FATHER CALLED TO PROVE INSANITY OF CAPTAIN HAINS

Gen. Hains on Stand Relates Incidents of Early Boyhood And Events Preceding Tragedy.

(By Associated Press.) FLUSHING, N. Y., April 29.—An affecting scene was presented today at the trial of Captain Peter C. Hains Jr., when General Hains, retired, the aged father of the defendant, related with suppressed emotion, the incidents of his son's life from boyhood to the time, when, driven to madness by his wife's alleged infidelity, he shot down the man who, the defense contends, was the cause of it.

Beginning with the boy's tendency to nightmares and general excitability during his earlier years, the old general traced his career through the campaigns of the Spanish-American war when he fought under his father in Porto Rico and was always "in the way on the firing line."

During the Porto Rican campaign, the captain, then a lieutenant of artillery, was a member of his command, the general said, and they all suffered excessively from the sultry and bad climate of the island.

MAGNANIMOUS ACT STIRS THE SPLEEN OF OHIO MEMBER

Objects to Portrait of Davis on Gift to Battleship Mississippi HUMILIATING TO OFFICERS AND MEN Would Retaliate on Southern Senator For Questioning 14th. Amendment.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, April 29.—A resolution calling upon the secretary of the navy for information relating to the report that the state of Mississippi is preparing to present to the battleship Mississippi an elaborate silver service, the centerpiece of which is to be decorated with an engraved portrait of Jefferson Davis, has been prepared by Representative Hollingsworth of Ohio. He had intended to present it in the house today but was dissuaded from so doing.

It follows the line, although in contrary direction, of the one introduced by Senator Money, of Mississippi, March 29, in which he seeks to revive memories by requiring the Attorney-General to file in the supreme court of the constitution of the United States. He challenges directly the official records and integrity of the government and the separate states in the adoption of that amendment. He seeks to revive the unhappy discussions and issues of the reconstruction period. At the same time his states and his people seem to think it quite the thing to place the portrait of President Davis of the southern Confederacy, instead of that of President Lincoln of blessed memory, on the dining service of a United States battleship for use at all
