

SOCIETY

The business of the graduation exercises of the Asheville School of Music and Dramatic Art this afternoon at 4 o'clock, given by the pupils. The program, which includes a variety of violin and piano numbers, was finished in yesterday's issue.

The Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church meets this afternoon with Mrs. F. E. McNeill at her home, 149 Montford avenue. A special program of "Meditation" has been arranged and several appropriate selections will be sung by little Miss Tracy. Mrs. T. P. Reynolds will have charge of the program.

The Otisian literary society of the High school will give a large comedy at the High school tomorrow evening. The title of the piece is "The Lamentable Tragedy of Julius Caesar."

All women are cordially invited to the women's prayer meeting, which will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Henrietta on South Main street.

The Amateur Musical club at yesterday afternoon in their rooms in the Paragon building and after a number of the new choruses were rehearsed, a business meeting was held. By-laws were adopted and other similar business transacted. The club will meet regularly in the future at their rooms Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A number of new members were elected yesterday.

Miss Anna Virginia Miller's lectures are progressing interestingly at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium each afternoon and will come to an end Saturday. Miss Miller has chosen as her subject today "What to Eat and How to Cook It," and the dishes she will prepare on the gas stove are vegetable soup, cheese crouton, meat short cake with parsley sauce, and doughnuts. The lectures are free to the public.

The date for the golf tournament for the club, championship has not been definitely decided upon owing to the fact that the recent cloudburst, which damaged several districts of the city considerable, also worked havoc at the Country club. The course was badly washed, the second hole being completely destroyed, and the tennis courts suffered hardly lesser damage. Workmen have been employed for two days repairing the links and courts which will be shortly restored to their former condition.

Mrs. Arthur F. Ross gave an informal dinner Tuesday evening at Kenilworth Lodge.

Mrs. Arthur Rankin entertained informally with bridge yesterday afternoon at her home on Orange street.

A special meeting of the membership committee is called this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. The committee will endeavor to secure 500 one-dollar members and a hundred sustaining members during the year and will enroll 200 members during the next month. Miss Lulu Moore is chairman of the educational sub-committee, having as her assistants Miss Irwin and Miss Brown, and the members of the committee are Miss Florence Bagnard, Miss Hazel Brown and Miss Miss Barnard, Miss Eleanor Carmichael, Miss Victoria Nichols, Miss Minnie Westall, Miss Nell Wrightson, Miss Purdy, Miss Nell Ford and Mrs. Martin La Stevens. The Bible class in Old Testament characters which has been under the direction of Miss Sinclair closes its lesson course this evening.
