WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.-Dispatches to the respective ministers of Peru and Ecuador in Washington from their home governments give different explanations of the clash on the international boundary in which several persons were killed and which threatens a renewal of the strife between the two countries.

Dr. Arizaga, minister from Ecuador, made public today the contents of a cablegram received from his government, indicating that Ecuador had no troops on the border and was only protecting a fall with its local police. The official dispatch is as follows:

"Peruvian troops invaded Ecuadorian territory, Chacras village, in order to liberate four Peruvian crimi nals held under custody there. They slew two policemen and some women wounded seven more people and seiting fire to the house and archives of the local authorities, they went away taking as prisoners some inoffensive peasants, Ecuador had no military force on the frontier." The Peruvian version of the fight placed the blame upon Ecuadorian troops. Minister Arizaga says that beneator has had no military force.
