

BAILEY'S INCOME TAX PROPOSITION NOT CONSIDERED

Senate Postpones It to Another Day With no Idea of Taking It up Again

WASHINGTON, May 27.—By the decisive vote of 50 to 33 the senate decided today to postpone until June 10 the further consideration of the income tax question in connection with the tariff.

The senate began the day with the consideration of the sugar schedule but after voting upon two amendments to it towards the end of the afternoon switched off to a discussion of the possibility of getting a vote on the Bailey income tax amendment.

(Continued on page four.)

LEPER DEPRIVED OF LAST GLIMMER OF HOPE BY EXPERT

Noted Leprologist Declares That Early, the N. Carolinian Has Disease

(Special to The Citizen.) WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—Pronounced a leper, then given a ray of hope by the diagnosis made by Dr. L. Duncan Bulkley, of New York, who declared that he was no leper, John E. Early, the North Carolinian, who has been quarantined in his home on the eastern branch by the local health authorities was again plunged into abject despair by the diagnosis made of his case by Dr. Edward Ehlers, the noted Danish leprologist who was brought over by a local newspaper especially to pass upon the case.

"We will never give up the fight," said Early yesterday. "I am not convinced of the absolute accuracy of Dr. Ehlers' examination."

(Continued on page four.)

TEXAS SENATOR IN FIST FIGHT WITH NEWSPAPER MAN

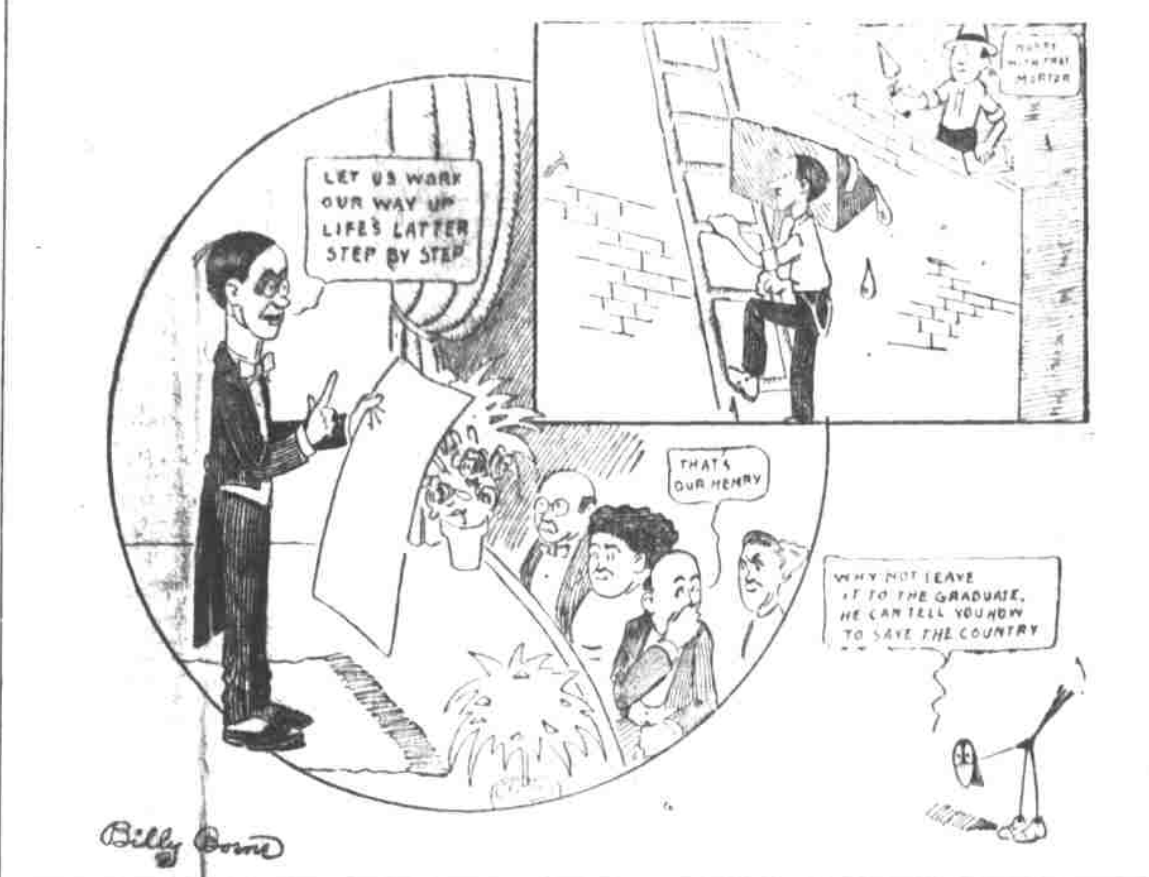

Resented Publication of Article Charging Him With Bad Faith

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 27.—Senator Bailey of Texas and W. S. Manning, representative of The New York Times, in the senate press gallery, exchanged blows just as the senate adjourned today as a result of a conversation they had in reference to an article printed by the New York newspaper questioning the sincerity of the senator in his course on the income tax.

Neither of the participants were injured, as they were separated by Senator Clapp, Porto Rican Commissioner Larringa, a number of senate employees and several newspaper correspondents.

(Continued on page three.)

