ALLEGED BUNCO STEERER FREED

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., April 30.—John Wolff arrested in New York several weeks ago as an accomplice in what was alleged to be one of the most gigantic swindling schemes on record, in which over $150,000 was fleeced from victims brought to this city and inveigled into a crooked race track scheme was discharged after a hearing today. Henry Wagner, a New York merchant, who lost $10,000, appeared against the man. He admitted that he was in St. Augustine under an assumed name. Wagner claims to have been drugged and his memory was defective.

The cultivated potato is a native of the Chilean and Peruvian Andes but extends in original type as far north as Colorado, where a wild form is occasional. Wild varieties of the potato exist in many parts all over the world, but nowhere was it cultivated before the discovery of the western continent save in North and South America. It was taken to Europe, probably from Peru to Spain, early in the sixteenth century. It seems Sir Francis Drake introduced it into England in 1586, though Sir Walter Raleigh is said to have done this the year before. It was first regarded as a curiosity and so remained until the latter part of the eighteenth century, though the Royal Society of London in 1663 recommend-
