Mother De Planck and the ninters and boarders were prezent, and greatly enjoyed the concert. Afterward a dence was given and refreshments were served. The play was clever und caused much merriment. It was called "The Census Miss Mary Bellmer of Morganton is and "Kathleen Mavourneen" was sung by Miss Ruth Gray, who responded to an encore with "The Dear Homeland." Miss Juliet Meriwether sang "The Harp That Warfield, who have been guests at the Once Through Tara's Hall," and Battery Park hotel for several days. "Shamrock Land" was sung by Miss Cuthbert Dufour. Miss Macartney played "The Coulin" on the violin and recited "The Fog." An Irish jig was one of the hits of the evening and was gracefully danced by Miss Gwendelyn Macartney, Eileen Sweet. Mary Anderson and Cuthbert Dufour. There were a number of piano and vocal seles which rounded out a very pleasant entertainment.

The dance last evening at the Battery Park hotel was one of the most deligniful of the winter and the palm room was crowded until at the height of the evening dancing was difficult. The orchestra added to the success of the dance by playing a number of Irish airs in compliment to the day, which made must inspiring stwo-

> Wilmington Star's Account of Election Shows Rare Unanimity Among the Voters.

The advocates of the commission form of government in this city have been greatly encouraged by the overwhelming majority which Wilming-Newton, of Asheville, have returned ton cast for commission government last Wednesday, when only 22 votes were cast against the new form of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Longyear, of government out of a total of 1174. Those who favor the change claim that while Asheville will not give of measure will carry by gratifying fig-Waynesville, is visiting Miss Ethel ures. Following is The Wilmington Star's account of the election "the

"Ninety-nine out of practically evcity for a several days' visit to ery one hundred citizens of Wilmington, who manifested enough interest in their wn municipal affairs to go to the polls and give voice to their sentimenta, voted for the commission plan of government at the election held in this city yesterday under authority of an act of the general assembly at its recent session, giving the highest and most emphatic en-dorsement to the measure which dorsement to the measure which seems to meet all requirements of patricia, progressive Wilmington.

"It was practically unanimous and a great fictory for popular government. All cliques and factions united in a quiet determination to do something for their city and incidentally out hurran and huzman, they went to the polls and rounded out a good day's work for old Wilmington. If there was opposition, it manifested itself only in spots, the fourth ward casting ten of the 22 votes in the entire city against the charter. For an off-election and with the more or less confusion about registration and the fact that the campaign was of less than ten days' duration, no higher endorsement could be given to the bill than is contained in the official who has been in Hendersonville since returns which show 1.152 for, and only 22 against the commission form. his cousin, Mr. Barber, of the Inland It was one time the people of Wilmington were singularly united and it was generally remarked that this was one occasion that the city had come into its own.

The Australian ballot was used and while a total of 17 ballots were mutilated and had to be thrown out, all which really brings the vote for the ew charter up to 1,169 out of Mrs. Fred Cene formerly Miss total vote of 1,181. This vote is conwith the general city election when there is no oppositoin. In fact, the vote is larger and even more decisive than the most ardent supporters of the bill could expect under all the adols and Mrs. George Hackney and as tabulated last night by Chairman children are expected in the city next Cameron F. De Wolf Hopper With Original New York Cast Guaranteed

Wolf Hopper, supported by Miss ouise Dresser and the original New fork company which appeared with im during the long run of "A Matnee Idol" at Daly's and the Lyric theatres, will be seen here March 22

Nothing that Mr. Hopper has done in recent years has won for him anything like the success that has come to him through "A Matinee Idol. Before going to New York the play had a run of one hundred nights in Chicago, and its New York run covered two months at Daly's theatre and then was transferred to the Lyric. where it was continued for two months longer.

The theme of "A Matince Idol." the latest success of De Wolf Hopper in which that popular comedian will soon he seen in this city, is over two hundred and fifty years old. It was evolved as long ago as 1651 by Mo liere, the greatest French playwright

Matinee and Night The greatest of all cartoon come-iles. "Buster Brown," will be with us for two performances Monday. March 27, matinee and night. Already you can hear the little folks talking about "Buster," "Tige" and "Mary Jane." Instead of growing old like most other plays, it seems to gain popularity as the years pass. Whether the answer lies in the fact that it is the only representative play on the stage that appeals to all ages cannot be stated conclusively. The fact remains that no matter how many times t appears in any city it never fails
