Mrs. William Hudson will entertain informally with bridge Friday afternoon at the residence on Chestnut street in honor of Miss Riddle and Mrs. McGirk of Philadelphia, Pa.

It has been decided to have a second Purim ball shortly in order that the great number of people who purchased tickets and were unable to attend on account of the torrent of rain and the general gloom in which the city was enshrouded, due to the lack of electricity for several hours, may have an opportunity of attending under better circumstances. The date will be announced later. The credit of the excellent music played at the ball Tuesday evening was given by error to Webster's orchestra instead of Buehley's orchestra, which will again be heard at the next ball.

Mrs. George Brown and Miss Jessie Piper have opened a millinery shop at 58 Patton avenue.

A match team of golf was played yesterday afternoon at the Country club with interesting results. There were no prizes. The score was as follows: Miss Margaret Morris, Miss Ellen Barker, and Mrs. Robertson, 21; Mrs. Thompson Fraser, Miss Charlotte Smith and Miss Frederika Brown, 25; Miss Reeve, Miss Eleanor Morrison, and Miss Alice Brown, 28; Miss Rita Reed, Mrs. Charles S. Jordan and Miss Annie Williams, 30.

The Ladies Aid society of the Christian church will hold a sale Saturday morning at Noland Grocery store on Pack square. A variety of cases will be sold at reasonable prices.

The opening ball and the annual german which will be given by the Battery Park hotel and which have been for a number of years the two largest balls of the year, will be especially beautiful this season, and Mr. J. L. Alexander has already planned the unique decorations for the occasion which will be on a scale seldom attempted except in some of the large hostleries in Florida and New York. The dining hall is always used on these occasions and will be an agreeable surprise to the expectant guests. A large force of workmen will be engaged several days in decorating the dining hall under the direction of Mr. Alexander, and the result will surpass anything that has been attempted on that order at the Battery Park for some time.

Miss Nan Killian sang at the missionary meeting held at the Presbyterian church yesterday.

The Woman's guild of Trinity church will meet at the residence of Mrs. McFerrer on Panola street this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The marriage ceremony was witnessed by only a few of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties and was performed by Rev. Mr. Boyd at his home. Mrs. Rominger is a sister of Mrs. I. I. Brookshire and Mrs. H. Miller of this city, and has many friends in Asheville and throughout the county. The young couple will make their future home in Washington.

The engagement of Miss Rosa Eleanor Fries to Mr. Richard F. Willingham of Macon, Ga., has been announced by the parents of the bride-elect, Colonel and Mrs. Frank H. Fries, in Winston-Salem and will be of interest to the many friends of the family in Asheville. Miss Eleanor Morrison has frequently entertained Miss Fries, and was the guest of Col. and Mrs. Fries on a several weeks tour of the west which they made in their private car in the summer. The following interesting account is taken from The Winston-Salem Journal: "One of the most picturesque affairs of the season was given yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the beautiful residence of Col. and Mrs. Frank H. Fries, when at a lovely rose luncheon, the very interesting announcement was made of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Rosa Eleanor Fries, to Mr. Richard F. Willingham, of Macon, Ga.

The magnificent dining room was brilliant in its decoration of long-stemmed pink roses and smilax. At the four corners of the long dining table, small circular tables were arranged, and on each was placed a lovely silver loving-cup filled with pink bride's roses; an exquisite lace centerpiece embroidered with pink roses, extended the length of the long center table, and on this rested the largest of the silver loving cups, upon a table mirror, which reflected the great bouquet of bride's roses which filled the cup. Silver candelabra holding pink candles, shaded with silver filigree shades over pink, were placed on either end of the table, while long-stemmed brides' maid roses in pink were gracefully scattered over this lovely luncheon table.

"Dainty luncheon cards handsomely painted, designated the places of the guests. These pretty cards were in the shape of two hearts joined by a pink rose; on one was inscribed the name of the guest, while the other bore the monogram, "F. W." in silver.

Seven beautifully appointed courses were served; in each one hearts appeared, thus suggesting the sentiment of the pretty affair. The ices were white bricks with pink hearts in the center, while the cakes were also heart-shaped, white-tipped with orange blossoms, and bearing the monogram "F. W." in green.

