Will Also Endeavor to Get Even by Making Attack on Senator Simmons

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 29.—Much interest attached to the announcement that ex-United States Senator Marlon Butler, who is coming in for most cutting denunciation by democratic campaigners as one of the leading factors in the North Carolina republican campaign, will make a campaign speech in Raleigh November 4 in which he will explain his connection with the New York Evening Post advertisement of the North Carolina bond syndicate for all classes of repudiated bonds to be entrusted to them for collection, and also make a general indictment of the character of United States Senator F. M. Simmons who inaugurated the bitterest denunciations of Butler.

SMUGGLERS MUST RUN RISK OF PROSECUTION AFTER PAYING DUTIES

Department Will Grant Immunity Merely on Payment of Money

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Merely "getting the money" will not satisfy the United States government in undervaluation customs fraud cases where there is evidence to convict the offenders. The treasury department today officially expressed its policy in a reply sent to a man in New York who asked if the government would be willing to settle all cases on a money basis. The reply which was approved by Secretary MacVeagh is in part as follows: "It is not the policy of the department to permit guilty parties to escape so long as the department received the cash which is coming to it."

TWO CHILDREN KILLED IN PECULIAR ACCIDENTS

Fathers in Both Cases Were Unintentional Accessories to Their Death

GREENSBORO, Oct. 29.—As a result of peculiar accidents near Winston-Salem today two children are dead, the fathers of the victims in each instance being the unwilling accessories. At Pfafftown, J. W. Bennett while gathering his crop of Irish potatoes, threw one about twenty feet intending for it to land in a basket, but it struck his four year old boy over the head. The lad began crying, dropped to the ground and died before physicians could be summoned.

SCORE HURT BY FALLING BLEACHERS AT PRIZE FIGHT

Two Thousand People in Hall Thrown Into Panic By the Accident

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 29.—A score of men were hurt tonight when a high bleacher stand collapsed on the second floor of the Old City hall here, now used as a market house. Three hundred spectators at a boxing exhibition were precipitated into a tangled mass of bodies and splintered wood. The stand is said to have been insufficiently supported by braces and that the collapse was due to the vibrations caused by the boxers during the fight. Two thousand men in the hall were in panic when the collapse came and scores of police restrained spectators from jumping from the windows. Hospital ambulances and police patrol wagons rushed many of the injured to local hospitals where injuries were dressed. Police officials and Sheriff Bruff of this county jumped into the ring and after a strenuous effort succeeded in reassuring the frightened crowd. None of the injured are seriously hurt.

At Salisbury his train came in immediately after the one bearing Vice President Sherman who had just concluded a three days' campaign tour of the state and at the request of the vice president, Dr. Washington boarded the Sherman car. The greeting of the vice president was, "I, too, am down here converting sinners."

DEPUTIES REPEAT SCENES OF FRENCH REVOLUTION

Briand's Suppression of Recent Strike Causes Disorder in Chamber

PARIS, Oct. 29.—The debate on the railway strike in which the government has been bitterly attacked in the chamber of deputies by the socialists, took a new dramatic turn tonight. During the session, which was not only the most violent in the history of the French parliament but rivaled in disorder and turbulence the sessions of the French revolution, Premier Briand himself was the pivot on which the drama turned and the general verdict tonight is that certain government victory has been changed into possible defeat. Smarting under the repeated attacks of M. Jaures, the leader of the socialists, and others, the premier leaped to his feet and defending the cabinet's suppression of the strike as revolutionary outbreaks, exclaimed: "If the actual laws had been insufficient we would not have hesitated to resort even to illegality for the purpose of preserving the fatherland."
