WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry, created a sensation today before the house investigating committee when he charged that three cabinet officers, sitting as a board of review, had reversed the government's ruling in a corporation case after the corporation had offered money to chemists to endorse its food product. The case was that of the Corn Products company, whose right to apply the name of "Corn Syrup" to glucose, the bureau of chemistry and the board of food and drug inspection had denied. Dr. Wiley testified that when the bureau and the board had agreed that the name was a misapplication, the corporation had offered money to a chemist to make affidavits that "corn syrup" was a proper description. Shortly afterward he declared, the board of three cabinet officers, Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou, Secretary of Commerce Wilson and Secretary of Agriculture Wilson set aside the decision and sustained the contention of the corporation. That ruling, he added, still stands. The Corn Products company, said Dr. Wiley, charged that he had been "very busy" in creating sentiment against its products. He acknowledged that he had written to every state chemist whose duty it was to enforce the pure food laws. He said he did not receive one answer favorable to "Corn Syrup." He will resume the stand tomorrow.

PUBLICITY BILL PASSES
HOUSE BY TREMENDOUS
MAJORITY, 283 TO 26Opposition Could Not Vote
for Federal Regulation of Primaries

NOW GOES TO TAFT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The house today adopted, 283 to 26, the conference report on the campaign publicity bill. The report already has been adopted by the senate and the measure will go to the president at once. The action of the house was taken in spite of strenuous protest by a few southern members who insisted that the primary election feature of the bill was an infringement upon state's rights.

As finally adopted the bill stands practically as it was amended by the senate. It requires that all candidates for the senate or house either in general elections, primaries or nominating conventions, shall file statements of their expenses not more than 15 nor less than ten days before the election or nomination. Expenses of candidates for the senate are limited to $10,000 and those of candidates for the house to $5,000 and candidates are required to say what positions or honors they have promised in an effort to influence votes. Personal traveling expenses and official fees do not have to be listed.

Representatives Hardwick, Bartlett and Richardson led the fight against the bill declaring that they wanted publicity but could not vote for federal regulation of primary elections in their states.

Representative Rucker, of Missouri, author of the original bill and chairman of the committee, insisted that the would not interfere with regulation of primaries by the states.

MAN KILLED IN DERAILMENT

LULA, Ga., Aug. 17.—One man was killed and several slightly hurt about noon today when a Southern railway freight train from Charlotte, N. C., to Atlanta, left the rails near here. Engineer C. B. Jones, of Atlanta, was killed. Two brakemen and the fireman were injured. The track was torn up for 500 feet. What caused the train to leave the track is not known.

PRESIDENT'S VETO
ON WOOL WILL BE EASILY DEFEATEDGreat Applause Greet Underwood's
Announcement That It Will Be Taken up Immediately And Passed By Big Majority.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Republican applause which greeted President Taft's veto of the wool tariff bill as it was read in the house late today was followed by an outburst of democratic cheers when Majority Leader Underwood announced that he would call up the bill tomorrow and move its passage over veto.

The president's veto message reached the house while the roll was being called on Mr. Underwood's motion to concur in the senate amendments to the free list bill. When the conference reported on that bill its final executive stage was announced, the reading of the president's message was begun, each member following the president's words from printed copies of the veto which had been distributed. When the reading was concluded Mr. Underwood arose.

"Mr. Speaker," he said, "I do not desire to ask that this message from the president be referred to the committee on ways and means. I ask that it lie on the speaker's table and give notice that I will call up the bill tomorrow immediately after the reading of the journal, and move to pass it over the president's veto."

Cheers from Democrats.

Cheers and shouts from the democratic members greeted the announcement. Representative Garrett, of Tennessee, when quiet was restored, asked unanimous consent to incorporate in the record a portion of President Taft's speech at Winona, Minn., in the last campaign, in which he described the wool schedule of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill as "indefensible."

