Mr. Brown frequently quoted from various authorities to sustain his contention that wood ing obtainable previous to the trial pulp and print paper are both proer labor and cheaper materials, resulting in a cheaper product that can the deceased was engaged in be obtained in the Dominion of Can-Citing rates of wages in this country and Canada he undertook to show that the United States has an advantage in that respect. Turning to his republican colleagues he asked them how, is view of that fact they could justify a duty on the products for the "protection of labor."

Criticise Mann Campaign. Without divulging the source of their information in any definite manner Senators Aldrich and Hale flatly contradicted these statements in reference to wages and cost of produc-tion. They insisted that the Mann committee of the house of representatives was lacking in accurate testimony and contended that, even accepting that report, it could not be $10,000 from the Commercial Nationmaintained that the United States had
