

NOT A SOUL AROSE TO MAKE PLEA FOR OLD KING ALCOHOL

Tried Before Jury And Found Guilty of Every Crime In The Calendar

CONGRESS OF EXPERTS DIVIDED AS TO "NIP" Cannot Say Whether Moderate Acquaintance With Demon Is Harmful or Not

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Alcohol and alcoholism are two of the real and substantial enemies of moral, artistic and commercial progress of the human race, according to the report of the United States delegates to the Twelfth International Congress on Alcoholism, made public by the state department today.

According to the report, the interest shown in the congress was greater than ever was known before. Because of the information evolved at the congress, the delegates accepted the invitation of the queen of Holland to hold their next meeting two years hence, at The Hague in conjunction with the conference of the committee that is working for international peace.

Education Needed. While the congress urged the necessity of imposing the most rigorous restrictions on the sale and traffic in alcoholic liquors, it regarded as equally important the need of educating a younger generation to a true knowledge of what alcohol is and what its effects upon the human system are.

ROOSEVELT CANNOT BE REACHED BUT REPORTS OF ILLNESS NOT BELIEVED

Government Officials Near-est Him Have Heard no Rumor of His Illness.

HIS FAMILY ANXIOUS.

MOBASA, British East Africa, Nov. 7.—The government, which has been investigating the rumors concerning the illness of ex-President Roosevelt, while not successful in getting into direct communication with Colonel Roosevelt and his party, has at least learned sufficient to satisfy the officials that there is no truth in these rumors.

ROME, Nov. 7.—John W. Garrett, secretary of the American embassy, today received another despatch from Messrs. Newland and Tarleton, of Nashville, friends of Colonel Roosevelt, who are following up their investigation as to the origin of the report of Mr. Roosevelt's illness.

(Signed) Newland and Tarleton. Mrs. Roosevelt, who has been greatly wrought up by the reports of her husband's illness, remained in her apartments throughout the day, but Miss Ethel Roosevelt and Miss Carey took a short drive, accompanied by Commander Andrew T. Long, the American naval attaché.

AFFIRMS LOYALTY TO MOTHER CHURCH AFTER HER REBUKE

Mrs. Stetson Answers Rumors of Excommunication by Statement in Which She Protests Her Allegiance.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Annoyance at a headline in a morning paper which read, "Mrs. Stetson's followers defy the mother church," today prompted Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson, the former first reader of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, to write her own newspaper story and her own headlines. The latter read:

