

SOCIETY

A party of Asheville people drove out to Rosseragon. Miss Rose Chapman's Inn, at Skyland yesterday for luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Rosebank cottage, Miss Alice and Miss Frederika Brown and several others were among the party.

The Amateur Musical club held an interesting meeting at the Manor Thursday afternoon. There were about forty members present and three new choruses were rehearsed. A lot of entirely new music has been ordered for the club. Mr. Burnett Jordan directed the rehearsal which was prefaced with an instructive lecture on breathing and relaxation.

Mrs. Thompson Frazer entertained with the third of a series of informal luncheons, yesterday at Crow's Nest cottage, Albemarle park.

The embroidery circle will be entertained Tuesday afternoon by Miss Ada Way at her home in Grace.

Miss Rose Chapman's little settlement at Skyland which will be known as Rosseragon, is most picturesquely situated and the glamour of a romance that might have been taken from one of Ouida's novels, hangs over the little village. The large tract of ground was purchased many years since, by a foreigner who opened a dairy. After five years he wearied of the bucolic life. The little dairy at Rosseragon still stands and is used as a summer house, the walls having been knocked down, and the little pool in one end is used as a drinking fountain surrounded by ferns. A pergola through a vineyard over which the gnarled old vines will climb, is shortly to be erected and leads to the lake which has a row of pretty little bath houses on the grassy banks and a boat. The lake is ten feet deep but in the shallows the sandy bottom may be seen. The little village surrounding the inn is reminiscent of some of the Swiss villages with its lake and vineyard, only the snow capped mountains missing and falling to carry out the illusion. There are five picturesque buildings belonging to Miss Chapman, made of irregular stones held in place by heavy green beams. The other cottages, many of which are completed and occupied are owned by Mrs. Stuber and Miss Julia Adams, Miss Brown, of Charlotte, Miss Fannie Patton, Mrs. Watts, of Kentucky, Mrs. Scarborough, of Georgetown, S. C., and others. The cottagers keep house or board at the inn as they choose. The entire neighborhood is filled from the beautiful old homes of New Orleans and Asheville people, and the summer colony at Rosseragon is arriving daily. The interurban which has been surveyed from Greenville, will run near the village and will take the place of the train, although many people prefer to drive to Skyland. Miss Chapman will give a large tea during the spring which will be an informal opening of Rosseragon.

A medal, which has been offered by a friend, will be awarded to the winners of the debate between the Athenian and Cooper literary society of the city high school. The date and conditions of the debating contest have not yet been decided.

A camping party composed of the graduating class of the high school, left yesterday afternoon for a camping trip to Rattlesnake Lodge and Lanes Pinnacles. Among those who composed the party were: Victor Brownson, Alvin Brownson, William Holmes, Savies Andrews, Cedric Robinson and Harold Wood.

Mrs. A. W. Callaway entertained with an informal bridge party yesterday afternoon.

The Tennis club gave a very pretty dance last evening at their quarters on Park square. Ice and punch were served during the evening. The music was supplied by Connell's orchestra. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Heath Carrier, Mr. and Mrs. Eberman, Mr. and Mrs. Nichols, Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Reynolds, Miss Ethel Taylor, Miss Virginia Griffith Miller, Miss Adelaide Longman, Miss Alice Drummond, Miss Eleanor Lamberton, Miss Lillian Weaver, Miss Mary Stikeleather, Miss Rebecca Cushman, Miss Emma Guider, Miss Jessie Stikeleather, Miss Bettie Stiles, Miss Beaumont Hazzard, Miss Inman, Miss Fannie Wheeler, Miss Anne Hall, Miss Lorraine Oates, Miss May Bernard, Miss Pearl Lee, Miss Mabel Lee, Mr. John Acee, Mr. Charles Folsom, Mr. W. G. Bone, Mr. Tim Cocks, Mr. Perry Cobb, Mr. Ralph Carrier, Mr. Baker, Mr. Cassius Guider, Mr. John Hobson, Mr. Mulligan, Mr. Barro, Mr. Rice, Mr. Nichols, Mr. John B. Anderson, Mr. Theodore Harrison, Mr. Harry Redwood, Mr. Brown, Mr. Meyers, Capt. Jeffries, Mr. Harold Johnston, Mr. Westall, Mr. Austin, Mr. Harry Theobald, Mr. Kendall Northup, Mr. Roy Wagner and Mr. F. Brown.

Miss Anna Virginia Miller finishes the demonstration and lectures for the week this afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. and on Monday will begin a new course of lectures which will last through the week. The menu this afternoon will be for dinner and as follows: Soup, soufles, planked steak with mushroom sauce, celery au gratin and orange pudding. Monday afternoon Miss Miller's subject will be "How to Furnish a Kitchen," and the dishes prepared on the gas range are to be lamp chops with potato balls, French peas, clover leaf rolls, cream puffs and chou paste.

The Zuleka club which has been disbanded since Christmas will be reorganized shortly when some of the former members return from college. The club gave a number of pretty dances and informals each week last summer and was very popular with the members of the younger set.