Republican Leader Mann asked unanimous consent to incorporate the entire Winona speech in the record, which carried. The democratic majority tomorrow will make a determined effort to pass the bill over the veto. They have hopes that they will be able to do this. Representative Mann and other republican leaders expressed confidence tonight that this will be impossible. Representative Dwight, the republican whip, has told the president that the majority will not be able to muster enough to carry the bill by a two-thirds vote. On the recent passage of the compromise bill in the house the vote was 206 to 90.

Absentees Coming In

Many members of both parties reached Washington today and all absentees are ordered to be on hand tomorrow. The democrats expect, with their full quota of members present, together with the 30 republicans who voted for the bill, that they can develop a two-thirds majority. Republican leaders assert that many of the insurgents who voted for the bill will not do so over the president's head.

The house and senate disposed of the free list bill as agreed upon in conference, and it was signed tonight by Vice President Sherman and Speaker Clark. It will be sent to the president tomorrow.

President Taft today carried out his threat to veto the wool tariff bill. In a special message to the house of representatives he characterized the measure a blend of an avowed tariff for revenue and anti-protection measure with a professed protection bill.

President's Defense.

In explanation of his course President Taft said the bill was not in harmony with the platform on which he was elected. Furthermore, he declared that the American people are deeply impressed with the conviction that the interest of the consuming public can be properly guarded only by revising the tariff one schedule at a time and then upon accurate and scientifically acquired information."

That there is a widespread belief that many of the rates in the wool schedule are too high and in excess of any needed protection for the wool grower and manufacturer is admitted by President Taft, and he says he shares the belief. Asserting that December was the time fixed by both the republican and democratic parties in the last congress for the submission of adequate information upon schedule K with a view to its adoption, the president says there is no public exigency requiring revision in August without adequate information.

After declaring that the business of the country rests on a protective basis and emphasizing the need of a reliable source of information for legislative action, the president promises that the tariff board will be ready to report in December and argues that the failure of the present bill should not be regarded therefore as taking away the only chance for reduction.

ATWOOD MORE THAN HALF THROUGH HIS TRIP TO NEW YORKActual Time In Air Has Been Exactly Thirteen Hours
And Fifteen MinutesFLIES 643 MILES
IN 795 MINUTESEntry Into Cleveland As Thrilling as Ovals Accorded at Other Places

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 10.—With another gain to his credit of 123 miles, Harry H. Atwood arrived in Cleveland this afternoon on his monoplane flight from St. Louis to New York.

He covered the 123 miles between Toledo and Cleveland in an actual flying time of two hours and twenty minutes.

"Just an easy center," said Atwood, as he stepped from his biplane in a park on the Lake shore of the city. "In five days New York will see me hop over its tallest skyscrapers and glide into the sand at Coney Island."

The Bostonian has now travelled 643 miles from his starting point in St. Louis. He still has 621 miles to fly to reach his destination in New York. He therefore has gone just ten and one-half miles more than half of the 1,243 mile trip which he says will show the possibility of a future ocean-to-ocean flight. His total time actually in the air since he left St. Louis last Monday is 13 hours and 15 minutes.

Thrilling Entry.

Blowing of whistles and the cheering of people crowded on the roofs of office buildings made Atwood's entry into Cleveland shortly before 5 o'clock an thrilling as the ovations accorded him at St. Louis, Chicago and Toledo. Coming with the "up-hill" slant usual with him when approaching a city the airman soared to an altitude of 1,800 feet where enveloped in the misty atmosphere the biplane was only indistinctly visible to the thousands of eyes turned toward it.

That an aeronaut cannot quickly pick out the spot arranged for his landing in a strange city was again evidenced when Atwood by mistake at 4:41 p. m. descended at Edgewater Park in the Western section.

