Miss Helen Henderson entertains with a luncheon today at the Manor, at which there will be a dozen guests.

The following young people propose a two days' house party leaving town for today for Mount Pisgah, where they will stay at the Minakuchi residence, chaperoned by Miss Zibbey and Mrs. J. C. Carter. Miss Frances Gates, Miss Margaret Miller, Miss Katherine and Miss Brantley McCror, Miss Frances Carter, Miss Charity Crain, Miss Margaret Cowan, Miss Helen Taylor, Miss Louise Carter, Miss Albright Chambers, Hall Wrightson, Robert Redwood, William Williamson, Harry Hartwell, Wilbur Sumner, Larry Harber, Donald Randolph, Milton Bourne and Bennett Randolph.

The Asheville Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. J. E. Kay, 83 Hillside street. All the members are urged to attend, as this will be the last meeting of the summer.

The children of the public schools are daily receiving their awards for excellence in penmanship, which are presented by the A. M. Palmer company, of New York. Yesterday at the Park avenue school 95 awards were given, including diplomas, certificates, improvement badges and progressive pins. The children were greatly pleased to receive the awards and also to hear the very encouraging address made to them by Miss Carson. At the Murray school there were 45 awards given in penmanship. Miss W. M. Miller, the supervisor, making a very agreeable talk to the children.

A party of young ladies expect to leave the first of next week for an extensive trip through the West. On their way to Los Angeles, Cal., they will visit the Grand Canyon, and after a stay of some weeks in California return via the National Park, Salt Lake City, Manitou, Colorado Springs, also making a stop at Denver. Those in the party will be Miss Belle Reese, Miss Frances Hartwell, Miss Hannah Galley, Miss May Alexander, Miss Lottie Sallie, Miss Julia Smith, Miss Eleanor Hildebrand and Miss Edith Anderson.

Mrs. Reuben Robertson gave a very pretty anniversary dinner last evening at her home in Proximity park in honor of Mrs. Robertson. The dinner was a surprise and a number of intimate friends were present.

Mrs. A. G. Barnett, Mrs. W. R. Harris, Mrs. G. B. Harley, Miss Ethel Wilson, Miss Bess Owenby, Miss Alice Smith, Miss Nannie McDowell and Miss Elizabeth Claxton leave this morning for Lexington, N. C., where they go as delegates to the annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Western North Carolina conference of the Methodist church.

Mr. S. Lipinsky left yesterday afternoon for Philadelphia on a business trip.

Mr. William P. Howard, of Marion, is spending a few days in the city.

Mr. James Taylor has returned to the city from Jacksonville, Fla., where he has spent several months. The new Hotel Russell was opened for the reception of guests last Monday by Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Spears, of Asheville, N. C., says The Andrews Sun. "This hotel is said to be the most modern and handsomely equipped of any along the Murphy branch, and our progressive little mountain city is now better prepared than ever before to take care of the commercial and tourist trade."

The dinner dances at the Country club will begin June 17, a week from Saturday, which news will be of special interest to quite a number of people. The season will then take on some color and be of interest. So far the recent charity fete at Witchwood has been the only event of any size to break the monotony. The dinner dances will not of course be very large, but given every two weeks or so, will be very pleasantly anticipated and will afford the many members of the club diversion of a social nature. The music will be unusually good this year, and there will be many attrac-

NO BAD FEELINGS SINCE

Lady Tells in a Few Well Chosen Words, the Story of Her Serious Illness, Finally Conquered

Grand Haven Mich.—"I was very sick, with dragging-down feelings, until I was ready to give up all hope," says Mrs. L. J. Ryder, of this city. "I tried all the doctors here, but could find no relief, so I used your wonderful medicine, Cardui, and have had no return of pain, or bad feelings since."

Cardui has relieved or cured so many ladies, in a similar manner to this, during the past fifty years, that a letter like Mrs. Ryder's, is no novelty; such letters reach us in no ordinary mail.

From you, however, who are weak or sick, it merits special attention and serious consideration, since it seems to prove, on certain evidence, that a cure is possible in very serious cases of womanly trouble.

