of friends of Moss Marcan acca Ma Holmes journeyed up the fortunes, fectively transformed the room into bettal bower of domes-to man and erab apple blossoms. The mx riage service was impresently rent by Dr. Rodney Rush Swipe: Miss Martin was charmlesty accayed in a dainty lingerie gown, a fulle veil sur-pended from a coronet of ocunge parent halo. She carried a shown becoming sufaction for her has become bouquet of bride's roses and maiden wedding goan. hair fern. Miss Julia Penniman was the maid of honor and only attendant, and wore a becoming frock of white musilin and lace, with a such of soft mauve eatin, and carried a large bouquet of heliotrope and maidenhair fern. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. James Green Martin. Mr. Harold Swope was best man. Miss Annie Williams played both wedding marches, and during the ceremony softly played an appropriate melody. A buffet luncheon was served after the ceremony. In cutting the bride's cake. the thimble was found by Miss Julia

Penniman, and the ring by Miss The-rese Chapman. The bridal bouquet was caught by Miss Helen Cefalu. which was thrown by Mrs. Holmes as she departed to change her fruck. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes drove into old shoes, and will spend their honeya fortnight's horseback trip through the Sapphire country, after ch they will occupy a cottage in wors. La Reine Corsets are Very Popular

When a corset is enjoying excessive popularity in New York city it may be regarded as settled that it is a good corset. A well fitting corset, a tastefully trimmed corset, a corset strictly a la mode. Most dressy women at this moment are demanding straight back, sheath hip corsets. The La Reine just now is enjoying great vogue in that great city, and on that one ground it would be entitled to consideration without the additional statement from us that it compares favorably with any corset we ever saw.
