

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. Donohue, who produced "The Little Princess" in Asheville last summer, will put on in Spartanburg July 6-7 a similar extravaganza called "The Queen of Beauty." Several of the girls taking principal parts in last summer's plays were asked by Mrs. Donohue to go to Spartanburg for "The Queen of Beauty," and Miss Pearl Shope will go to sing the leading role. Mrs. Donohue will come to Asheville afterward for a two weeks' rest and will then put on "The Queen of Beauty" here for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. The operetta is even more beautiful than "The Little Princess," it is said, and quite a number of the young people of Asheville will be asked to take part in it.

Class No. 40 of the First Baptist church will be entertained this evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Wolfe on Spruce street. Judge Pritchard is the president of the class. The invitations, above fifty in number, were issued yesterday, but in the event that any are lost, Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe invite each member of the class to be present.

The fairy play, "The Rescue of the Winoona Princess," will be seen this afternoon at 5 o'clock on the lawn of the residence of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Ramsey on Cumberland avenue, and will, it is expected, be a very interesting occasion. Miss Elizabeth Ramsey, who has read so delightfully on a number of public occasions in Asheville for various benefits, has rehearsed the children and taken great pains that they should give creditable representations of the various characters in the play. The costumes are unusually pretty and the play itself is charming. The play is given for the benefit of the Balfour orphanage, a charity that has never failed to meet the sympathy and support of the public. There will be a small charge of admission and the public is asked to patronize the children's play given for less fortunate little ones.

BOUND OVER TO COURT.

James S. Moore was bound over to Superior court under a $200 bond by Justice of the Peace M. A. Crossman, yesterday, under the charge of obtaining under false pretense $214.72 from T. W. Osteen and the Wachovia Loan & Trust Co. It was shown at the trial that Moore represented that he had a $5,000 farm and considerable other property, on the strength of which he received the money on April 22, 1909.

NEWSPAPER VISITOR.

Mr. W. H. Richardson, of the News and Observer staff, at Raleigh, spent yesterday in Asheville. He will spend his vacation at Blue Mont, where he goes this morning.

Women are now engaged in all but two of the 303 gainful occupations of the men of this country.

BAR ASSOCIATION MEETS TOMORROW

WILL HAVE THREE DAYS' SESSION AT LAKE TOXAWAY.

Many Local Attorneys Will Go to Hear the Fine Program of Addresses to Be Made.

A number of Asheville attorneys will leave for Lake Toxaway tomorrow morning to attend the three days' session of the North Carolina Bar association, which convenes at Toxaway Inn. Considerable interest has been shown in the coming meeting, which is indicated by the fact that several members of the Asheville bar have made application for membership to Thomas S. Rollins, a member of the membership committee.

There will be several able speakers to participate in the program, and owing to the large number of speakers scheduled, there will be five sessions instead of four as heretofore. A number of those who will attend from this city have arranged to take along members of their family, and will remain at Toxaway for several days.

The first session will be held tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock. The program is as follows: Address of welcome, Hon. Walter E. Moore of Webster.

Reply, Hon. D. L. Ward, President's address.

Addresses by Hon. Martin W. Littleton, E. T. Canaler, esq., Hon. Jas. S. Manning, Hon. J. J. Britt.

In addition to this it has been requested that an address be delivered by Mr. Thomas M. Pittman of the Henderson bar, upon the Torrens System.

Five sessions will be held. First session—June 28, 8:30 p. m. Address of welcome and reply, president's address.

Second session—June 29, 10 a. m. Address of E. T. Canaler, esq. Address of Hon. J. J. Britt, Washington, D. C.

Third session—June 29, 8:30 p. m. Address of Hon. Martin W. Littleton, of New York.

Fourth session—June 30, 10 a. m. Address of Hon. J. S. Manning, of Winston, N. C.

Fifth session—June 30, 8:30 p. m. Address of T. M. Pittman, esq., Hendersonville, on the Torrens System. Election of officers.

On account of the increased number of addresses this year, it seems that unless the meeting is divided into five sessions, the business of the association cannot be completed. This will be a longer meeting than the association ever has held and more addresses will be delivered than at any meeting heretofore. Reports of the various committees and the business of the session will take up all of this time.

MILITARY IDEAS IN THE BOY'S CAMP

Dr. Eugene L. Swann, one of the editors of the new book, "Harper's Camping and Scouting," points out that camping on a large scale involves a system like that of a military camp. In preparing himself to take charge of a boys' camp, Dr. Swann first made a trip to Governors Island in New York Harbor and gained much valuable information from the surgeon general and the officers in charge there. In his career as camp director, he has tried all sorts of devices in use in armies, including the latest methods of the Japanese. The book lays emphasis on the idea that the military virtues of camp life and of the boy scouts are the best training for peace, and attempts to show how an outing may combine the maximum of fun with the cultivation of common sense, competency and self-reliance.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

They Are Closely Observing Public Health Conditions

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that the reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of applicants do not even suspect that they have the disease. He states that judging from his own experience and reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has probably been more successful in relieving and curing those diseases than any remedy known. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of cures. We find that Swamp-Root is strictly an herbal compound and we would advise our readers who feel in need of such a remedy to give it a trial. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes—fifty-cents and one dollar.

WILD AEROPLANE.

NEW YORK, June 25.—A wild aeroplane romped over the aviation field at Garden City, L. I., for twenty minutes today, injured four men and finally wrecked itself on an embankment.

Andre Harpet, aviator, stepped out of the aeroplane while the engine was going at half speed to adjust a rear plane. As he tried to re-enter the seat the aeroplane started off and he was thrown to the ground. It dragged him 200 feet and when he released his hold he was badly bruised. Hair a dozen mechanics gave chase and were bowled over in succession, three of them being cut and bruised. The aeroplane remained on the ground during the runaway.
