

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

The W. F. Knott, of the... Main street... opening today... Mrs. Frederick... Mrs. F. W. W. Graham will not receive today... Mrs. John R. Hixley, who... Mrs. Lockwood and their daughter, Mrs. Bradley, have spent several winters in succession in Asheville, and it is not unlikely that with Mr. Bradley they will be in the city for a few weeks this winter.

The announcement by Mrs. Ridelgy Penniman of the engagement of her daughter, Julia, to Mr. H. Taft Read, of California, will be of interest to the many friends of the young people in Asheville and Biltmore. Miss Penniman is one of the most charming and attractive of the younger girls and has been very popular. Mr. Read is a graduate of Harvard, and last year graduated from the Biltmore School of Forestry. Mr. Read arrived from California several days ago, and will remain in the city until the wedding, which occurs shortly at All Souls' church, Biltmore. Mr. Read is well known in Asheville and made many friends during his residence in this city.

Frequently it becomes the pleasant duty to chronicle the successes of people of Asheville or those who have lived for a space in the "Land of the Sky," and have found laurels awaiting them out in the world. Mr. Robert Hausen, of Cleveland, Ohio, a graduate of the Asheville school, has written a play "In Glass Houses," which was produced by a stock company in Cleveland last season and has been accepted for a metropolitan production by a prominent manager. Mr. Hausen is still under twenty-five, and after graduating from the Asheville school entered Yale, where he won honors in English.

Announcement was made yesterday of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Baxter, of Lexington, Ky., to Mr. R. K. McClain, which occurred very quietly about a fortnight ago in Asheville. Mr. McClain is connected with the Southern railroad and holds a responsible position in the dispatcher's office. Mr. and Mrs. McClain have just returned from a trip to Washington, Atlanta City and New York, and are at present at their home on Ashland avenue.

Mrs. Frederick H. Pope, of Augusta, Ga., entertained informally with a luncheon yesterday at the Woman's exchange. White roses simply arranged decorated the table. Mrs. Pope's guests were Mrs. Charles L. Minor, Mrs. Duffield Hilliard, Mrs. Thomas Settle, Mrs. Alfred S. Parnard, Mrs. Thomas, of Augusta, Mrs. Pelzer and Miss Alice Wright, of Wilmington, N. C.

The G. I. A. to the R. of I. E. entertain this evening at Zehle's hall, with a Dutch supper followed by a dance. Dancing begins at 8 o'clock.

The Jewish Ladies' Aid society will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the temple on Spruce street.

Mrs. James E. Kerr, who has spent several years in Asheville, and who left for New York a few weeks ago has accepted a position to which much honor is attached, that of soprano soloist at the American church in Paris. Mrs. Kerr studied in Paris under M. Jean De Boske, the famous tenor, and her soloist voice has been

Just as Good as The Stieff
Buyer, don't be fooled into taking the price as the great talking point for many dealers and agents. It's a great advertisement for the artistic Stieff piano, but we feel sorry for the fellow who thinks he is getting just as good when he buys the other piano.
