

DISCUSSION OVER HERESY CHARGES GREW ANIMATED

Two Browns Alleged to Have Denied Virgin Birth of Christ and Resurrection

SIN THING OF GROWTH AS IS ALSO SALVATION

Was One of the Statements in Published Article Which Caused Trouble

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 25.—The heresy charge against Prof. Wm. Adams Brown, of Union seminary, which was ignored by the Presbyterian general assembly, today cropped up again late this afternoon. The Rev. Edwin J. Reinke, of Philadelphia, stirred up the matter over again by moving that the charges against Prof. Brown be considered separately. Dr. Reinke was careful to explain that he was referring only to Professor and not to President Brown. Dr. Reinke demanded that the assembly abolish Prof. Brown for an article contributed to the Harvard Review.

Sin Is a Growth. He then read an extract from the article in question in which Prof. Brown had said that sin and salvation neither came in a flash but the former was caused by the animal nature of man and was a growth just as salvation is a growth. "Salvation comes slowly," wrote Professor Brown, "and does not stay for ever unless you fight to hold it."

"This is abhorrent to me and treason to Jesus Christ," said Dr. Reinke, "so I move you that this assembly express its disapproval of the writings of Dr. Brown."

ROOSEVELT HANDS WISCONSIN PRAISE ON ITS PROGRESS

Declares That Western State Is Model Example for Country

SENATOR LAFOLLETTE GIVEN A BOUQUET

Teddy Says LaFollette Is Leader of Idealists Who Are Also Practical

NEW YORK, May 25.—Ex-President Roosevelt has an article on "Wisconsin: An Object Lesson for the rest of the Union," in the Outlook in which he says in part: "I doubt whether American students of social economics fully realize the extraordinary work that has been accomplished during the last decade and is now being accomplished in the state of Wisconsin under the lead of entirely practical and at the same time zealously enthusiastic workers who have come into active control of the state mainly or largely because of the lead he has given them."

"We can now, at least in many cases look for leadership to Wisconsin when we desire to try to solve the great social and industrial problems of the present and the future instead of being forced always to look abroad."

"I have often listened to well meaning men who have spoken with a certain horror of Wisconsin, as if it were a community engaged in reckless experiment and in the effort to introduce impossible and revolutionary principles of law and government practice. As a matter of fact, it has rarely been my good fortune to meet a body of public men who are more practical and at the same time more obviously earnest in their desire to achieve ideals for social and civic betterment than the public men whom I met at Madison."

PROGRESS TOWARD PEACE IN MEXICO RECEIVES A CHECK

Legislature of One State Refuses to Name Governor Chosen by Madero

LATTER MAY SEND HIS ARMY TO FORCE THEM

Should Other Legislatures Follow This Action Problem Would be Serious

JUAREZ, Mex., May 25.—The weak spot in the peace management between the revolutionists and the federal government; namely the fact that the legislatures of the Mexican states cannot constitutionally be coerced to name as governor any one but their own choice, loomed large today when it was reported that the legislature of Coahuila had refused to install Senor Venustiano Carranza, Madero's choice for provisional governor.

Happened to Coahuila. It is pointed out, may happen elsewhere and though Senor Madero in explaining the situation tonight indicated that the federal government headed by Senor De La Barra would cooperate with him in influencing the legislatures to elect the chosen Maderists, resistance was not impossible. In the action of the legislature of Coahuila in rejecting Senor Carranza and suggesting two other names, Senor Madero sees nothing but an attempt to install a friend in the governorship.

"I have given orders to our troops near Saltillo, the capital of Coahuila, to march upon the city if necessary," said Madero, "but I am sure that the federal government will cooperate with us in making the legislature respond to the real will of the people."

