaver, Lewis, Pickett, Longitt, Edwards, Dellinger, Rickman, Reed, McIntyre, Greench, Shehan, Dr. and Mrs. Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Rice, Mr.

Some New Things in Our Ready-to-Wear Department

During the last week we have received numerous shipments of pretty things for our Ready-to-Wear Department. Our buyer has just returned from New York, where he purchased some of the newest and most up-to-date goods of this line ever seen in Asheville. Last Fall we did the biggest business in this line that we have ever done and our satisfied customers may be counted by the hundreds. This Spring we have to offer them the prettiest Spring line of ready-to-wear garments ever shown in the store.

We don't ask you to buy these goods on past records, but because they are neat and pretty, well made and reasonably priced; because you can look far and wide and you will seldom see such a selection of beautiful colorings and exceptionally tailored garments.

Most of our Suits are in and are selling well, but others are arriving every day to take the place of the ones that are purchased. Three of the leading shades our suits come in are Mulberry, Wisteria and Old Rose. We have other colors, including Peacock blue, navy blue, gray, etc. They are priced at $15.00, $17.50, $20.00 on up.

Our Silk Dresses are indeed beautiful. Every one who has seen them has expressed their approval of them. The way they fit is in itself remarkable; almost all we have sold did not need alterations, although we cheerfully make alterations when necessary. They are made in the Princess front and Empire back, that is, long front and short back, the newest models Dame Fashion has decreed. We carry Foulard, Messaline and Rajah Silk Dresses at prices ranging from $17.50 on up.

We have just received a line of Rubberized Rain Coats priced at $12.50 on up. Black and colored Silk Underskirts are priced at $4.00 each. Gingham underskirts, all colors, 59c to $1.50 each.