Another Graduation Question Answered

WILL SEND MAIL TRAINS OUT INTO HOSTILE COUNTRY OF STRIKERS

Officials, Federal, State and Railroad, All Feel That Crisis in Trouble Will Come Today And Are Awaiting the Outcome With The Greatest Anxiety.

(By Associated Press.) ATLANTA, Ga., May 27.—A double crisis will be reached tomorrow morning in the Georgia railroad strike.

First will be the starting of twelve trains carrying mail only, through a community quivering with intense interest as to whether white or black firemen will feed the engines, and as to what inferences are to be drawn from the make up of the crews, regardless of whether they are white or black.

The Georgia joint terminal company controls the tracks on which the Georgia railroad enters Atlanta, and the switchmen insist that any agreement to arbitrate must include the terminal company.

(Continued on page three.)

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES WILL NOT INTERFERE IN GEORGIA RACE STRIKE

Decision at Washington Is Prompted by Fear of Race Conflicts.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 27.—Federal intervention at present in the strike of the firemen on the Georgia railroad is unlikely, Dr. Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, and one of the mediators under the Erdmann act, in on the ground and is keeping in touch with the situation.

TOBACCO IS BARRED BY GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Do Not Forbid Judges to Issue Liquor Licenses Under the Law.

(By Associated Press.) DENVER, Col., May 27.—Clergy men and laymen should not use tobacco, but it is not contrary to the principles of the church for Presbyterians to grant liquor licenses, this was decided by the general assembly of the Presbyterian church today.

FUNDS FOR EDUCATION DISTRIBUTED TO MANY SOUTHERN COLLEGES

General Education Board Makes Annual Disbursement to Various Institutions

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, May 27.—The general education board today announced a number of appropriations amounting to several of $200,000 or more.

BANKERS ELECT OFFICERS AND ADJOURN FINALLY

Tar Heel Financiers Close Very Successful Meeting of Association.

(By Associated Press.) CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 27.—Following a trolley ride and luncheon at Lakewood park the North Carolina State Bankers' association adjourned this afternoon.

SHOOTING CASE BRINGS OUT UNSAVORY FACTS

Hearing in Durham Near Sparta Girl Has Rude Awakening from Her Romantic Wedding Dream.

(Special to The Citizen.) DURHAM, N. C., May 27.—The case of Charles B. Dorsey, charged with attempting to assassinate Mrs. J. T. Butler, wife of one of the proprietors of the Murray hotel, of which young Dorsey was night clerk, was heard in the superior court today.

FINDS HER HUSBAND BIGAMIST AND FORGER

Sparta Girl Has Rude Awakening from Her Romantic Wedding Dream.

(Special to The Citizen.) SPARTA, N. C., May 27.—Three times in the past seven months this little mountain country has had a thrilling sensation. One of the parties to cause these sensations was Miss Agnes Waggoner of Whitehead.

Officials of the postoffice department and the department of justice are keeping in close touch with the situation. A conference was held late today between Attorney General Wickersham and second Assistant Postmaster General Stewart in regard to the situation.

COVINGTON, Ga., May 27.—Bert Cain, who shot and killed Chief of Police Forrest of this place in February, was today found guilty of voluntary manslaughter and was sentenced to serve ten years imprisonment. The jury spent hours deliberation after Cain's former trial resulted in a mistrial. It was charged that Cain called Chief Forrest from the waiting room of the railroad depot here and shot him down without giving him a chance for his life. Cain's plea was self defense.

DOWAGIAC, Mich., May 26.—Of eight men who were in the Goody Hoop mill here this afternoon when the mill boiler exploded, five were instantly killed and one died tonight of his injuries, one was severely hurt and one miraculously escaped without injury though the entire building tumbled about him like a house of cards.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Forecast for North Carolina: Partly cloudy and continued warm Friday; Saturday fair and warmer; light to moderate southwest winds.

SCHOOLS SHOULD RESIST WEALTH UNSANCTIFIED

Old University Squabble Still Rankles in Breasts of Presbyterians

(By Associated Press.) SAVANNAH, Ga., May 27.—An aftermath of the Central university fight before the general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church came today when a resolution was offered by Dr. C. W. Grafton, which was afterwards referred to a special committee which has been entrusted with the task of drawing up a reply to the synod of Kentucky on the university matter.

After urging "all our people in Kentucky to stir up and maintain a Christian sentiment so strong as to detect and arrest the approach of every form of evil which may imperil the influence of their great university, the resolution continues:

"There is weakness in poverty indeed, but there is sometimes danger in riches. We believe indeed, that the greater danger at this day lies in the overshadowing endowments that are unfriendly to the Bible. We therefore urge our schools to resist the charms of un sanctified wealth and to keep themselves free from all alliances which would impair their testimony to the truth of God and the faith of our fathers."

Oppose Church Union. Tonight an address was delivered upon the subject, "How Far Has Original Calvinism Been Modified by Time," by Dr. S. A. King, of Austin, Texas.

PETERSBURG, Va., May 27.—After the bitter and hard fought political campaign in the history of this city, the anti-slavery cause of Virginia met a signal defeat today. The "No 99" meeting by a majority of 275 in a total of 1,792. The fight made a most aggressive fight, bringing many of its strongest speakers into the field. The fight for the "No 99" was made by the Business Men's association, which relied on home speakers and vigorously and successfully attacked the foreign importation of hired foreign speakers.

(Continued on page four.)

(Continued on page four.)