DIAZ FINALLY YIELDS TO DEMANDS OF REBELS AND RESIGNS PRESIDENCY

Dramatic Moment in History of Mexican Republic—Letter of Resignation Received and Accepted in Silence by Chamber of Deputies While Thousands in Streets Wildly Cheer—New Era Begins in Southern Republic

MEXICO CITY, May 25.—President Porfirio Diaz, in a letter read by the president of the chamber of deputies this afternoon, resigned the presidency of the republic of Mexico and at 4:44 o'clock the acceptance of the resignation by the deputies was announced. Of scarcely less popular interest than the resignation, was the assumption of military control of the federal district by Alfredo Robles Dominguez. Madero's personal representative, insuring the handling of popular demonstrations by a leader of the new regime.

Personally, Dominguez commands only a small body of local rebels, but the federal garrison is under orders to make no move whatsoever without his approval. Senor Dominguez said that he could bring 5,000 organized rebel troops into the city within three hours. Their baggage and horses are aboard trains, furnished by the government, at Cuernavaca, Pachuca and Toluca.

Its credit gain for it the respect of the world and order for it an honorable position in the concert of nations; that same people has revolted in armed military bands, stating that my presence in the exercise of the supreme executive power is the cause of this insurrection.

The firemen are determined in their efforts to obtain the 20 per cent increase in wages which they demand. Their position is such, according to H. O. DEMOCRATS TRIED TO START TROUBLE WITH EACH OTHER

Martine of New Jersey and Bailey of Texas Exchanged a Few Words

MARTINE WANTED TO COMPARE THEIR RECORD

It All Came Off In Caucus Regarding Martin Resolution on Lorimer

WASHINGTON, May 25.—After four hours' caucus today the democratic senators voted, 24 to 1, to support the resolution offered by Senator Martin, of Virginia, on behalf of the democratic steering committee providing for a re-investigation of the bribery charges in connection with the election of Senator Lorimer, of Illinois. A personal colloquy between Senators Bailey, of Texas, and Martine, of New Jersey, featured the caucus. The Martin resolution proposed an inquiry by the committee on privileges and elections.

Martine Talked Back. The verbal encounter between Messrs. Bailey and Martine originated in Mr. Bailey's demand for general support of the Martin resolution. Mr. Bailey declared that any senator who refused to be bound by the caucus had no rightful place in the party councils. This aroused the senators who favored the LaFollette resolution providing for an inquiry by a special committee of new senators. Mr. Bailey contended that more than two-thirds of the caucus favored the Martin resolution, and it was thus the duty of all democratic senators to abide by the decision. Mr. Martine replied that while willing to compare his party record with the Texas senator he was unwilling to be bound by a party caucus on a moral question.

Saying he would not budge words regarding the character of his own democracy as compared with that of another senator, Mr. Bailey insisted that all senators were duty bound to abide by the two-thirds decision of the caucus. Mr. Martine replied as pointedly, and the colloquy continued until Mr. Martine withdrew from the caucus, reiterating that he would not be bound by it on any except a political question. Almost every other democratic senator present participated in the debate. It developed that the regular republicans agreed to abandon the Dillingham resolution in favor of the Martin measure, and all democrats were urged to support the provision as a part of party discipline. The caucus supported the Martin resolution with the understanding that any senator should be free in other and support amendments. It was expected that the Lorimer question would come up in the open senate today, but it was crowded out by other questions. Senator LaFollette expects to conclude his speech tomorrow and after one or two brief speeches in reply it is expected a vote will be taken. The prospect now is that the Martin resolution will be adopted without material amendment.

CARDINAL GIBBONS HOPES FOR LASTING PEACE PACT

Anniversary of Treaty of Ghent Will Be Fittingly Celebrated

MOHONK LAKE, N. Y., May 25.—Plans for celebrating the centenary of the signing of the treaty of Ghent were made public and the peace problem in many respects was discussed at the second day's session of the Lake Mohonk conference on international arbitration today. Tonight the conference considered the relation of the churches to the peace movement, eminent clergymen from home and abroad delivering addresses. A letter was read from Cardinal Gibbons regretting his inability to attend. After expressing himself in favor of a permanent treaty of arbitration between the United States and England, Cardinal Gibbons in his letter declared that if the same returns could be established between England and Germany "it would be of incalculable assistance not only to the two nations but also to the world at large, and I pray the day may soon come when all the nations of the earth may be joined together in a permanent pact of peace."