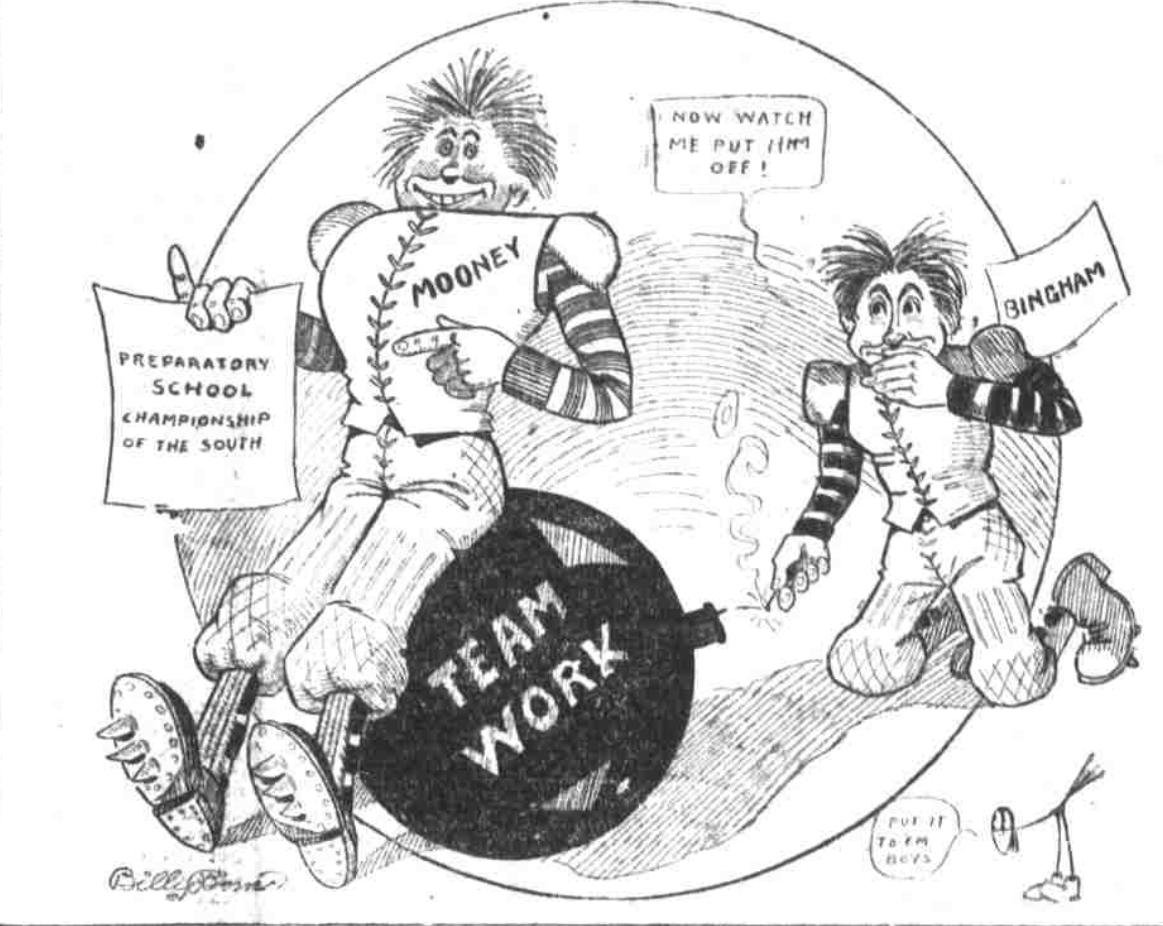

"Mrs. Stetson's answer. Declares her loyalty to the Mother Church. Emphatically denies Mr. Strickler's interpretation of her teachings. These captions appear on a four-page typewritten statement which Mrs. Stetson's secretary distributed tonight in her home in Central Park West, adjoining the church of which she was the recent leader, and from which position she was deposed because of alleged 'mental malpractice.'"

Declares Her Loyalty. Mrs. Stetson re-affirms her allegiance to the Mother Church in the following words: "I wish to state here most emphatically that I do not defy the Mother Church, neither do my followers."

Answering the charges that she had attempted to invoke evil by thought upon the heads of several persons she says of Virgil O. Strickler, the president of the church, "I was surprised that he (Strickler) seemingly could not grasp the metaphysical points that there is a difference between mental malpractice and self-defense. I will give as an illustration what I understood the difference to be between mental malpractice and indispensable defense of self-protection: If I felt sure that I was being attacked, either ignorantly or maliciously, by any person, I should fill my thoughts with the qualities of God, truth and love, which alone renders one invincible to what-soever proceeds from the carnal mind."

This Ought To Help Some!

PROUD FAMILY DRAGGED IN MIRE OF DISGRACE BY A WORTHLESS SON

Son of Gen. Lyttle, of Tennessee, Dies Drunkard's Death in Colorado Springs Hotel While Accompanied by Disreputable Woman. Scandalous Tragedy in Family.

DENVER, Nov. 7.—According to The News, the man who was found dead in a room at the Antlers hotel in Colorado Springs, yesterday, is William Lyttle, a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families in Tennessee, which is related to that of former President Benjamin Harrison. The News asserts that Lyttle's father is Evander Lyttle, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., and that W. F. Lyttle, a confederate general and one of the richest men in Tennessee, is his grand-father.

The cause of Lyttle's death is still a mystery, but the woman, Miss Jennie Mitchell, recently of this city, but who hails from Chicago, who had been with him for two days previous and who was in his room in Colorado Springs when his death was discovered, is being held pending investigation. She declares that at Lyttle's request, she administered a dose of aromatic spirits of ammonia and that then they both proceeded to take a nap. When she awoke Lyttle was lying dead on the bed.

created a sensation in Chicago and in parts of the South in August, 1905. The woman shot herself twice in the right side after a slurring tour with a man believed to have been her brother, whose name at that time was said to be Henry R. Lyttle. The woman was registered as "Mrs. Henry Glover, Montgomery, Ala." The suicide's identity was established when Mrs. Evander Lyttle of Murfreesboro, Tenn., came to Chicago and identified the body as that of her daughter. The mother failed to throw light on the mysterious man who had been the girl's companion.

Sister's Tragic Escape. Further facts concerning the identity of Lyttle, published in The News, credited him with being a member of the First Tennessee regiment of volunteers in the Spanish-American war. He is also said to have been mixed up in the shooting of a negro in Chicago in August, 1905, following a trip through the Tenderloin with a girl he claimed was his sister. The latter committed suicide a few days later in the Auditorium annex. Lyttle's father is said to have spent a fortune to clear him of his trouble.

MARY LYTTLE'S SUICIDE. CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The suicide of Mary Lyttle at the auditorium annex

OPERATION MAY SAVE LIFE OF THE INJURED CADET

Has Been Paralyzed For Three Weeks From Football Accident

CHANCES STRONGLY FAVOR HIS RECOVERY

Fracture of Vertebrae Resulted In Dangerous Pressure on Spinal Cord

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 7.—After lying in an almost totally paralyzed condition since the injury to his spine in the Villa Nova-Navy football game three weeks ago yesterday, Midshipman Karl D. Wilson, quarterback of the Naval academy football team, was operated on this afternoon in an effort to save his life. The operation was considered successful and the chances strongly favor his recovery, it is said.

After once abandoning the operation as practically hopeless, the surgeons at the naval hospital held another consultation this morning and determined to perform it. Wilson, who has retained his mental faculties, was anxious for the operation. The operation consumed nearly two hours. It was performed by Surgeons Stokes, Iden, Woods and Assistant Surgeon Cottle, of the navy.

