

Social and Personal

The announcement of the wedding of Miss Jessie Hattermer of Montgomery and Mr. Basil Valentine of Asheville, which occurred Monday afternoon in Montgomery, will pleasantly surprise their numbers of friends in this city. Mrs. Hattermer and her daughters, Misses Hulda and Jessie Hattermer, have spent the summers in this city for several years, usually occupying a residence in Cumberland avenue. Mr. Valentine is the manager of the Hattermer Quarry company of this city and is one of the most highly esteemed of the younger business men of the city, and is prominent among the younger set. Mr. and Mrs. Valentine, who have been in Atlanta since the wedding, are expected to arrive in Asheville within several days and will then issue formal announcements of the wedding. The following account is taken from The Montgomery Advertiser: "A quiet marriage of Monday, but one of great interest throughout the state was that of Mr. William B. Valentine of Asheville, N. C., and Miss Jessie Mae Hattermer, which was solemnized at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon at St. John's Episcopal church. The bride was lovely in a going-away gown of blue cloth and a chic blue velvet hat trimmed with blue plumes. There were no attendants. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate family by Rev. E. E. Cobbs. Immediately afterwards, Mr. and Mrs. Valentine left for Atlanta from whence they will go to Asheville, N. C., where they will make their home. The marriage which will be quite a surprise to many friends, was to have taken place in the spring though the engagement had not been announced. The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. J. L. Hattermer, is a beautiful girl possessing in addition to personal beauty, many fine qualities of mind and heart which have endeared her to a large circle of friends, who regret that her marriage will take her to another city to reside. She is also an accomplished musician. Mr. Valentine is a successful young business man of Asheville, N. C., and is popular in both business and social circles. He has a host of friends who will extend a cordial welcome to his bride. She is, however, quite a favorite in Asheville, where she spends every summer at the summer home of her mother, Mrs. J. L. Hattermer.

The mixed foursome golf tournament will be commenced this afternoon at the Country club at half after three o'clock. The cups are being presented by Dr. Charles S. Jordan and Mr. Frank Hewitt. There are quite a number of entries and much interest is being taken in the tournament. The following will play: Dr. and Mrs. Jordan, Mr. Edward I. Frost and Miss Eleanor Morrison, Mr. Taylor and Miss Rees, Mr. Alfred S. Barnard and Miss Ethel Reeves, Mr. Herbert Brown and Mrs. Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Brown, Mr. Julius G. Adams and Miss Meade.

The Current Literature club, will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Brewster Phillips in Chestnut St. The study of Henry IV will be continued.

Miss Mae Rice of Candler entertained with a dinner the latter part of the week at her home in Candler. There were eight guests and the occasion was one of special enjoyment.

At Lenoir in Upper Egypt, Frederick S. Inham, the writer, has made a startling discovery, nothing less than that the hobble skirt is five thousand years old and that it prevailed as the ruling fashion through eleven dynasties. It had divine sanction. All the goddesses wear 'em in the statues, from Hathor, the goddess of love, whose skirt is particularly tight, down to the lion headed and cat headed divinities. Even Isis, the Wife of Osiris, even Mut (not Jeff and Mutt), the wife of Amenon, wore hobbles. And what a noble line of hobbled women, from the wife of Cleopatra to the wife of Ramesses III, from Seshak-nofru to Cleopatra!

Miss Dorothy Lethbridge, who gives a recital this evening at the Auditorium, arrived yesterday and is a guest at the Battery Park hotel. Miss Lethbridge, although still very young, impresses one as possessing unusual temperament, rather than of the Slav than the Saxon. Her features are strongly molded and lighted by eyes of singular beauty, of the deep blue color peculiar to Russians, their lambent depths stirred by the sympathy of her subject. A heavy mass of dark hair completes the type as well beloved of artists. Miss Lethbridge's hands are perhaps her most beautiful feature, and would indicate the artistic temperament. Power is suggested by the firmness and largeness of the hand. One is later conscious of the sensitiveness of them, that requires a response to every thought and impression speaking dumbly. Miss Lethbridge robbed of the music which inspires her, and in repose, resembles any other well bred and healthy English girl of athletic build. Miss Lethbridge is the daughter of Sir Wroth and Lady Lethbridge of England. She, however, has spent the greater part of her young life in Germany studying under Edward Schreiner, who, by the way, with her manager, Mr. Attridge Mahon of New York, is directing her first American tour, and accompanied her to Asheville. The European press has been loud in its praises of the ability of Miss Lethbridge as a pianist and have predicted a brilliant future for her. The recital this evening will be well attended by the music lovers of Asheville.

On account of sickness the "house warming" social which was to have been held at 70 North French Broad avenue Friday evening has been postponed until some day next week, the date to be announced later.

The Lee-Jackson day celebration at the court house at noon today will be one of interest as it is expected to be largely attended as usual. The Daughters of the Confederacy will serve the usual dinner after the addresses are made and the crosses presented, at which the Confederate Veterans will be the guests of honor. The following is the program:

Prayer—Dr. R. F. Campbell.
"Savannah River"—Confederate Choir.
Address—Dr. C. W. Byrd.
Reading—Miss Elizabeth Ramsey.
Presentation of Crosses to the Veterans.
"My Old Kentucky Home"—Confederate Choir.

The children of the Confederacy will meet in the lower hall of the court house at a quarter to twelve o'clock, and will march in a body to the court room above. The children, who will be excused from the public schools for the occasion, are Pauline Smathers, Agnes and Esther Brown, Mildred Baird, Marie Rich, Georgia Bonnan, Christine Reed, Martha

NOTED CRIMINAL TO HIGHER COURT

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 18.—The last chapter in the history of a noted criminal of a quarter of a century ago was written today in the death at a local hospital of John H. Audemont, convicted in 1884 of taking $30,000 from the New Orleans sub treasury where he was a clerk.

Under the eyes of the secret service men set to catch the thief, Audemont passed several thousand dollars in mutilated currency to a confederate on the outside of the building. Audemont served a five year term.

WILL ABANDON NAVAL STATIONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The administration is authorized to abandon and dispose of the naval reservations at Culberson, San Juan, Porto Rico; Port Royal S. C.; New London, Conn.; and Sackett's Harbor, N. Y., under action taken by the house committee on naval affairs today. This is at the suggestion of the navy department that these stations no longer are necessary. The committee will vote Friday on the program for increase of the navy.

BURROWS WOULD GIVE LORIMER SEAT

of the Lorimer votes had been obtained by bribery.

Discussing the part played by Lee O'Neill Brown, the minority leader in the Illinois senate, Mr. Burah declared that without his thirty democratic cohorts Lorimer's election would have been impossible.

Brown was Elated.

"The election could not have been pulled off without fixing Mr. Brown," he said in homesy phrase.
"From the hour that the senator decided to become a candidate a stream of corruption began to flow and it has never ceased. It has gone into the courts; it has affected juries; it has broken down lawyers; it has left broken reputations in its wake. From the beginning there has been evidence of combination and a well prepared scheme. This was not the result of an accident; but evidence of the organizing ability of a powerful mind."