Mrs. Eugene Carland entertained informally yesterday afternoon with a bridge party at her home on Chestnut street. Mrs. Carland's guests were Mrs. William Hudson, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Mark Brown, Mrs. Eberman, Mrs. Heath Carrier, Mrs. Tannehill, Mrs. W. H. Penland, Mrs. Devensh, Mrs. J. M. Guider, Jr., Mrs. Frank Weaver, Mrs. Carl V. Reynolds, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. Young, Mrs. James Mortimer, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Bernard, Miss Mona Devensh, Miss Reynolds, Miss Eugenia Johnston, Miss Besse Lee, Miss Phillips, Miss Sarah Horton, Miss Riddles and Miss Ethel Taylor.

The golf tournament will be played this afternoon at the Country club. Mr. Edward I. Frost and Dr. G. H. Lambert will meet in the finals for the cup offered by Mr. F. W. Graham and Mr. Clarence Sawyer and Dr. Charles S. Jordan in the finals for the cup offered by the Country club. There will be a large crowd expected to witness the finish of the tournament.

Miss Evelyn Novich, whose engagement was announced at a reception held at the home of her parents several weeks ago, will be married to Mr. Joseph Dannenberg of Wilson, N. C. June 1st at the temple on Spruce street. The wedding will take place at 4 o'clock in the evening and the ceremony and decorations will be unusually elaborate. There will be a number of out of town guests present including relatives of Miss Novich from New York and Texas. Miss Novich has just returned from Greensboro, Wilson and Goldsboro where she has spent several weeks.

The members of the 9 B class of the high school have planned a picnic today at Cedar Cliff and will return this evening.

The reunion of the Waynesville college literary societies occurred last evening and was an auspicious occasion. There were many Asheville people, former members of the societies, present. The lengthy program was opened with an impromptu speech by Mr. L. E. Weaver whose humorous remarks were received warmly. Orations were delivered by Mr. W. P. Queen and declamations by Mr. A. A. Lotzplech and Mr. G. C. Palmer. The president, Mr. I. C. Smart, addressed the audience in a closing speech of a few well chosen words and sentiments. The rest of the program was composed of recitations, songs and speeches.

The Mendelssohn and Glee clubs gave an excellent account of themselves last evening at the Asheville high school on the occasion of their fifth choral concert and the prolonged applause accorded them during the evening and at the close of the program was well deserved and reflected just credit on their conductor, Miss Mae Kimberly. Miss Kimberly occupies an enviable position in the musical world of this city, whether as a solo pianist, director of choruses or accompanist, and her successful work with the clubs last evening received due recognition. The Mendelssohn club composed of girls sang delightfully the "Slumber Song" by Jesse Gaynor and Henry Hadley's "Long Kong Romance," their voices young and fresh, blended perfectly. The Glee club sang "Dinah" and F. E. Bullard's "Winter Song" exceedingly well and received a large share of the applause. The soloists of the evening were Miss Robin Kennett and Mr. M. F. Connell. Miss Kennett sang several songs but in "Mirza" her beautiful voice seemed to be especially suited and the brilliant high notes were easily taken. Miss Kennett's voice is one of great promise. Mr. M. F. Connell's d'Ambronio "Serenade" with discretion and delicacy and his interpretation of Dreda's "Serenade" were unusually fine. Miss Minnie Westall accompanied and added to the success of the evening by her able rendition of the varied and difficult music. The Toy Symphony orchestra was one of the successes of the evening and the "Toy Symphony" by Haydn played on toy instruments was greeted with round after round of applause. The "Sleighride" by the orchestra was equally successful and closed one of the best concerts given by the two clubs. There was a good sized audience and the proceeds will be of material benefit in aiding the clubs musically.

TRAVIS NEARLY LOST TO COMPETITOR

(By Associated Press.) GARDEN CITY, N. Y., May 7.—Walter J. Travis, former national and international champion, narrowly escaped defeat this afternoon in the annual tournament of the Garden City Golf club at the hands of R. C. Watson of New York. The only thing that saved Travis was the stroke which he laid his competitor on the home hole. It was a full stroke, and sitting in a huff, so an extra hole was necessary. On the nineteenth Watson lost by flubbing his second into the great sand pit, where he got out only to lose the hole because Travis was well up toward the cup on his second.

SPECIAL CLEARANCE SALE ON ODD LOTS OF TAILORED SUITS

AT $5.95 are some fabulous bargains. Silk eton suits in black, navy and white with black stripe, which sold formerly for $20.00. Also black eton suits that were $20 to $35. There is a lot of summer eton suits, chiffon panama and fancy worsteds, in solid tan and grey and fancy checks and mixtures, that were originally $18.50 to $35.00, which will be sacrificed too at $5.95.

AT $7.95 are some eton and silk jackets, silk lined, which were $15 to $20.

AT $9.95 are wool jacket suits in blue, black, brown and checks, that sold when new for $18 to $35.

AT $14.95 is a lot of wool jacket suits in blue, black and novelty stripes, also blue and black silk suits which are reduced from prices between $25 and $40.

AT $19.95 are some high grade mohair, wool and rajah coat suits in brown, blue and black which commanded in the first place $35 to $60.

None of the suits or jackets in this sale are this season's goods. They are odds and ends that accumulate unavoidably. But the quality is good; and just look at the prices! Why, the skirts alone of the $5.95 suits are worth the price. Many uses can be found for suits of this kind by the woman on economy bent. Better choose early.
