Mileage For Tickets at All Large Stations

RALEIGH, N. C. Feb. 3 .- At hearing on the mileage book ques-tion by the joint legislative committee on railroads this evening of Baggett's senate bill and two nouse the Southern, Seaboard and Atlantic Coast Line testified that to pull mileage on trains endangered lives of passengers in that the conductors could not properly operate trains with this additional work. Passenger Traffic Manager S. H. Hardwick of the Southern, General Passenger Agent Ryan of the Seaboard, and James H., Pou, counsel for the A. C. L., argued against the proposed legislation. The railroad officials stated that printed forms are being prepared to eliminate the inconvenience caused in waiting for ticket that the revolutionists have crosses agents to write destinations on tickets given in exchange for mileage, and that two ticket windows will be kept open at all principal stations in the future. An early report from the committee is expected.

Against Pledmont County.

In the senate today when the un-favorable report was made on the Piedmont county bill, Senator Poyden offered his minority report signed by four members and it was made a special order for next Thursday at 12 o'clock. There was also the favorable committee report on the bill establishing Avery county out Mitchell, Caldwell and Watauga, and Senator Sigmon offered an amendment insisting on immediate action. There was objection by Senators Pharr, Gardner and others, and the bill was made a special order for next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. During the debate Senator Brown, chairman of the joint finance com-mittee, made a vigorous appeal to the senators to seriously consider the state's finances in the light of pauper countles, which, he said, is the WASHINGTON, Feb. 3-The acute revolutionary situation along the northern border of Mexico today moved the American government to rush twelve additional troops of cavbills requiring railroads to have mile-age pulled on trains, conductors or neutrality of the Uhited States. The American military forces will prevent not only the movement of revolutionary bands from this country into Mexico, but also will prohibit defeated rebels with arms from seeking refuge on the territory of the United States. This action was based upon strong representations by the Merican government to the effect that armed bands of revolutionists have been entering Mexico at isolated places along the southern boundary of the United States. Furthermore it was declared the Rio Grande from Mexico, entering the United States for the purpose of making their way undisturbed through American territory and then re-entering Mexico for the purpose of operating against a strategic point. > WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.-After series of thrilling experiences. Sen ator Borah, supported by progressive republicans and democratic senators. made tremendous advances through the lines of the old guard republicans and placed the resolution for the election of senators by direct vote of the people in a most advantageous position squarely in front of the enemy's After taking a number of rebuffs, the Idaho senator, with persistence not often witnessed in the senate, pounded away until he landed his resolution in place on the program and it must come up every day as the unumlished business. The moment the Lorimer case was laid Borah clamored for recognition, today, Senators Nelson and Vice President Sperman saw Selson first and gave him the floor He moved to take up the bill to re gulate the leasing of Alaskan coal and, whereupon Mr. Borah moved to lay that motion on the table which failed 36 to 41. Most senators thought this settled the question. After the senate had proceeded with the Alaskan bill Mr. Nelson gave way to Senator Warner to make a motio that the senate adourn over Monday Mr. Berah jumped into the fray again He said he would object and that he did so because it had become ap-parent that senators opposed to his resolution would not give considera-tion to it if they could help it. He demanded a roll call on the motion to adjourn until Monday and this fime he won by a small margin.
