Mrs. James A. Burroughs entertained with a luncheon Wednesday at her home on North Main street in honor of Miss Pitts of Chicago and Miss Scott of Norfolk, Va.

One of the events of interest in Morganton during the week was a reception given by Mrs. Francis E. Childers of Asheville and Mrs. Z. Y. Corpening at the home of the latter.

CLEARANCE SALE of ODD TAILORED SUITS

- Lot 1 at $5.95, formerly $15.00 to $25.00
- " 2 at $9.95, " $25.00 to $40.00
- " 3 at $12.95, " $20.00 to $25.00
- " 4 at $15.95, " $35.00 to $75.00

These are not this season's suits. Most of them, however, are staple styles, rather than novelties, and are therefore greater bargains at these prices.

Lot 3 are comparatively new, scarcely to be distinguished from present fashion.

Serviceability in a woman's suit can rarely be purchased at such prices as these. Come see for yourself.

FINE WOOL DRESS GOODS

"Beautiful" if you'll excuse the thing, and the very best of values. The last three days have seen important additions to our supply. There has been a slight delay on these because all the good houses wanted these styles and the dress goods mill couldn't quite supply everybody in town.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather last night there was a large and an enthusiastic meeting held by the members of the Y. M. C. in which much good was accomplished for the future of the work. The program of the evening was taken up with a devotional exercise after which the principal speaker, Rev. C. H. Doremus, D. D., stated in a few words the prime object of the meeting, and then called attention to the fact that the Y. M. C. is in the midst of a year of jubilee. He stated that the Y. M. C. has been in existence for 25 years, and that in that time it has done a great deal of good work for the young men of the world.

There are just two ways of getting the finest candies. One is to ask for NUNNALLY'S, and the other is to have the dealer offer you NUNNALLY'S. No candies can be more carefully made or from purer materials. None other are received in this town so constantly from the makers direct by fast express.

A fresh supply always kept by RAYBORN'S DRUG STORE, 31 Patton Avenue.
