Referring to an amendment to this paragraph not permitting structural steel to be assembled when imported, Mr. Aldrich said: "The rates of duty in this industry have been cut nearly one half and I desire to place on record the great apprehension that we may be committing a grave injustice to this great industry."

Baptists Raise Hundred Thousand and Dollars For Theological School

STUDENTS CONTRIBUTE $10,000 OF THE AMOUNT

After Day Devoted to Religious Services Remaining Business Will Be Closed

(By Associated Press.) LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 15.—Their enthusiasm raised to a high pitch by a notable movement to the support of the Southern Baptist Theological seminary, over one thousand delegates to the Southern Baptist convention late this afternoon took a lengthy journey to Cave Hill cemetery, only to have a heavy rain interfere with the unveiling of a monument to the late Rev. Dr. T. T. Eaton. Before they left the floor of the convention hall, over $115,000 was voluntarily subscribed toward the endowment fund of the seminary. Here a former rose to pledge the fifty dollars from the sale of a cow or a horse; there a prosperous city dweller contributed ten or twenty times that amount. It was shortly before the morning session ended when President Mullins, of Theological seminary, and Dr. William Hatcher, of Virginia, began taking subscriptions toward the $500,000 fund of the seminary, which is being raised in the celebration of the jubilee year.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA LEAGUE WAS ORGANIZED HERE LAST NIGHT

League Will Include Canton, Waynesville, Hendersonville and Asheville and Is Backed by Strong and Enthusiastic Fans From All Four Cities. Season Begins June 15.

Asheville is to have real professional baseball. This was the decision of representatives of the four cities which are to comprise the Western North Carolina League, who met at the Berkeley hotel last night. The season promises to rival the famous baseball season of four years ago when this city made a reputation as a baseball town. There will be a definite schedule lasting for three months beginning June 15 and there will be two games here every week and possibly more. Several of the players have already been signed and a board of directors of representative businessmen of the four towns comprising the league has been elected. Four towns included. Last night six men met at the Berkeley for the organization of the Western North Carolina League, comprising Asheville, Hendersonville, Canton and Waynesville. The meeting lasted for more than two hours and it was business from the election of temporary chairman, Mr. D. J. Kerr, of Canton, until the adjournment after midnight. The other representatives present were: R. D. McDowell, of Canton; Carl Jantz, of Canton; A. A. P. Gallimore, of Hendersonville; C. S. Smathers, of Waynesville, and S. A. Lynch, of this city. The representatives of each of the four towns had come with full power to make all arrangements and to begin work at once.

WILL NOT PERMIT FACTIONS TO USE HIM IN THEIR FIGHT

President Taft Revokes Appointment Made in Which He Had Been Fooled

DECLINES TO BE POLITICAL CATSPAW

In Strong Letter Makes Plain His Position Toward State Machines

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 15.—President Taft has written a letter to Governor Stubbs, of Kansas, in which he declares with emphasis that he will not permit himself to be used by any political faction for the promotion of political fortunes, and at the same time revoking the appointment of Robert Stone, of Topeka, a personal friend of Governor Stubbs, to be a special assistant to the United States attorney-general. The situation grows out of the Bristol-Love senatorial fight of last year, it is said. President Taft, a personal friend of Senator Love, kept out of that fight because he did not want to be placed in a position of having interfered in any factional fight in any state. Governor Stubbs was allied with Mr. Bristol. Stubbs Fooled Him. Governor Stubbs was in Washington several weeks ago and asked the president to appoint a Kansas man to a good position in the department of Justice. The president consented, supposing, it is said, that who ever was named would have the backing of the congressional delegation from the state. After his return home Governor Stubbs is to be a candidate for the United States senate against Senator Curtis. Mr. Stone was appointed as special assistant attorney-general. When Senator Curtis and Representative Anthony, of the Topeka district, heard of the appointment they immediately went to the white house and placed the situation before President Taft. The latter at once wrote two letters, one to Governor Stubbs and one to Attorney-General Wickersham directing the latter to hold up the appointment of Mr. Stone and saying Governor Stubbs "has thoughtlessly placed us in a position that is entirely indefensible."

SOCIETY MAN ARRESTED FOR ALLEGED FRAUD IN SALE OF MINING STOCKS

Charged That He Has Operated in Various Parts of the Country.

