

SOCIETY AND PERSONAL

The marriage of Miss Mae Rogers and Mr. Thomas J. Turner occurred yesterday afternoon at the Baptist parsonage, the ceremony being performed by Dr. W. M. Vines. Miss Rogers has made her home with friends in South French Broad avenue, since the death of her parents several years ago. Mr. Carl Rogers, a brother of the bride, is a member of the Citizen force. Miss Rogers was a becoming traveling gown of gray cloth, and a large black hat trimmed with gray ostrich plumes. Mr. and Mrs. Turner left in the afternoon for Columbia and Spartanburg, and on their return will reside in Toledo, where the former is successfully engaged in business.

The appearance of De Wolf Hopper this evening at the Auditorium is an interesting event of the week and there will undoubtedly be a very large audience. It has been rumored that Mr. Hopper has positively declined on his last tour to favor the clamorous audience with "Casey at the Bat," which never will be received with regret. Mr. Hopper has good naturedly responded to the call of "Casey," until at last the tribulations of Casey called upon him and Casey is not out.

The Charlotte Observer yesterday contained the following account of a marriage which occurred Monday evening in Spencer, and which will be of interest to the friends of Mr. J. B. Cline of this city.

A surprise marriage took place at the Presbyterian parsonage at Spencer at half-past eight o'clock tonight. Rev. R. B. Steele officiating, when Miss Wilmer Biss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Biss of Salisbury, an operator in the Bell telephone exchange in this city, became the bride of Mr. James Cline, an employe of the Bell company at Asheville. Mrs. Cline came to Salisbury several days ago and the couple decided to take their friends and relatives unawares. They secured the license, met at the telephone office, and with several friends, drove to Spencer. After the ceremony, they drove to the bride's home in this city and informed her parents of their marriage. They will go to Asheville, their future home, tomorrow. Mrs. Cline is a sister of Mrs. Scott Trotter of Charlotte. The couple had been sweethearts for some time. Mrs. Cline formerly being with the telephone company in this city.