Later the following statement was issued: "The operation was successful in every way. Parts of the laminae of the sixth, fifth, fourth, and third cervical vertebrae were removed, and pressure from bone fragments relieved. The easing of the spinal cord was opened and a careful inspection made. It was found that the cord had been dangerously compressed beneath the fourth vertebrae due to the dislocation of that vertebrae. All indications were favorable, and the patient left the table in excellent condition with his chances decidedly improved. The outcome depends on the extent of the original damage to the spinal cord."

It was found that above and below this point of pressure the cord was perfectly normal. Experiments showed that while smaller and much compressed there were some pulsations and signs of life in the injured portion of the cord.

MAY SAVE HIS LIFE.

UTICA, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Joseph F. Pickering of the Casenovia seminary football team whose spine was fractured in a game with Colgate yesterday was successfully operated upon at Faxon hospital this morning. The operation disclosed the fact that both sides of the arch of the seventh cervical vertebrae had been broken and the spinal cord lacerated. The compressing bone was removed and following the operation the surgeon said that the lad had a fair chance to recover.

All Occupants Drown Before Help Could be Summoned to Rescue Them.

BODIES NOT FOUND.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—An automobile containing several persons plunged into the Chicago river tonight at Jackson boulevard and the occupants of the machine were drowned. No bodies have been recovered. A witness to the accident reported to the police that the bridge at Jackson boulevard had been opened for a steamer to pass and that the automobile, which was approaching the bridge at a rapid rate struck the abutment, turned over and fell into the river with all its occupants. A moment later he saw a man and woman struggling in the water, the woman clinging to the bridge. She screamed for help and a bridge tender threw out life preservers but both victims sank.

Firemen and police reached the scene soon after the accident and began to drag for the bodies. The witness to the accident reported that the automobile contained four persons.

PRESIDENT TREATED LIKE "HOME FOLKS" AND SPENDS QUIET SUNDAY

Augusta Makes no Demands Upon Tired Traveler For Speeches or the Like.

PRESENTS A CUP.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 7.—President Taft enjoyed a real rest today and will start for Washington tomorrow afternoon, greatly refreshed by the two busy days he will have spent in Augusta where he has been treated as "home folks." This was the first Sunday since he has been "on the road" that President Taft was not called upon for a sermon or an address of some sort and he appreciated the novelty of the change.

After a long night's sleep the president arose late and attended morning services at the church of the Good Shepherd where he heard a sermon by Rev. Dr. William Johnson, the pastor. Mr. Taft attended this Episcopal church when he was here last winter waiting for his term of office to begin. The president's entertainment in Augusta has varied a little from that extended him as president-elect. He had luncheon today at the home of Langdon Thomas with twenty-five residents of the city. During the luncheon Mr. Taft was presented with a silver loving cup as a remembrance of his golf days on the course of the Augusta country club. The cup was inscribed:

"Eighteen holes—88," indicating the president's best record on the local links. After luncheon the president had an automobile ride and returned to the home of Major Joseph B. Cumming, his host, for an afternoon tea arranged by Mrs. Cumming. The day ended with a quiet dinner for twelve at the Cumming home.

Tomorrow the president will spend the morning at golf and at 1 o'clock will open the Georgia-Carolina fair, leaving at 2.30 p. m. for Florence.

HALF BEAUTIFUL WOMAN SUES HER BEAUTY DOCTOR FOR THE OTHER HALF

One Side of Her Face Pink and Babylike and Other Sallow and Wrinkled.

WANTED AS EXHIBIT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Like the heroine in a recent novel, who found herself only half rejuvenated when her beauty doctor suddenly died, Mrs. Ella Houghton, a wealthy widow living at the Hotel Ansonia, appeared yesterday in the West Side court before Magistrate Krotel, as complainant against Mrs. Ella Harris of California. Mrs. Houghton was two-faced—on one side was the pink of twenty on a plump rose cheek, on the other the sallowness of forty on a fleshless, loomish skin.

Mrs. Harris effected the semi-transformation, but stopped because her "subject" refused to exhibit herself to her neighbors and society friends in the hotel as a "demonstration." "I agreed to make an exhibition of myself when the job was finished," explained Mrs. Houghton. "That was more than a woman of my standing could afford to do, but I felt I ought to be grateful. In spite of the agony it caused me, I suffered for two weeks and was willing to suffer that much longer, but Mrs. Harris refused to finish the job."

"Mrs. Houghton is one of a group of six women who clubbed together to take the treatment at $200 each. I have been revealing faces in San Francisco for fifteen years and many of my customers come from this city," said Mrs. Harris, who was represented by lawyer Chamberlin. "Mrs. Crosby, a friend of Mrs. Houghton, who introduced me to her, is one of my clients. You see how exquisite her complexion is."

Mrs. Crosby indorsed Mrs. Harris' statement, and then Magistrate Krotel heard the accusation of Almathit Vandiver, counsel for the county medical society, who charged Mrs. Harris with practicing medicine without a license. Mrs. Harris denied she was a practitioner. She said her treatment was a scientific process, discovered by her. She denied that either knife or medicine was used. She said she was a chemist and had a diploma from the state of California.
