

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Little Miss Dorothea Johnson, a young girl from the village of Cades Creek, her mother is the most popular girl in Asheville and as such is entitled to wear her "blue dress" mounted and embroidered. In this instance, the contest closed last week, the winner receiving twenty-five dollars. Miss Martha Brown was one of the three who had won the first place, her total being twelve votes and little Miss Johnson had just one vote to hand with a total of twenty. Twenty-four dollars and twenty-five cents were made out of the contest which was decided on the basis of a local chart and through the kindness of Miss Moore the votes were received at her shop on Patton avenue.

The ladies' singles golf tournament was concluded yesterday with Miss Alice Brown winning one of the four cups presented by Mr. Edward L. Smith and Mr. J. J. McCalley, and Miss Alice Brown the other. There were many spectators and members who drove out late in the afternoon and remained for tea which was served on the veranda.

The musical program for the morning and evening services at the First Baptist church today is of interest. The morning program is as follows: Prelude: "Fanfare" Durbeck Anthem: "Jubilate in Psalms" Nevins Offertory: "God be Merciful" Barthlett

Mrs Lucy Vance, Lemmons Postlude: "March Pontifical" Evening services: Prelude: "Borecole" Delbruck Anthem: "Not unto Us, O Lord" Smith Offertory anthem: "Now the Day Is Over" Nevins Solo: Miss Clara Whittington Postlude: "March" Gossard

The vesper service this afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. in the Hemphill building on South Main street will be held at four o'clock. Miss Florence Stephenson of the Home Industrial school will address the meeting and an interesting musical program has been arranged by Miss Daisy Smith. All young women of Asheville and any visitors who would care to come are invited to attend the services.

The marriage of Miss Minerva Van Meter in Springfield, Ohio, several days ago will be of interest to her many friends in Asheville. Miss Van Meter has visited in Asheville on several occasions and last summer was the guest of Miss Daisy Smith. The following account of the wedding taken from a Springfield, Ohio, paper will be of interest: "Miss Minerva Van Meter and Charles Fisher were married Thursday evening at half-past five o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, 34 East College avenue. The wedding was a quiet affair, only the members and friends of the immediate family being present. Dr. John A. Story, a former pastor of the High street M. E. church, now of Cincinnati, performed the ceremony. The house was decorated in pink and white aster, and presented a pleasing effect. The bride was gowned in simple white, and wore white roses. After the ceremony, two-course supper was served, and immediately after the bride and groom left for an extended lake trip. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher will be at home in their friend's of the bride's home in October first, when they go to Phoenix, Arizona, where Mr. Fisher owns a large cattle ranch. The bride is the popular young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Van Meter of College Avenue, and has a large circle of friends among them, who wish her much happiness. Mr. Fisher is well known as a thoughtful people, having formerly taught, and is a successful rancher."

Four hundred and fifty children entered in the first day afternoon at the races in the Miss Louis Bourne, the head of the Mission hospital, whose children, who arranged the races, were Little Miss Emily Brown, the James Margaret Davies and Emily McLeod who deserve a great deal of credit of their many efforts. The enterprise, the children are from Candler and Edith, who are which were well done, and the other children in which the children were divided, the former being dressed in pink flowers and the latter in the costume

"BATHROBES at MOORES" should be on your shopping memo, when next up town.

Blanket robes in many pleasing color combinations are $4.00 to $10.00. Heavy and warm for around the house in winter.

Terry cloth robes in light shades and dainty patterns are $5.00. Just the thing to jump into after the bath.

Have you seen the Ideal Wardrobe Trunk? Ask somebody that owns one. They'll tell you they will never again be without and can't understand how they managed before. It carries all your dress clothes without mussing.
