

SOCIETY

Miss Kathleen Chandler was elected president of the society. The first meeting of the society was held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary C. Hinton.

Mrs. Frank M. Weaver has been visiting in Chattanooga for several weeks. She has been extremely entertained during her stay. The following are from the Chattanooga News: "Mrs. Jewel Hiltzinger entertained with a luncheon at the Golf and Country club Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Frank M. Weaver of Asheville, N. C., who is her guest this week. A large table, 50-1/2 inches with Easter lilies formed the centerpiece of the table and a smaller basket of the same pretty flowers adorned each end. The place cards were scenes of the Golf and Country club and the favors were tiny little raffia baskets filled with mints. During the afternoon bridge was played at four tables. Mrs. Frank M. Weaver of Asheville, N. C., who is Miss Alice Stafford's guest, is the honoree of Mrs. A. C. Williamson's luncheon today. The luncheon table was daintily decorated, spring flowers and lilies of the valley being used. Flowers were also used as place favors. Covers were laid for ten."

A program of folklore stories was presented at the School of Expression, Boston, on Saturday, April 21, in which Miss Allie Byner of Asheville chose for her selection a story from the German folklore, "The Origin of the Flax," which she told with charming appreciation of her subject and understanding of its literary beauty. The closing exercises of the School of Expression begin a series of recitals which continue through April and May, these recitals giving ample opportunity for the more proficient pupils to appear a number of times in public performances.

There will be an organ recital this afternoon at All Souls' church, Biltmore, given by Mr. F. F. Harker. The following is the program: Fantasia Dramatique... Mally (a) Die Fraue... Wolstenholme (b) Die Antwort... Mendelssohn Wedding March... Mendelssohn.

The silver anniversary of the Flower Mission and Associated Charities apparently will be a very successful celebration and everyone seems to be taking interest in Founders' day, which is next Wednesday. A special invitation is extended to those who are still in Asheville who were among the founders twenty-five years ago, and it is hoped that they will attend the tea at the Battery Park hotel Wednesday afternoon, from 4:30 until 7 o'clock. There will be candy, flower booths and music, and the afternoon will be full of interest and entertainment for those who attend. Tea will be served by Mrs. J. H. Martin and Mrs. M. Dunn McKee will serve lemonade. Mrs. J. A. Burroughs and Mrs. Charles Penniman assisted by a corps of young ladies will sell flowers. There will be cut flowers and samples of bedding flowers for sale. Orders will be taken for the latter and the flowers will be delivered free of charge. The florists have allowed a large percentage on all sales and those who have gardens will no doubt take advantage of this excellent opportunity. The girls who will assist are Miss Margaret Penniman, Miss Lucy Penniman, Miss Lucille Hastings, Miss Helen Cefalu, Miss Frances Range, Miss Helen Chapman and a number of others. Mrs. C. E. Waddell and Mrs. Charles Penniman have charge of the decorations. The music will be supplied by one of the best Victor machines and a number of the latest grand opera artists will be heard in selections from the well known operas. The new candy shop of Rogers and Stout on Patton avenue will have its formal opening Wednesday, and the proprietors have offered a large percentage of the sales to the charities. Flowers for bedding will also be sold there and at Kanda's on Pack square. The tea will be given at the Battery Park hotel and the public is most cordially invited to attend.

Yesterday afternoon the qualifying round for the cups offered by Mr. E. W. W. Graham and by the Asheville Country club took place on the club links. Owing to the no-for the entertainment of Mother DePlanck and the sisters. The boarders were also invited to attend, and the juniors will repeat this very successful performance of the juvenile play Monday afternoon for the benefit of the day pupils who were not present Friday evening. The play which was very cleverly given and costumed, was preceded by a short program of fancy dances, songs and recitations, and commenced at five o'clock in the afternoon. At seven the guests were invited by the juniors to a supper. The decorations, cakes, etc., had been prepared by them, and after supper the children danced and played games until ten o'clock. The programs were beautifully designed, the double cover being ornamented with flowers and flowers, etc., in water colors and lettered in gold, a latin inscription appearing in one corner. The program was delightful and the juniors acquitted themselves quite coming up to the mark of excellence set by the senior classes at the plays given by them during the winter.

The Amateur Musical club will meet Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Manor hall room. Previous to the rehearsal, Mr. Burnett Jordan will give a short discourse on "Breathing and Relaxation." All members and those who anticipate assuming membership will be present or send in their application.

The Daughter of Jairo's; Stammers' contata, under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Kinsley, organist and choir director of Trinity church will be sung at the church Sunday evening, May 21th. The soloists will be Mrs. Joseph E. McCrees, Mr. J. G. Stiles, and Mr. Burnett Jordan. Miss Alice Darrick will play a violin solo.

The Army Varsity missionary society will meet Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Central Methodist church. A paper entitled "What the Woman can do for the World" will be read by one of the members.

The Dunham German Tomorrow evening at Trinity church will be one of the best of the sort. It will be given and will be a very attractive one. There have been few plays given by the church since the address of the trustees, except the former interest in social events at Trinity. The absence of members, however, will be the reason given by the trustees. The play which is "The Daughter of Jairo's" particularly attractive and are enclosed in 200 grey covers bound with green cloth, with the Dunham seal and intended for $1.00 in the cover. A copy will be given to each member of the society who will place.

Miss Bessie Stover, a daughter of Mr. J. M. Stover was married on Friday to Mr. Guy Dewese of Murphy. Mrs. Dewese had been teaching in Murphy and they will make their home at that place.

Miss Mable V. Miller and Mr. Thomas W. Oster were the winners in the "Magic 15 Puzzle" which the Dunham music house has been conducting. They will make their home at that place.
