The wedding of Miss Janie Devine and Mr. J. N. Streetman occurred Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Lawrence's church in Haywood street. The ceremony was performed by Father Marion. The wedding was very quiet and simple, there being no attendants, and there were no guests. Miss Devine has many friends in the city who will be interested to learn of her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Streetman left on the afternoon train for Knoxville, Tenn. where the former is connected with The Knoxville Sentinel, one of the well known papers of the South.

Dr. Alice E. Johnson entertained with an informal supper Friday evening, at which a few of her most intimate friends were present. The table was decorated with pink Malmalson carnations, and the souvenirs were of the same.

Those taking part in the program will be Miss Gertrude Parker, Miss Pearl Shope, Miss Grace Brown, Miss Bettie Moore, Miss Beale Owenby, Miss Annie Senguberger, Miss Myrtle Logan, Miss Ruth Grady, Mrs. Marie Bryant, Mr. William Jones, and Mr. Starnes. Miss Viola Owenby and Miss Eva Blythe will play two piano numbers. The recital will be of special interest and the program will be published at a later date.

Shepard, Jr. The Country club is usually well filled Saturday afternoons, but yesterday there were many more people than usual. No tournaments have been announced for the near future and probably until the very cold weather is over, will not be resumed. Several parties of an informal nature will be given by the various members of the club from time to time.

It is being whispered about that perhaps the most beautiful dance ever given in Asheville will take place Easter week. It is to be a "ballet" ball, fancy dress or masquerade on the order of the one given several years ago at the Manor, where it will probably again take place. This ball like the other, will be subscription and will be rather more formal and pretentious than any of recent years. It has been so long since a ball has been given, except the large affairs given annually at the Battery Park and Manor, that the proposed masquerade will arouse more than usual interest. Society has taken to teas and dinners and not until last summer when the summer set suddenly loomed on the social horizon and emerged from ob-division of the nursery, were there any dances at all, and then, they were most informal. The ball will be arranged by several prominent members of society, who will issue the invitations. If the Easter dance is given according to the present plan, and really materializes, it will be decidedly the most brilliant affair which has taken place in Asheville within some years.

At the two services at Central Methodist church today, Christmas music will be sung by the choir: "Sing, O Sing, this Blessed Morn," by Rogers, and a unison chorus, "There were Shepherds," will be sung at the morning service, and at the evening service the male quartet will sing the folk-song, "Silent Night, Holy Night," and "Stars Are Brightly Beaming."
