RAISED FROM A BED OF AGONY

Mrs. Carson, of Argyle Mich. Tells Strange Story of Suffering and How Cardui Cured Her.

Argyle, Mich.—"I had severe pain from female trouble, and was almost blind with pain in my head. I wrote you for advice, which I followed as carefully as possible, and after using seven bottles of Cardui I received great relief."

"I continued to use it and finally was cured and raised from my bed of agony. Cardui saved my life when nothing else would help me, and I can't be thankful enough for what it did for me."

"I recommend it to all my friends and neighbors. Two have already tried it and found relief."

"I thank the Lord for pointing the herbs and for showing you how to prepare Cardui for our good."

"You may be sure I should tell you of my cure such serious cases as Mrs. Carson's—and it is doing it every day. It will reach more quickly and certainly than those women who have no serious symptoms, but are just weak and ailing."

"As a general tonic for women, to improve the appetite and build up the constitution, Cardui is in a class by itself."

"Whether seriously sick, or simply ailing, try Cardui. It will help you. Your druggist will recommend it. Ask him."

TOOK PRACTICE SPIN AND KEPT BICYCLE

Borrowed Wheel to Ride for Enough "to Turn Around" and Failed to Complete Circle.

A rather unusual case of larceny was tried before Justice of the Peace W. A. James, Jr., yesterday afternoon when Grover Chapman was arraigned for the theft of a bicycle from Joe Lawrence, who alleged that he allowed the man to ride the wheel for enough to "turn around" and that the man failed to complete the circle which he started. Chapman claimed that he rode the bicycle only a short distance and that when he returned and found that the owner of it had departed, he left upon the porch of a friend who was with Lawrence at the time the trouble began.

Chapman was bound to Superior court in the sum of $100.

BUNCOMBE MAY GET ADDITIONAL CONVICTS

Suggested That It Would Pay This County to Employ Convicts From Surrounding Counties.

With assurances that the scout party locating the great Central highway from Morehead City to the Tennessee line will be here during the first of next month, the preparations being made for the survey of the "crest of the Blue Ridge highway" at an early date, and with bright prospects ahead for the building of the proposed Asheville-Charlotte highway, the good roads enthusiasm in Buncombe county is rising to a high pitch.

Although the county is well supplied with convicts, an effort will be made to replenish the ranks many fold. Good road enthusiasts will be the next meeting of the board of county commissioners, asking them to endeavor to secure the convicts of several of the counties in the western part of North Carolina that do not maintain chain-gangs. It is said that if the commissioners of Buncombe will guarantee the costs of the court in the cases where defendants are convicted, pay transportation expenses, etc., a large batch of convicts can be secured by this county. It is thought that there would be very little trouble experienced in getting the judges of the different districts to consent to sending the convicts to this county. At present the commissioners of this county only pay transportation charges on convicts, and it is believed those in favor of securing a large force of them, that it would be a good paying proposition for the county to offer to pay the fines and full expenses in order to secure them. It is contended that within a few years time at a comparatively small expense Buncombe could have good roads stretching from border to border in all directions, and that after the great work had been accomplished, the county's own convicts could easily maintain good roads all over the county.
