

SOCIETY

There were not too many nominations for the show, which the office closed last evening with lists not yet named. But when a name state will be played before the last close on Thursday night all the shows are from private stables. The fine showmen from the horse show of the city are qualified from fifty to seventy-five entries, and the outfit town arrivals will still further swell the number into one of the biggest and best shows Asheville has yet seen.

Among the entries made are "Hex" and "Rajah," by Mrs. Annie Bester Doyle; "Primrose" and "Hazel," by Miss Mary P. Howard; "Mary," by Miss Katherine Grant; "Midget," by Miss Mary Virginia Erwin; "Nellie," by Miss Mary Hamilton; "Crickle," by Miss Alys Hendricks; "Gold Dust," by Mrs. Connelly Cox; "Handsome Dan," by W. Granville Taylor; "Doctor V," by Mrs. Gray Green; "T. D.," by Mrs. Harry C. Theobald; "Ade-laide," "Roderick," "Haven," "Hi-watha," "Nancy Hanks" and "Star Spot," by Philip S. Henry; "Daisy" and "Lucy," by Morris Meyers; "Zoo," by V. Beurer Bostick; "Frank" and "Lena," by Tench C. Cox; "Diamond Squirrel" and "Lady D.," by J. H. Jordan, of Hendersonville; "Charles Heard" and "Gordon Forbes," by Dr. J. A. Burroughs; "Tatters," by Tench Francis Cox.

Letters received by the secretary from Greenville, Greer and Spartanburg, S. C., state that entries from those points will be in Wednesday's mails.

The tournament list for an interesting event of Wednesday afternoon, includes among the names of the Baltimore winners, H. C. Johnson, G. A. Schuler, R. E. Nash, D. R. McKee, Jr., H. Jones, L. Pratt, W. H. Eucher, P. Gerhart, H. Black, J. H. Peterson, G. W. Whittington, R. G. Merritt, E. Clarke, G. W. Burtis, C. Dunning and T. Sullivan.

The Asheville fellows who are down to ride in the tournament are V. B. Bostick, H. C. Theobald, Mr. Hert-zog, Porter Webb, Harry Wilson and Mr. Brennerman.

Many of the foresters will enter in the 14.2 pony class.

The trophy selections made by generous patrons of the show form an interesting exhibit of handsome cups in the show window of the Arthur M. Field company.

The directors of the association will place the various cup donations at their meeting to be held on Friday.

Mrs. Beekman Lorillard will come from Washington on Thursday to visit her mother, Mrs. A. B. Doyle, at Hillcote, Victoria road. Mrs. Lorillard is an enthusiastic lover of the Asheville horse show; her riding and driving here have always featured the ring with interest and her return will have sincere welcome at the functions of next week.

The Takkeetee club gave its Easter dance last evening at the club rooms on Pack square and there was a good attendance. A buffet supper was served during the evening also fruit punch. Connell's orchestra supplied the music. Among those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. James Nichols, Mrs. James Green Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Heath Carrier, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Alexander, Mrs. Margaret Wards-worth, Miss Virginia Griffith Miller, Miss Jessie and Miss Mary Stike-waether, Miss Bettie Siles, Miss Eleanor Lambertson, Miss Alice Drummond, Miss Rebecca Cushman, Miss Sarah Jones, Miss Pauline Paquin, Miss A-lislaide Loughran, Miss Frederika Brown, Miss Margaret Merriwether, Miss Alice Hazard, Miss Beaumont Hazard, Miss Frances Dufour, Miss Mary Nichols, Miss Lillian Adams, Miss May Bernard, Miss Helen Cefalu, Miss Mead, Miss Georgia Dennis, Miss Catherine Cartmell, Miss Lillian Weaver, Miss Lorraine Oates, Miss Tuxbury of Buffalo, N. Y., Mr. John Aese, Mr. S. G. Bernard, Mr. F. R. Baker, Mr. P. D. Cobb, Mr. Yonno Gudger, Mr. John Hobson, Mr. Jefferson, Mr. Meyers, Mr. Mulligan, Mr. Kendall Northrup, Mr. Eugene Sawyer, Capt. Rice, Mr. Bert Nichols, Mr. Paul Eaves, Mr. J. B. Anderson, Mr. Charles Fol-som, Mr. Roy Wagner, Mr. Tim Cooke, Mr. Albert Mustin, Mr. Basil Valen-tine, Mr. Dulois Rees, Mr. Harold Johnston, Mr. Theodore Holston, Mr. Harold Swope, Mr. Ward Gregg, Mr. Davis, Mr. Harry Theobald, Mr. H. B. Sedberry and Mr. Nathan Cartmell.

The regular weekly bowling tournament will be held at the Albemarle club this evening at 8 o'clock. The highest six averages in this series of tournaments will be qualified to enter the club championship tournament, for which a hand some gold medal is annually presented to the season's champion. The competition is keen for these six positions about 8 or 9 bowlers leading closely.

Rev. James Cantine, missionary to Arabia held services at the county home Sunday afternoon and the East-er service was especially appreciated by the inmates who seldom have an opportunity of hearing an interesting speaker as Mr. Cantine. The hymns were sung with a will and evident enjoyment. Mrs. C. E. Waddell has sent yarn which will be used for knitting and the number of cotton pieces contributed by Mr. Fred Cone will be made into patch work quilts, magazines and periodicals, even if a month or two old, would give a great deal of pleasure. The Associated Charities have been tendered the use of carriages by the livery stables to convey sick patients to the hospital and for emergency cases.

