

SOCIETY

The flower sellers who usually congregate on the street corners appeared yesterday with the first spring flowers. The fragrance of the delicate pink arbutus was wafted to the passerby few of whom could resist buying the first tokens of spring. Galax leaves blended softly with the arbutus and the one or two little wild flowers in the baskets, which were wreathed with the leaves of the variegated leaved of the wild geranium. It will soon be time for the mountain laurel with its mass of pink flowers and coral buds which line the river banks and a little later give way to the rhododendron. The flowers are waking up after their long winter's sleep.

The semi-finals will be played this afternoon in the tennis tournament which is running at the Country club. Dr. and Mrs. Charles S. Jordan play today against Mrs. R. P. Johnston and Mr. J. A. Winn, and the winners will play against Miss Marion Martin and Dr. Jere Cooke Saturday afternoon for the cup which is offered by the Country club. Next week a ladies singles tournament will be played for a cup presented by Mrs. J. B. Fenton and Mrs. A. H. Harvey.

The Junior Auxiliary of Trinity church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Elizabeth Miller on Montford avenue and held an unusually interesting meeting. The members of the auxiliary are dressing two dolls which are to be sent to Alaska to the Esquimaux children at the mission. The dolls are intended for Christmas, but must be sent in June while the ice is broken. By Christmas time the trail is impassable and the mission is cut off for many months from outside communication. Dolls were requested by the Esquimaux and each Junior Auxiliary has been asked to dress one doll to send them. After the sewing was finished for the afternoon refreshments were served.

Mrs. H. Taylor Rogers asked the Current Literary club to have tea informally with her and to meet Miss Laura Winn, who is visiting Mrs. Rogers, Tuesday afternoon after the regular meeting of the club.

The next meeting of the Woman's club will be held at the residence of Mrs. Zebulon Vance, Monday week. Papers will be read by Mrs. P. H. Winston and Miss Ida Hamilton on Japanese painting and art.

The vocal students of Mr. Burnett Jordan are to have phonographic records made Saturday morning at the Asheville School of Music and Dramatic Art which will be used in their studies to observe defects in singing and also to note progress. Twelve records will be made tomorrow. The cylinder is put on the machine and the singer sings directly into the trumpet and the song is recorded and can be played immediately after the singer has finished the song. Miss Mae Kimberly will play for the students, about a dozen of whom will sing into the phonograph.

The Jenny Wren club meets this afternoon at the residence of little Miss Carrie Bowles.

There will be played this evening at the Battery Park hotel a large bridge contest and nearly all of the tables in the drawing room are occupied. The players will include a number of guests of the hotel and their friends in the city. The prizes are handsome and the playing will be close as quite a number of excellent bridge players are entered. There will be served small dinner parties prior to the game this evening and a number of people will go up for the usual concert in the palm room.

Mrs. Percy Whitaker is being entertained frequently in an informal way by her numerous friends in the city with luncheon, teas and card parties. Miss Nell O'Brien arrives from New York today and will be the guest of Mrs. C. B. McQueen, whom Mrs. Whitaker is visiting, on Cumberland avenue.

According to a dispatch to The New York Herald, Miss Ethel Barrymore will be married on Sunday in Boston, to Mr. Russell Grosvenor Colt, eldest son of Col. Samuel Pomeroy Colt, president of the United States Rubber company and the Industrial Trust company of Providence, R. I. It is said that the only person who has been let into the secret is the father of the intended bridegroom, who is much pleased with the match and has announced his intention of making a large settlement on his son. Col. Colt is reported to be worth several million dollars. Russell Grosvenor Colt is twenty-six years old. Miss Barrymore is playing in Boston, and is said to continue on the stage after her marriage. Miss Barrymore has been engaged to several well known men according to rumor, the first of which was the engagement to Mr. Lawrence Irving, son of Sir Henry Irving. Gerald DuMaurier, son of the famous author of Trilby, was also said to have been engaged to Miss Barrymore. There were several other prominent suitors but until this time Miss Barrymore has not married. Her friends will await the announcement next Sunday with interest, as she is exceedingly popular and likeable both on and off the stage.

Trinity church choir began the study of Strainer's Cantata "The Daughter of Jarius" last evening. The cantata will be rendered shortly after Easter at a special service in the church. The cantata is under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Kimberly and some of the best voices in the city will take part in it. The first rehearsal was held last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Farrior and family left yesterday for Atlanta which will be their future home. Mr. Fred Farrior has been a member of the Takkeostee club and was very popular among the younger set.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dunham will entertain the stewards of Haywood Street church tonight at their residence at 224 Patton avenue.

BOTH SHIPS TURNED OVER TO WRECKERS
(By Associated Press.)

CHATHAM, Mass., March 11.—The steamer Horatio Hall, which was sunk to her hurricane deck in Pollock Rip Slue, in the collision with the steamer or H. F. Dimok yesterday, was abandoned to the wreckers early today and another fleet of professional sea physicians assembled about the stranded steamer Dimok on Nauset Beach, to patch her wounds and give her another chance for a useful life. The Hall was abandoned by Captain Lowell, his mate, pilot and two members of the crew early today, after all hands had remained on board the boat for nearly twenty-four hours after her sinking. The tug John G. Chandler took them off in the early morning hours.

OUR NEW SPRING TAILORED SUITS
Are Distinctly Exclusive in Color, Trim, and Form.
That is the strongest point we make next to quality. It means that you will not see every Mary Ann in Christendom with suits like, or so nearly like, your own as to cheapen your expensive suit and dull your pleasure in it. Next season copies of it will appear; this season never, because Moore's suits are exclusive;—the latest product of style creators not vulgar imitators.
Women who like to appear "different" and exclusive in their apparel trust their dress requirements to Moore. Come in to see the new Spring Suits.
