

REVEILLE TODAY WILL WAKE HEROES OF CONFEDERACY

Are Bivouacked in Hospitable Camp of Bluff City of Tennessee

STARS AND BARS FLOAT BESIDE OLD GLORY

Arrangements For Entertainment of Visitors Are Well Nigh Perfect

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 7.—With the stars and the bars and the Star Spangled Banner flapping largely and amicably in the soft breeze of a typical Southern day...

The formal program does not begin until tomorrow. But all day long special and regular trains puffed noisily into the bluff city of Tennessee...

Hotels Crowded. The hotels, taxed to their capacity, have utilized every spare inch of space and the halls and corridors are filled with narrow cots upon which repose good natured, but enthusiastic visitors to the reunion.

Arrangements Complete. There probably never has been a Confederate reunion at which the arrangements have been so complete of the details so ably worked out.

Information Bureau. Information bureaus abound and no one can complain that accommodations are not furnished.

PIER BROKE DOWN SENDING ELEVEN TO WATERY GRAVES

Children Returning From Excursion Drown In Human Maelstrom

SEVENTY FIVE IN WATER AT ONE TIME

Boat Company Denies Responsibility For Landing at Unsafe Wharf

(By Associated Press.) MANDEVILLE, La., June 7.—Up to an early hour tonight eleven bodies had been recovered from the waters of Lake Pontchartrain at the scene of yesterday's disastrous collapse of a small pier upon which score of excursionists had been crowded to board the steamer Margaret about to return to New Orleans.

All of the victims were residents of New Orleans. The bodies recovered follow: Lizzie Lotz, aged fifteen; Marie Goitein, aged eighteen; Kathleen Goitein, aged twenty; Laura Ray, aged eighteen; Alice Choppin, aged sixteen months; Lizzie Everhardt, aged nine; Eugene Pahataged, aged thirty-four; Mrs. Charles Bruno, aged twenty-five; Mamie Paxon, aged thirty-three.

The responsibility for the catastrophe which precipitated seventy-five persons into the lake has not been fixed, but a rigid inquiry has been instituted by the authorities of Mandeville and New Orleans.

The Pontchartrain company which owns the boat denies all responsibility for the accident. They declared that the wharf gave way under the weight of the large number of people upon it.

There appears to be considerable doubt as to why the Margaret landed at this pier instead of going to the larger one where it was accustomed to touch.

PROGRESSIVES IN SENATE ARE GIVING ALDRICH TROUBLE

Reps. in Lively Row Among Themselves Over Tariff Bill

PARTY LEADERS PUT ON THEIR METTLE

Western Crowd Making Strong Play to Live up to Pledge

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, June 7.—The senate chamber was again today transformed into a mental arena and Senator Aldrich, leading the conservatives, and Senator Beveridge heading the progressives, were the chief gladiators.

Beginning the session with a vote on the recommendation of his committee for a duty of three cents a square yard and twenty per cent ad valorem for the fabric known as window holland, Senator Aldrich was apparently somewhat encouraged over the prospects of making decided headway with the cotton schedules.

Coming back, the Indiana senator asserted his right to follow his conscience rather than the leadership of any individual.

South Not Begging. From that time forward, the two senators were engaged in joint debate much of the time during the day.

Only the objection of one man, Prof. A. E. Parker, an instructor at the University of Chicago, prevented the election of Prof. Foster.

TAFT WANTS MORE LIGHT ON WHAT AND WHAT IS NOT GOOD STRAIGHT WHISKEY

Accepts Not Opinion of Solicitor General on So Delicate a Matter.

COLORING ALL RIGHT.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, June 7.—Lloyd W. Bowers, solicitor general of the United States today submitted to President Taft his opinion as to what the term "whiskey" means in law.

In effect Solicitor General Bowers holds after discussing at great length what the term "whiskey" meant at the time of the passage of the pure food law, that the public does not consider that added coloring for flavoring matter can make whiskey out of what otherwise is not whiskey.

Later developments regarding the shooting are that at least two assassins and probably more were engaged in the conspiracy to wipe out the Callahan family.
