Raleigh Seems to Have Had Prizefight and Police Knew Nothing of It

RALEIGH, N. C. June 11.-Internal revenue officers say that the near- usy and it don't burt me." beer dealers here and throughout the beer saloons goes into effect all over freely admitting that they do not expect to close out their business at all. They will take out the government license to relieve themselves from structions, and 64-page book, "Home the serveillance of the revenue officers and then they will sell brands of drinks that will eliminate the beer idea. The liquid may and will probably very much resemble beer, they say, but there will be no beer or nearbeer brands, and the bottles will be different. The applications for renewal of government licenses are already coming in in anticipation of the expiration of the present licenses July 1. The change of the size of the grading the North Carolina section of bottles and the brands they bear, it the Transcontinental railroad that is is said, will constitute the principal changes that will take place in the near-beer saloons and their service. The near-beer men insist that they will comply with the law, and they will be relieved of the state and local taxt they have had to pay besides.

There is the most strenuous sort of a movement on foot to defeat the purpose of the building committee of the Young Men's Christian association from locating the building on the lot the committee purchased some days ago on the north side of Capitol square between Halifax and Wilmington streets. The building would be between the handsome Vass and Williamson homes, and the people of the neighborhood are averse to having the Y. M. C. A. in their midst. The contest is attracting considerable at-Some of those fighting most determinedly the present purpose of the committee as to location are men who rendered the most effective seryices in the campaign for the Y. M. C. A. building. Mr. Williamson, in fact, paid $2,000 toward the fund and headed one of the campaign committees in soliciting subscriptions.

He finds that turally be interested in learning the fire waste for the first five months of 1911 round up $108,999,800, or an have not yet invested in the gas will increase of $22,954,500 over the losses profit by a study of Mrs. Whitted's for the corresponding months of 1910. | methods. Of these losses the past five months there were only seven that amounted to over $200,000 loss each, being widely distributed and small amounts.

Gov. Kitchin granted a pardon yesterday to Joe Andrews, Guilford county, serving twelve months in the work house, the sentence being to the work house on account of his physical condition. He stole some paint while under the influence of drink. This was last September, Since his imprisonment he has painted the buildings at the workhouse and saved thereby over $300 to the county. His health is failing and his pardon, conditioned on good behavior, is urged by the county authorities, the trial judge and the manager of the corporation whose goods were stolen.

Sales of tobacco on the North Caro lina markets during May were 157,775 pounds compared with 1,300,893 pounds during May, 1910. Winston-Salem led again with 107,030 pounds only seven of the markets having any sales at all during the month other six were: Reidsville, $1,166 Durham, 11,446; Madison, 4,555 Stoneville, 2.940; Mebane, 2.038; Mt Airy, 2.603.

Raleigh had a prize fight last night all unbeknownst to herself. It was pulled off in the imperial club rooms in the presence of one hundred or more spectators who are alleged to have been charged admission. The fighters were Howard Rogers and Lewis Taylor who are said to have had special training lately. An eightround fight was the schedule, but in the second round Rogers downed Tay for twice, and the latter was declared to be down and out. The Raleigh police say they know nothing of the

Charlie Stines, of Madison county, serving a life sentence for criminal assault that was committed in 1905 from the death penalty, gets from Gov. Kitchin a pardon conditioned on good behavior, the pardon being on recommendation of ex-Gov. Gienn. who granted the commutation from death sentence, and on petition of nearly everybody in Madison county Gov. Kitchin says: 'It seems that the prosecutrix was a woman of very bad character, admitted later that her testimony against Stines was false, and then, upon being prosecuted for perjusy, was adjudged insance it seems that Gov. Glenn had promised Stines a pardon before he retired from office but overlooked issuing it. This is the reason he joins now in the