TRAFFIC OF ENTIRE UNITED KINGDOM
WILL BE CRIPPLEDIf Men Respond to General Strike
Order Issued-All Depends Now upon Number of Men Keeping In Line-Army on Move.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—The strenuous almost desperate efforts the liberal government has made to prevent the greatest conflict between capital and labor that England ever has witnessed are trembling in the balance tonight. Representatives of the four organizations comprising the amalgamated Society of Railway Servants issued a strike order tonight calling out the 100,000 members of their allied unions. The men were asked to strike "immediately."

Though the membership of the unions is less than one-sixth of the entire force of railway workmen, it includes the highest skilled laborers employed by the companies and if they all keep in line they will be able to cripple the traffic of the entire United Kingdom.

The vital question in the situation now is how large a proportion of the men will respond to the strike order. No one can answer the question or even attempt to summarize the situation tonight.

No Definite Information.

At midnight neither the board of trade, the railway managers nor the union leaders has any definite information of how far the men were responding to the strike order. Telegrams were pouring in that a thousand men had struck here and five hundred at another place, but the messages were based largely on guess work. As far as London is concerned the strike has not visibly affected traffic as yet. All trains are moving as usual and the only disturbance reported was a small row between union and non-union men at the St. Pancras station. Late tonight the executive committee of the strikers issued a statement saying:

Results from the provinces point to an early decisive victory.

The leaders, however, could not give details supporting this assertion.

Strike Staved Off.

The government had been successful in its attempt to stave off the strike which had been set to begin at 5 o'clock this morning and tonight David Lloyd-George, the chancellor of the exchequer, stepped into the breach in the house of commons after the day's conference at the board of trade had resulted in failure in an endeavor further to delay the walkout of the men and bring about an amicable settlement of the controversy.

BILLS ON OWN HOOKBut as Vetoes Are Certain And Coalition "Busted" Will Be Of No Avail

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—A shrewd move of the regular republicans as unexpected as it was effective today suddenly threw the democrats into complete control of the senate in their own right and forced them absolutely to abandon their coalition with the progressive republicans.

Out of the chaos and the uproar came a bill to revise the cotton schedule of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law. It was the bill as passed by the house but saddled with amendments to revise the iron and steel, the cotton machinery and chemical schedule of the tariff law, coupled with a provision for reciprocal free trade in bituminous coal across the Canadian border.

The bill as amended will go back to the house and probably will be sent to conference. If it emerges from this ordeal and goes to the white house it unquestionably will meet the fate of the wool revision bill which was vetoed today by President Taft.

Republicans Leave.

Democratic votes alone were cast in favor of the bill. The regular republicans deliberately absented themselves from the chamber and thus left their progressive colleagues in a hopeless and helpless minority. The insurgents, taken completely by surprise, were thrown into a rage. Alternately they denounced what they termed the treachery of the democrats with whom they had been in alliance, and inveighed against the regular republicans for the part they had played in the new combination which had brought about a revolution in the senate as startling and sensational as the coalition which earlier had robbed the regular republicans of their supremacy in the upper house of congress.

In vain the insurgents invoked all-but-forgotten rules of the senate to compel the regulars to attend and to cast their votes. Sensational sources, however, declared that the regular republicans were planning to return to the chamber and vote against the bill.

TESTIMONY IN FLEMING

RECESS ORDERED

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 17.—Percy B. Fleming was on the witness stand under cross examination this evening when Chief Justice Walter Clark announced a recess for the day in the sensational hearing of the petition of Mrs. Fleming for a writ of habeas corpus involving the custody of the two children and in which Fleming repiles by attacking the fitness of Mrs. Fleming to have the care of the children.

Fleming testified to eighteen months of happy married life in spite of alleged extravagances, he said, she forced him to that made him insolvent when he had been worth $10,000 at the time he married.

He testified that his wife wrote a Mrs. Wood in 1908 at Beaufort: "Give C my love and tell him how sorry I am our will was not God's will," and he locked himself in his room and threatened to commit suicide if his door was forced but did not have the nerve. He said Mrs. Fleming would curse that she visited the bachelor home of Bartwell Wise, meeting M. W. Tyree, a photographer, there.