The Asheville Poultry and Pet Stock show will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at the city hall at 8 o'clock.

Major General Albert J. Stobart of St. Paul, Minn., commanding the uniform rank, K. of P., will be the guest of honor at a smoker and reception, given this evening at the Battery Park hotel at 8.30, to which every Pythian of Asheville is cordially invited to attend. An interesting evening is promised and a large attendance is expected. Refreshments will be served during the smoker.

Miss Elizabeth Lee entertains with a luncheon today for Miss Lucy Redwood and her bridesmaids at her home on Cumberland avenue. Mrs. Joseph E. Meares gives an informal tea this afternoon, also for Miss Redwood, her maids and several girl friends of Miss Redwood.

Mr. Burnette Jordan has discontinued his teaching at the Asheville School of Music and Dramatic Art, and will re-appear May 2nd. Mr. Jordan will probably go out of town for a fortnight during his vacation.

The Greenville horse show will be given a month hence and will no doubt draw a number of exhibitors from Asheville. There was a fair ex-change last year, a number of Green-ville horses were shown at Riverside and later at their show Asheville was well represented. Mrs. Arthur Man-lice and Mrs. Conally Cox were among the favorites at the Green-ville show and their entries personally exhibited were loudly acclaimed. Mrs. Manlice and Mrs. Cox at the time promised trophies for this season's meet, and the cups will be selected this week in Asheville and sent to the association, according to a com-mission of the donors.

The April showers seem to have put a very decided stop to our sports, and golf and tennis have suffered considerably lately. The horse show is occupying most of the atten-tion and time of every one at present, and with so many gowns to be made, etc., the links and court have been practically deserted by the women. Nothing has been announced so far for this week at the Country club and the Battery Park tennis tourna-ment has been postponed on account of the weather, and probably will not be continued until after the horse show. The horse show hall at the Battery Park hotel the second day of the show will be a fitting climax to the two days equine exhibition. The hall room will be gaily decorated with the association colors, blue and white, and posters of the show, saddle, whip, coach trumpets, bridles, etc., will be effectively arranged in a very appropriate decoration. A buffet supper and punch will be served. There will be a great many visitors in the city and a number of extra in-stitutions have been sent out to the visitors, which, added to the usual list will test the capacity of the hall room. The hall will be one of the most rep-resentative of the season and will more nearly resemble in point of at-tendance the annual German and opening ball, than any other of the year. The ball is given under the Grand People in London in 1806. "I came to town on Wednesday and intended to go to the Ancient Music; made a Bungo about my Ticket; it was too late to get it. The Drawing Room was the object yesterday. They made a mistake in my Dress. It was not deep enough for my Mourning, and the glass of my Sedan Chair was not mended. Looked at my Lodgings; found them Abominable. I walked all over the Town till I was, Lord, how tired! Looked in upon the Duchess of Gordon while she took off her Hoop to Dine with the Bedfords."

This was Jane, duchess of Gordon, who rode down the High street of Ed-inburgh on a pig's back in the days of her wild girthhood and raised recruits for the new highland regiment when other means had failed by allowing each man to take the shilling from between her lips. Hoops were de rigueur for court dress until the days of George IV, although in private life the ladies' skirts had been growing more and more scanty since the days of the French revolution.—From "John Hook-ham Frere and His Friends," by Gabri-elle Peating.

Winning a Violin. The way M. Ysaie, the great violinist, became the owner of a Guarnerius violin dated 1742 was thus quaintly told by himself: "The Guarnerius was bought in Par-

COLOR WORDS.

Red Seems to Be the Favorite With Most of the Great Writers.

Upon tabulating the words used by Shakespeare referring to colors it is revealed that out of every hundred color words thirty may be classed as red. Next follow twenty two white, twenty black, seventeen yellow, seven green and only four blue. Thus Shake-speare's favorite color word was red, and investigation will show that this is the characteristic color of nearly all great writers. For instance, it is the color word most often employed by Tennyson.

In all great works of human interest red predominates, as it is the color of the very strongest of our passions and impulses—the color of hot blood. There is no color so warm, so full of joy and life, so overflowing with vitality.

Red is the color of glowing iron—of heat and passion. In nature red insures the growth of trees, while at the same time it quickens all rotting and decay. Plants grow under red glass will grow four times as quickly as under white light, and grow to four times their usual height.

Red in excess has an evil effect. For example, an excess of red light makes one irritable and nervous. In excess red produces homicidal mania—the de-sire to kill. The effect of red upon various animals is well known, it hav-ing the power of enraging the bull, the tiger and the turkey.—London Scraps.

ONE BUSINESS REFORM.

Brought About by Frank Statements From Former Employees.

If the manager of a business institu-tion knew all that his employees know about the details of the business many things would be different. The manager of a large mercantile house recently conceived the idea of writing a personal letter to every employee who had left the house during the last five years, inviting a frank statement of the reason for leaving. The former employees, now expecting neither cen-sure nor favor, were very frank and explicit and, as a rule, wrote letters that could not fail to command re-spectful attention. One man told how hard he had worked to support his mother and how, when he asked for an increase, he was shifted back and forth between different superiors for several weeks without having his re-quest rejected or acceded to and he grew tired and sought another pos-tion. Another told of the impositions of the department manager and of his inability to get relief from a nagging disposition which was taking the heart out of hundreds of other men in his department. Many points of ob-vious mismanagement were brought to light which had virtually driven away good men who had been educated to the business. The manager has been busy ever since instituting reforms based upon the information he re-ceived.—Collier's Weekly.