"After the first course, Miss Marguerite Fries brought in a silver loving cup, and presented it to Miss Ruth Slowers, who rose and in a few graceful words, announced the engagement of her cousin, Miss Eleanor Fries, to Mr. Richard F. Willingham of Macon, Ga., and then the cup was passed to the guests, each of whom toasted Miss Fries and Mr. Willingham.

"A very pretty incident occurred here, when a dainty dish filled with orange blossoms was presented to Miss Fries from her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Hanson. Lovely strains of music were heard issuing from the blossoms, for the dish was a music box, thus cunningly devised, and brought from Europe.

"When the coffee was served each guest was presented with a lovely white satin box decorated with a spray of orange blossoms. These dainty souvenirs were filled with tiny silver horseshoes, which the guests showered upon the happy young hostesses."

Miss Sue Bell Corcoran was entertained at her home on Haywood street with a surprise party yesterday afternoon. A number of games were played during the afternoon and refreshments were served. Those present were Miss Mary Stevens, Miss Mary Smathers, Miss May Corcoran, Miss Eleanor Perkinson, Miss Alma Badger, Miss Alma Bostic, Miss Evelyn Rickman, Miss Margaret Doane, Miss Ethel Sorrells, Miss Gertrude Engle, Miss Gladys Cowgill, Miss Beulah Corcoran, Masters Claude Young, Paul Smathers, Terbert Stone, Rupert and Alexander Crowell.

Miss Emma Gudger will sail from Panama April 2nd and after a ten day's stay in New York will return to Asheville. Miss Gudger has been in Panama all winter with her parents.

The cup for the highest score in the Albemarle bowling tournament, which has lasted five weeks, was won last night by Mr. A. H. Malone. The following scores were made last night: Mr. A. H. Malone, 163-144-157, h. 39; total 100.
Mr. J. A. Burckel, 157-119-162, h. 39; total 468.
D. J. A. Cooke, 139-148-143, h. 39; total 460.
Mr. W. O. Roger, 123-137-119, h. 75; total 454.
Mr. W. A. Kinzel, 115-90-134, h. 75; total 414.
Mr. L. Raoul, 105-108-104, h. 60; total 367.

The choir of Central Methodist church enjoyed a tea yesterday afternoon which followed the usual choir practice. The choir will have a similar tea once a month hereafter, each member in turn being hostess and will be an impromptu musical program will be given. Miss Robin Kennell who sang so charmingly at the School of Music earlier in the afternoon, gave several numbers which were appreciated by those present.

The Thursday bridge club meets this afternoon with Mrs. W. H. Penland at her residence on College street.

The public recital yesterday afternoon at the Asheville School of Music and Dramatic Art was very enjoyable and well attended, every available seat being occupied. Miss Lydia Hinsland and Miss Robin made their debut and acquitted themselves unusually well. Miss Hinsland has a high soprano voice of sweetness and purity of tone and in "My Noble Knights" easily took the high C and F in a cadenza. Miss Hinsland's voice is one of promise. Miss Robin Kennell sang "If I Were a Rose," by D'Essenell, charmingly and displayed a warm soprano voice of unusual strength and beauty.

Handie played Handel's "Polonaise in F" well and was one of the favorites of the afternoon. Miss Viola Ownbey played two pieces designated as tone pictures by Hoffman, with discretion and artistic feeling. Little Miss Margaret Millender played "Scenes de Ballet" by De Beriot and showed exceptional aptitude for the violin, although the number was difficult for one so young to attempt. Miss Millender played well. Rubenstein's well known "Melody in F," was interpreted by Mr. Herbert Rickman in a manner that brought forth unstinted applause. Mr. Wilbur Sumner played "La Cascade" by Pauer beautifully, and it gave him ample scope to display his undeniable talent. Miss Willie Carter delicately played Hoffman's "Berceuse" with good tone and was warmly encored. The recital was very enjoyable. Miss Ruth Radeker accompanied several of Mr. Connell's violin pupils in her usual good style.