If you suffer from such troubles, what imaginable reason could there be, for your not at least giving Cardui a fair trial? Cardui cannot harm you. It is likely to do you good. It has helped others, who suffered as you do. Why should it not help you? Please try Cardui. If you need more information, ask your druggist. He knows the Cardui reputation. N. B.—Write to Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for special instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

Mr. Henry Whiting and Mr. Frank Whiting, of Philadelphia, of the Whiting Lumber company, are in the city for a short stay on business, and are guests at the Battery Park hotel.

Miss Marguerite Wadsworth is spending several weeks in New York with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Shemwell, who have spent the winter in Alabama, have returned for the summer and have opened their residence on Merrimon Avenue.

Mrs. M. E. Gray leaves today for New York and Boston, where she will spend several weeks. During her absence Miss Ruth Gray will remain at St. Genevieve's convent, where she is a student.

Mr. J. E. Hage, of the Eastman Kodak company, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Meriwether hospital the first of the week, is improving.

Mr. Frank Barber, of St. Petersburg, Fla., is in the city for a short stay.

Mrs. J. G. Lowe has gone to Stamford, Conn., where her daughter, Miss Lowe, graduates shortly from the Stamford seminary.

Judge J. C. Pritchard, who has been at Tate Spring, returns the latter part of the week.

Mrs. A. E. Bates, who has spent several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Dunn McKee, in Victoria, has returned to Washington, D. C.

Miss Harriet Maraden, of Boston, Mass., is spending the summer in Asheville.

Mrs. Mary Walden Williamson, who has been in Kentucky for some weeks, has recovered from an operation at the Lexington hospital.

Mrs. H. M. Dill has gone to Cincinnati to visit her mother, and will first visit friends in Chattanooga.

Mrs. Conally Cox leaves the latter part of the week for Atlantic City for a several weeks' stay.

Mr. Paul Brown goes to Kansas City today to attend the Baraca-Philathen convention.

Mr. Arch D. Montath leaves today for Spring county on professional business.

Mr. Henry Collins will go to Toxaway shortly to accept a position for the summer at Toxaway Inn.

Dr. S. Westray Battle has returned from Raleigh, N. C.

Mr. Edwin Phillips, of the University of Pennsylvania, has returned for his vacation, which will be spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brewster Phillips.

Prof. Cain, of the University of North Carolina, has gone on a fishing trip in the Nantahala mountains after a visit to Gen. and Mrs. T. F. Davidson.

Mrs. W. T. Woodard, of Lexington, and her daughter, Mrs. James Kerr, of New York, are guests at the Battery Park hotel. Mrs. Kerr has spent several summers in Asheville at the Park and at Kenilworth Inn, and has many friends in the city.

Miss Lucy Minor has returned from Sweet Briar college in Virginia.

Mrs. Louis C. Ball, of Milwaukee, will arrive shortly to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Charity Rusk Craig.

Mr. and Mrs. Y. Minakuchi are in Salisbury, Md., where the former has been lecturing for the Y. M. C. A. throughout the state during the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Minakuchi expect to go to Cambridge, Mass., shortly, where Mr. Minakuchi will study at Harvard, where he won a scholarship some time ago.

Either tea or yerba mate is served in Chile at 4 p. m., not only in the homes, but at clubs, restaurants and hotels, and many business houses. A cup of tea and a roll or small cake in the club or hotel cost from 5 to 12 cents United States gold, while the business houses serve it free rather than have the clerks leave their work or go out for it.

Black Taffeta Silk 36 Inches Wide for 85c Yard

The manufacturers made a mistake in sending us this black taffeta silk. It was ordered to come in September but an error in their clerical department caused them to ship the first of June. We immediately wrote and told them of the mistake. They stated that since "Bon Marche Special" had been woven on the selvage and that it would be impossible to sell to anyone else, they would give us a price concession so we could sell it out quickly. We accepted and the result is that you get a yard wide, Bon Marche special, black taffeta silk, for 85c yard.
