SOCIETY and Personal

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Robin Kennett and Dr. Arthur Pritchard was made yesterday at a luncheon given by Miss Myrtle Rollins and will be received with interest by the numbers of friends of the young people in Asheville and in the state. The intimates of Miss Kennett and Dr. Pritchard have known of the engagement for some time and it was rumored in these columns several months ago but to have gone further would have defeated the pretty plan of the luncheon and formal announcement on that occasion. Miss Kennett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Kennett who have made Asheville their home for several years. Miss Kennett is unusually pretty and attractive and is so well beloved and known that to expatiate further upon her charm is unnecessary. Miss Kennett has been a member of the choir of Central Methodist church and her fine voice has made her a valuable addition to Asheville's musical circles. Dr. Pritchard is a son of Judge Jeter C. Pritchard and is prominently connected in the state, a physician of repute and associate of Dr. W. D. Hilliard. The marriage takes place on the evening of June 9th at 8:30 o'clock, at the residence of the bride. Miss Myrtle Guder will be the maid of honor and Mr. Robert R. Reynolds the best man. Miss Ruth Wiley will sing during the ceremony. The luncheon yesterday was charmingly arranged and pink roses, the bride's favorite color, being in fragrant profusion from every point of vantage. Smilax formed delicate drapery for windows and doors, making an effective background for the delicate roses. A wedding bell hung pendant from the chandelier, was constructed of foliage and orange blossoms. The lights were shaded with pink, and the place cards were appropriately decorated with diminutive bridal couples driven by Cupid. Small pink satin heart-shaped boxes containing rice were the souvenirs. "Kennett-Pritchard, June 9th, 1910" was inscribed on each box. Miss Rollins' guests were Miss Robin Kennett, Miss Ruth Brown, Miss Kate Nichols, Miss Myrtle Guder, Miss Lillian Weaver, Miss Catherine Bondles, Miss Florence Barnard and Miss Elizabeth Arbogast.

The young ladies who are at present guests at the Manor, were given a dance last evening which was largely attended by the young people of Asheville. Miss Alice Brown, Miss Marie Ball, Miss Mary Alshon, Miss Eleanor Raoul, Miss Winifred Lawrence, Miss Charlotte Smith, Miss Cornelia Smith and the Misses Newman were the several guests of honor.

The caddies of the Country club come into their own this week and the occasion will be marked by one of the biggest crowds of the season. The long suffering caddies who have chased recalcitrant balls over high ways and "by-ways" for an unending length of time, will have their own tournament in other words they will be the "honorees" (what ever that) on this occasion, given by the members of the Country club in appreciation of their services. The prize will not be the usual silver cup, but a trophy much more to the point—a purse. A purse holding the contributions of so many, and the membership of the club is large, should be truly worth while, and to doubt the cordial will contest the tournament to the bitter-sweet end. The day will be duly announced.

Miss Lelaine Oates gave a small tea yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Jean Coltrain, of Concord, N. C., who is at present her guest. Miss Coltrain is a member of the Kappa Delta Sorority and only the Asheville members of the sorority were invited. The guests were Miss Maude Holt, of Charlotte, Miss Gertrude Wilhens, of Danville, Miss Mary and Miss Jessie Stikeleather, Miss Katherine Mason and Mrs. Henry Westall.

Mrs. Alfred S. Barnard entertained with a luncheon yesterday at her residence on Watauga street.

The girl friends of Miss Robin Kennett have arranged a series of showers and informal entertainments in her honor during the week. Miss Beth Arbogast has issued invitations for a dinner in honor of Miss Kennett, Tuesday evening, which will take place at the home of the former on Montford avenue. Miss Ruth Wiley will entertain with a novelty shower Wednesday afternoon and Miss Myrtle Guder will give a linen shower Saturday afternoon. A week from Monday the girl friends of Miss Kennett will be entertained informally at her home during the afternoon.

The Study club, which has been called the "Globe Trotters," will meet at the home of Prof. and Mrs. R. J. Tighe, June 2nd, in the evening. At the last meeting, held during the week, Holland and the Rhine were the subjects, Mrs. Tighe giving interesting talks on these countries, Switzerland, Oberammergau and the Passion Play will be the subjects of the next meeting. The members of the club are included in Prof. Tighe's party which will go abroad the latter part of June. The following are members: Miss Laura Rows, Miss Lela Gay Williamson, Miss Malie Miller, Miss Corrie Wagener, Miss Eugenia Rows, Miss Frances Suttle, Miss Craven.

The result of the recent meeting of the committee on entertainment at the Country club will be received with general satisfaction and the members of the club have an exceedingly pleasant prospect to look forward to, during the long summer. The dinner-dances have won the day, and will be an interesting innovation. The dinner-dances will be given on alternate Saturdays, commencing June 4th. The small tables must be reserved in advance and will be placed conveniently on the broad verandas. The reservations must be made not later than the Friday previous to the dance and the tickets are a dollar each. The dinners will be especially prepared for those occasions, the menu including various dishes famous in lands where the culinary art is not yet a lost one. Some of the viands of old New Orleans, the recipes for which will be given by Southern members of the club, will grace the board. The Italian recipes of the noted singer, Mme. Tetrazzini, will also be attempted. The dinners will be "different," and each one is anticipated with curiosity and interest. The dance will follow in the large reception hall of the club. The orchestra will be stationed on the veranda, on which the long windows open. A special car will be placed for the convenience of the guests at the terminus of the Charlotte street line. The dinner dances "will fill a long felt want" and their inauguration will be an auspicious occasion from which few members of the club will be missing.

Mrs. Rufus Woodcock entertained in honor of her sister and brother, Miss Agnes Pons and Mr. Donald Pons, last evening at her home in Grove park, with a dance. The exterior of the residence and grounds was illuminated with Japanese lanterns which were effective and artistic. Under a huge Japanese parasol at one end of the veranda, punch was served. A buffet supper and beer were served during the evening also, on the veranda. The house was beautifully decorated with foliage and masses of field daisies and pink roses. There were forty guests.

The faculty and students of the Normal and Collegiate Institute have issued invitations for the commencement exercises which begin June third and last for several days. A feature will be the presentation of "The Taming of the Shrew," Shakespeare's well known comedy, by the graduates. The cast will be announced during the week. The following is the program of the commencement exercises:

M. C. A. auditorium Thursday evening, June second, at eight-thirty o'clock, Asheville, North Carolina.

Graduates: Pearl Gomett, Allie Revis, Lillian Sutphin, Lottie E. Williams.

Reception, Nurses' Home, Friday evening, June third, 8 to 11 o'clock.

The most delightful outing in the country on Friday. The straw ride through the shady green woods added much to the pleasure of the day. While the children played a delicious luncheon was spread under the trees which all enjoyed with fine appetites and returned well content with the day. The school will close on Monday, after awarding the prizes and certificates to re-open in September.

The semi-finals of the men's golf tournament was played yesterday afternoon at the Country club. Mr. Herbert Brown won from Mr. J. E. Rumbough, three up, and two to play. Mr. J. A. Burckell won from Mr. E. C. Sawyer three up and one to play. The finals will be played Wednesday afternoon between Mr. Brown and Mr. Burckell.

Miss Mary Alice Tennent is at home for the holidays from Greensboro State Normal school. Mr. and Mrs. James M. Guider, Jr. who are in Henderson county for several days, return to the city Tuesday.

Miss Helen and Miss Therese Chapman return today from Washington, D. C., where they have been at school.

The Most Attractive of Ready-to-Wear Apparel Is Here

The Showing That Has No Equal In Point of Variety
