

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Invitations to the wedding of Miss Florence Weatherly and Mr. Henry Westall which have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. James Weatherly were received in the city yesterday by the friends of the young people. The wedding takes place November 25th at nine o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, 522 South Twentieth street, Birmingham, Ala. After December 1st Mr. and Mrs. Westall will be at home in Asheville. Miss Weatherly is quite well known in Asheville where she has visited many times, and is both pretty and attractive. Mr. Westall was given a rousing send-off Wednesday evening at the Dutch supper given by the Tallekeester club. The supper was announced for Monday evening, but owing to unforeseen circumstances was postponed until the later date. Mr. Willis G. Horne decorated the invitations with original and pertinent caricatures.

The Mountain Meadows Inn closes about December 1, although there are still a number of guests at the inn. The warm weather has prolonged the season and has also made luncheon and dinner parties possible. A dinner takes place every evening at the inn which will be attended by several people who are prominent socially and others will follow until the end of the season.

Mrs. Charles Malcolm Platt entertained last evening at her residence on French Broad avenue with a dinner. Large pink chrysanthemums handsomely decorated the table. Mrs. Platt's guests were Mrs. William Henry Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Junius G. Adams, Mrs. Theodore P. Malloy, Mrs. Rufus Woodcock, Mr. and Mrs. John Acee, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Smith, Mr. J. Harvey Horton of Philadelphia, Mr. C. F. White and Mr. Perry Cobb.

The wedding of Miss Susanne Henning of Louisville, Ky., and New York and Marquis Antoine de Charette of Paris yesterday at St. Patrick's cathedral, New York, by the most Reverend Archbishop Farley, will arouse more than passing interest in this state. Miss Henning is one of the most beautiful women in society and comes of a distinguished family. The Marquis de Charette's mother was Antoinette, daughter of the late Andrew Polk of Tennessee, whose grandfather, Thomas Polk of North Carolina, was one of the signers of the Mecklenburg declaration. The distinguished Bishop-General of the Confederacy, Leonidas Polk, was his great-uncle and through the Polks he is closely related to the late James K. Polk, of Tennessee, president of the United States. In North Carolina his relatives are scarcely less distinguished, his maternal aunt, Mary Polk, having become the wife of the eminent statesman-jurist and cabinet officer, George E. Badger, while still another aunt was the wife of Hon. George Davis of Wilmington, attorney general of the Confederacy in President Davis' cabinet. One of his great uncles was Governor William Hawkins of North Carolina. His relatives in Raleigh include the Badgers, Hawkins, Haywoods, Branches, Hogans, Devareuxs, and other prominent families. Antoinette, Marquis de Charette, was born in Paris in July, 1880. He is a member of the famous family of the old French regime, being descended from King Charles X.

The Young Women's Auxiliary of the First Baptist church will hold a meeting in the lecture room of the church this evening at 7:30. All members and friends are requested to be present.

The meeting of the senior ladies' missionary society of the First Presbyterian church was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of Miss Adie Gilliam, in Grove park. The meeting was one of the most interesting ever held by the society. Dr. Smith described in detail the work being carried on by the home mission in the North Carolina mountains, of the orphanages and organization of churches in the different counties, etc. The address was full of interest to those engaged in the missionary work. There was a large attendance and the meeting was most successful. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Mrs. Theodore P. Davidson entertains with a luncheon tomorrow at her home on Liberty street.

The bowling tournament will be continued at the Masonic club evening. The club house will accommodate the usual large crowd, principally the friends of those who are looking in the tournament.

The mixed foursome golf tournament will be continued tomorrow afternoon at the Country club, and will be followed by tea and supper parties.

Mrs. J. E. Alexander has issued invitations for a bridge party to be given next Tuesday afternoon at the Hatery Park hotel in honor of Mrs. W. Ashley deWolfe, of New York. Mr. and Mrs. deWolfe spent a part of last winter here and will spend several weeks here at present.

A large reception was given last night in Baltimore by Dr. and Mrs. Rodney Rush Swape to the members of All Soul's parish. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and a collation was served.

STILL ANOTHER WOMAN IN WARRINER SHORTAGE

She May be Able to Tell What Became of Half Million He Embezzled.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 11.—The mystery which envelops the relations of Charles L. Warriner, the admitted local treasurer of the Big Four railroad, with the two women and a man whom he asserts have systematically blackmailed him for several years, was deepened late today when it was learned from one of the railway officials that another woman, whose name has not been previously mentioned, was involved.

This official, who has been specially detailed to investigate the $443,000 shortage, confessed to Warriner, stated that the woman who enters as a new factor into the case had a far as he knew, no criminal connection with the embezzlement, but could give important information in regard to the disposal of the stolen money. Her name has been given to Prosecutor Hunt and she will probably be subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury.

FREIGHT ACCIDENTS.

Freight train No. 163 from the Tennessean holds the records for collisions during the past week. It has met with an accident. The first of these three occurred Wednesday night at Blantyre when three freight cars were overturned. They were heavily loaded with lumber. The train, however, did not interfere with the passenger service.

Children's REEFERS and COATS

at 20 per Cent Discount

These coats are the victim of weather circumstances. It is no fault of theirs that they are sacrificed, for they are the newest and best of the grade in the market.

It's "blame the weather man" for us and the coats it's "thank the weather man" for you the purchaser. He has served us from the Spring bottle when we expected Fall medicine.

There are over a hundred of these children's coats in Copenhagen and navy blue, brown, wine, cardinal and shepherds plaid; and the prices $5.00 to $10.00 are now reduced to $4.00 to $8.00; sizes 2 to 14.

We have never had a better assorted nor better quality stock of children's coats than these, and it hurts to sacrifice them. The weather has been warm, and we can't blame you for not buying before, but you can blame yourself now for failing to grasp this bargain opportunity. Winter is inevitable sooner or later.