WANTED IN BOSTON

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Charles Layton Foxwell, a mining stock broker, whose wife is said to be a relative of F. Augustus Heinze, of New York was arrested here today and is locked up in a police station tonight charged with being a fugitive from justice. Herbert Moseley, treasurer of the Growler Copper company, Boston, Mass., who is the complainant, alleges that Foxwell by various schemes relieved his company of more than $5,000, and informed the police that the broker had victimized many other concerns in Virginia, Canada, New York and Massachusetts to the extent of $30,000 or more. Foxwell, who is fifty-six years old, dignified, well-groomed and scholarly in demeanor, came to Washington a little more than a year ago from New York, and with his wife figured prominently in society circles. To what extent he carried on business in this city is not known. He dealt almost solely in mining stocks. The police allege that Foxwell went to Boston early in 1909 and later to New York where to various mining concerns he declared himself to be a representative of the Societe Generale de Paris, a financial institution of Paris. Certain bonds and stocks which Foxwell negotiated failed to pay expected dividends and an investigation was made by the companies effected which developed that Foxwell was not a representative of the Paris concern. The firms learned that Foxwell was living here and their representative reached here today demanding his arrest.

BISHOP CANDLER WILL DEDICATE CENTRAL M.E. CHURCH THIS MORNING

Splendid Musical Program Prepared for Occasion and Decorations Lavish.

DEBT PROVIDED FOR

This morning will mark an important epoch in the history of Methodism in Asheville with the dedication of the Central Methodist Episcopal church at 11 o'clock. The preparations which have been going on for several months were completed last night and the decorations put in position yesterday. Bishop Warren A. Candler, who is to deliver the dedicatory sermon arrived last night from the South. Bishop Candler is one of the leading bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, South and is widely known as an orator. Bishop Candler will also preach at the evening service. His sermon at this service will take up the work of the Methodist church along missionary and educational lines. For this significant occasion toward which local Methodists have been looking for some time, much preparation has been made. At a meeting of the board of trustees held Friday night the remaining indebtedness was subscribed so that the church debt would be fully provided for today. There were a great many floral gifts sent yesterday for the interior decorations and the altar and pulpit are banked with flowers and palms. Splendid Musical Program. From a musical point of view this morning's program is an exceptional one. The organ prelude is "Hird's Theme in A." There are two anthems—Send out Thy Light" by Gounod and "A New Heaven and A New Earth" by Gail. The latter anthem will be sung by Mr. Burnette Jordan, who is the soloist for the service. The most impressive part of the service occurs after the sermon when the sentence of dedication is pronounced by the bishop. The ceremony goes back for its origin to the early church history and much of the earlier form has been retained. The trustees who are responsible for the service.

BAYOU SARA MAY BE LIKE A PLACE BEST AVOIDED BUT ITS MAYOR'S GAME TELLS OFFICERS OF BATTLESHIP HE WILL TRY TO ENTERTAIN THEM.

He Will Try to Entertain Them.

MAY WEAR ANYTHING

(By Associated Press.) BATON ROUGE, La., May 15.—Somewhat chagrined at the accounts of elaborate banquets and balls given the officers and men of the battleship Mississippi at New Orleans, Baton Rouge and other points, the chairman of the reception committee at the little village of Bayou Sara, where the Mississippi is scheduled to stop Monday, today wired Captain Fremont as follows: "This is a hell of a place to receive anybody, but we will do the best we can." The telegram gave great amusement to Captain Fremont and the other officers of the battleship, which will resume the journey up the river to Natchez next Monday, with Bayou Sara as the only intermediate stop. "I'll wager that the man who sent that telegram is a bully good fellow," said Captain Fremont, "and the pleasure of meeting him will prove more than sufficient compensation for dropping anchor at Bayou Sara." That Bayou Sara intends to be hospitable was shown by an exchange of telegrams between a newspaper representative on the battleship and some of the reception officials. Either as a joke, or through ignorance of the conditions along the river, the correspondent wired: "Will it be necessary for civilians on the battleship to wear high silk hats and frock coats during the day reception at Bayou Sara?" And straightaway came back the answer: "Not necessary to wear anything at all. Come ahead."