Tyree had stayed at his house drunk and he and Bartlett Wise and Tyree were drinking there and fought on account of these jealousies, he said, he having gotten his shot gun only to find them gone when he came with it.

Afterward they made up and Fleming asked Tyree to talk to Mrs. Fleming about the way she was doing. He said John Winder, Jr., was too intimate with his wife.

That Winder came to the house one night and took Mrs. Fleming and Miss Nannie Rogers for a two-hour automobile ride when they were to only take a spin around the square.

That he locked the house up and the two had trouble in getting in on their return at 11:30 o'clock.

He denied that he drew a revolver on Mrs. Fleming that night as she

EXTRA SESSION RUMORS

Gien as the Cause

NO APPOINTMENTS

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 17.—The Georgia legislature adjourned at a late hour tonight, the house at 11 o'clock and the senate at 12:55.

The appointments of Governor Smith were returned to him unopened by the senate.

Although it was rumored that Governor Smith would call an extra session of the legislature he gave no intimation of his purpose in that direction tonight.

RUMORS RIFE OF EXTRA SESSION

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 17.—The allotted fifty days of the 1911 session was noted, among other things, for the election of Governor Hoke Smith as United States senator and his determination despite some opposition to retain the governorship until certain legislation was accomplished. The reason given by the governor for his retention of the office was his anxiety to see passed an anti-lobbying bill, and in this he was satisfied. Other important events of the session were:

Defeat of a bill by committee prohibiting sale of "near beer," passage of a bill making possession of federal liquor license prima facie evidence of conducting sale of liquor, refusal to admit women lawyers to bar, enactment of Georgia's first game and fish law, making it possible for cities to adopt commission form of government, proposed to remove capital to Macon, creation of office of state auditor, creation of department of labor, final adjournment of the session tonight was delayed because of opposition in the senate to consideration of certain appointments sent the senate by the governor. It was said early tonight that the appointments might not be confirmed. Rumors that an extra session would be called were rife tonight. Failure of the senate to make appointments was given as the basis of the rumors.

DURHAM, N. C., Aug. 17.—A romance which began a few years ago in a class room at Trinity college here, culminated tonight in the marriage at Martinsville, Va., of President Fox of Trinity, and Miss Mary Reamey Thomas, a member of the class which was graduated from the institution in 1906. The association that began when Miss Thomas, as a Trinity student was a member of one Dr. Fox's classes, soon ripened into a friendship which presently gave way to an attachment of a deeper sort. Miss Thomas is the daughter of former Representative James Thomas of Virginia, and following graduation from Trinity studied at Columbia university and travelled extensively. Dr. and Mrs. Fox will reside in Durham.

TOGO NOT TO GO.

BOSTON, Aug. 17.—Admiral Count Togo, the Japanese sea fighter, worn out by feasts and receptions, broke down physically today and cancelled his proposed visit to the North Atlantic squadron engaged in maneuvers off Provincetown. He complained of a slight attack of indigestion and throughout the day remained in his room resting. Plans for tomorrow are dependent entirely on how the admiral feels. The abandonment today of the visit to the Atlantic was a great disappointment not only to the American officers out to the admiral himself, who sent messages of regret to Acting Secretary of the Navy Beakman Winthrop and Rear Admiral Osterhaus, in command of the fleet.

C. The chair car and sleeper in which were traveling a number of passengers bound to Wrightsville Beach, N. C., for the week-end, were derailed and turned over.

The injured were taken to Bladenboro, N. C., for treatment. The wreck is said to have been caused by a "rail kink" following a day of intense heat.

After receiving temporarily medical attention at the scene of the wreck the injured were brought here tonight and are being cared for by physicians, with the exception of the Pullman Conductor J. B. Hill of this city, who is thought to have received internal injuries, none are seriously hurt. The injured were:
