COMMITTEE TO REST FOR NEXT TWO WEEKS

Committee Will Continue Sesons in Washington Instead of Chicago

WASHINGTON, July 1.-After saring a few mitnesses suggested by Edward Hines, who played a disputed part in the election of Senator Lorimer. the senate committee investigating that election today took a recess until Thursday, July 13. Instead of meeting in Chicago as planned a few days ago, the committee will continue its sessions in Washington indefinitely. Members of the committee expressed a desire to remain in Washington during the session of congress if posempts against the session of congress if posempts against the large bullengs.
